The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

By the PACKET for JULY, arrived at New-York from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

From the LONDON CHRONICLE of June 22, 1771.

To his Grace the DUKE of G----ON.

My LORD,

THE profound reſpect I bear to the gracious Prince, who governs this country with no leſs honour to himſelf than ſatisfaction to his ſubjects, and who reſtores you to your rank under his ſtandard, will ſave you from a multitude of reproaches. The attention I ſhould have paid to your failings, is involuntarily attracted to the hand that rewards them, and though I am not ſo partial to the royal judgment, as to affirm, that the favour of a King can remove mountains of infamy, it ſerves to leſſen at leaſt, for undoubtedly it divides the burthen. While I remember how much is due to his ſacred character, I cannot, with any decent appearance of propriety, call you the meaneſt and the baſeſt fellow in the kingdom. I proteſt, my Lord, I do not think you ſo. You will have a dangerous rival, in that kind of fame to which you have hitherto ſo happily directed your ambition, as long as there is one man living, who thinks you worthy of his confidence, and fit to be truſted with any ſhare in his government. I confeſs you have great intrinſic merit; but take care you do not value it too highly. Conſider how much of it would have been loſt to the world, if the King had not graciouſly affixed his ſtamp, and given it currency among his ſubjects. If it be true that a virtuous man, ſtruggling with adverſity, be a ſcene worthy of the Gods, the glorious contention between you and the beſt of Princes deſerves an audience equally reſpectable. I think I already ſee other Gods riſing from the earth to behold it.

But this language is too mild for the occaſion. The King is determined, that our abilities ſhall not be loſt to Society. The perpetration and deſcription of new crimes will find employment for us both. My Lord, if the perſons, who have been loudeſt in their profeſſions of patriotiſm, had done their duty to the Public with the ſame zeal and perſeverance that I did, I will not aſſert that government would have recovered its dignity, but at leaſt our gracious Sovereign muſt have ſpared his ſubjects this laſt inſult, which, if there be any feeling left among us, they will reſent more than even the real injuries they received from every meaſure of your Grace's Adminiſtration. In vain would he have looked round him for another character ſo conſummate as yours. Lord Mansfield ſhrinks from his principles;---his ideas of government perhaps go farther than your own, but his heart diſgraces the theory of his underſtanding.---Charles Fox is yet in bloſſom; and as for Mr. Wedderburne, there is ſomething about him, which even treachery cannot truſt. For the preſent therefore, the beſt of Princes muſt have contented himſelf with Lord Sandwich.----You would long ſince have received your final diſmiſſion and reward; and I, my Lord, who do not eſteem you the more for the high office you poſſeſs, would willingly have followed you to your retirement. There is ſurely ſomething ſingularly benevolent in the character of our Sovereign. From the moment he aſcended the throne, there is no crime, of which human nature is capable (and I call upon the Recorder to witneſs it) that has not appeared venal in his ſight. With any other Prince, the ſhameful deſertion of him, in the midſt of that diſtreſs, which you alone had created,---in the very criſis of danger, when he fancied he ſaw the throne already ſurrounded by men of virtue and abilities, would have out-weighed the memory of all your former ſervices. But his Majeſty is full of juſtice, and underſtands the doctrine of compenſations. He remembers with gratitude how ſoon you had accommodated your morals to the neceſſities of his ſervice;---how chearfully you had abandoned the engagements of private friendſhip, and renounced the moſt ſolemn profeſſions to the Public. The ſacrifice of Lord Chatham was not loſt upon him. Even the cowardice and perfidy of deſerting him may have done you no diſſervice in his eſteem. The inſtance was painful, but the principle might pleaſe.

You did not neglect the Magiſtrate, while you flattered the Man. The expulſion of Mr. Wilkes predetermined in the Cabinet;--the power of depriving the ſubject of his birthright attributed to a reſolution of one branch of the Legiſlature;---the Conſtitution impudently invaded by the Houſe of Commons;---the right of defending it treacherouſly renounced by the Houſe of Lords:--Theſe are the ſtrokes, my Lord, which, in the preſent reign, recommend to office, and conſtitute a Miniſter. They would have determined your Sovereign's judgment, if they had made no impreſſion upon his heart. We need not look for any other ſpecies of merit to account for his taking the earlieſt opportunity to recal you to his Councils. Yet you have other merit in abundance.--Mr. Hine,--the Duke of Portland,--and Mr. Yorke. Breach of Truſt, R----y, and M----r. You would think it a compliment to your gallantry, if I added Rape to the catalogue; but the ſtile of your amours ſecures you from reſiſtance. I know how well theſe ſeveral charges have been defended. In the firſt inſtance, the Breach of Truſt is ſuppoſed to have been its own reward. Mr. Bradſhaw affirms upon his honour (and ſo may the gift of ſmiling never depart from him!) that you reſerved no part of Mr. Hine's purchaſe-money for your own uſe, but that every ſhilling of it was ſcrupulouſly paid to Governor Burgoyne.--Make haſte, my Lord;--another patent, applied in time, may keep the OAKS in the family.---If not, Birnham Wood, I fear, muſt come to the Macaroni.

The Duke of Portland was in life your earlieſt friend. In defence of his property he had nothing to plead, but equity againſt Sir James Lowther, and preſcription againſt the Crown. You felt for your friend; but the law muſt take its courſe. Poſterity will ſcarce believe that Lord Bute's ſon-in-law had barely intereſt enough at the Treaſury to get his grant compleated before the General Election.

Enough has been ſaid of that deteſtable tranſaction, which ended in the death of Mr. Yorke. I cannot ſpeak of it without horror and compaſſion.---To excuſe yourſelf, you publicly impeach your accomplice, and to his mind perhaps the accuſation may be flattery. But in m----r you are both principals. It was once a queſtion of emulation, and if the event had not diſappointed the immediate ſchemes of the cloſet, it might ſtill have been a hopeful ſubject of jeſt and merriment between you.

This letter, my Lord, is only a preface to my future correſpondence. The remainder of the ſummer ſhall be dedicated to your amuſement. I mean now and then to relieve the ſeverity of your morning ſtudies, and to prepare you for the buſineſs of the day. Without pretending to more than Mr. Bradſhaw's ſincerity, you may rely upon my attachment, as long as you are in office.

Will your Grace forgive me, if I venture to expreſs ſome anxiety for a man, whom I know you do not love? My Lord Weymouth has cowardice to plead, and a deſertion of a later date than your own. You know the Privy Seal was intended for him; and if you conſider the dignity of the poſt he deſerted, you will hardly think it decent to quarter him upon Mr. Rigby. Yet he muſt have bread, my Lord; or rather he muſt have wine. If you deny him the cup, there will be no keeping him within the pale of the Miniſtry. JUNIUS."

Hamburgh, June 9. We are aſſured that France hath reſolved to pay to Sweden the arrears which are become due from her to that kingdom by the laſt treaty of alliance and ſubſidy, without exacting any new engagements on the part of that Crown; in conſequence of which France hath already remitted the ſum of 1,500,000 livres, and will continue to pay the ſame ſum for four ſucceſſive years.

Copenhagen, May 28. There has lately been a revolt in Jutland, occaſioned by a capitation, which was impoſed eight years ago by the late King. A detachment of troops was ſent amongſt them to ſuppreſs the tumult, who ſeized the principal of them, and the remainder paid the tax. It is ſaid the ringleaders will be ſet at liberty, after being reprimanded; and that a new regulation will be made to fix the capitation, and the manner of collecting it.

Warſaw, May 29. The Ruſſian Ambaſſador, who lately arrived here, has publiſhed a declaration of her Imperial Majeſty, in which ſhe expreſſes her deep concern for the deplorable ſituation of this unfortunate country, and her extreme deſire of contributing to the reſtoration of peace and tranquility in the Kingdom.

General Branicki is juſt ſet out from hence with a great number of copies of the abovementioned declaration, in order to diſperſe them among the Confederates, and to confer with their Chiefs on the moſt efficacious means of putting an end to the troubles which deſolate this kingdom. The pacific views of the Empreſs of Ruſſia appear to have made a great impreſſion on the public, who conſider the ſtep taken by Count Branicki as a happy omen, and expect ſoon to ſee peace and plenty revive here.

Dantzick, June 5. Yeſterday paſſed through this place a Courier from Warſaw, who directed his courſe for Berlin and London. He is charged with diſpatches to thoſe two Courts, with the agreeable news that M. Obreſcow was arrived at the army of Count Romanzow, and that the Turks and Ruſſians have entered into a negotiation for a peace.

Vienna, June 8. They write from Prague, that ſome commotions happened there laſt week, on account of the ſcarcity of proviſions. The troops were forced to be put in motion; but matters are at length ſettled, without any material conſequences. By order of the Emperor, who is much affected by the diſtreſſes of the people of Bohemia, ſome hundreds of carriages, laden with wheat and flour, have been ſent from this city for that kingdom.

Genoa, May 25. According to advices from Madrid, the diſputes relative to the Falkland Iſland being finally terminated, the Subjects of both Spain and England are to be at liberty to land there when they think proper.

Warſaw, June 12. Yeſterday a Courier arrived from the Ruſſian army, with the following letter from Count Romanzow, dated Jaſſy, the 20th of May, O. S. to M. Saldern, Ambaſſador from Ruſſia to our Court.

"After the expedition of General Weiſſman againſt Izatcia, Major General Potemkin ſignalized himſelf in a like enterprize acroſs the Danube. Having drawn the enemy towards Orcow, he embarked with 600 Grenadiers, and 200 Chaſſeurs, on ſeveral boats, and landed at four werſts from Cymbra. The Turks, on the firſt appearance of our Troops, abandoned that town with ſuch precipitation, as to leave their wives and children to our mercy. General Potemkin immediately gave orders to the troops to purſue them, and 300 were found hid in the gardens belonging to the Chriſtians; 82 of them were killed; we loſt one, and had 19 wounded. The General ordered fire to be ſet to four barks, three of which were mounted with four cannon, and the other with five, and 17 ſaiques; as alſo to three magazines of flour, and one of biſcuit. After this, the General returned to his poſt with 100 ſmall barks, and 14 batteaus, two of which were loaded with proviſions. We have at the ſame time releaſed 2620 Chriſtians, who repaſſed the river with us. The fire of the magazines was driven by the wind to ſome adjacent houſes, which communicating itſelf to the town of Cymbra, it was reduced to aſhes. According to the report of our priſoners, there were 2000 Turks in that place."

Madrid, June 4. Six of our ſhips of war, of 70 guns each, have ſailed from Cadiz for Carthagena, where they are to be diſarmed.

Piſa, June 5. During the Count Alexis Orlow's reſidence at Vienna, the Emperor made him a preſent of his portrait enriched with jewels, and the Empreſs Queen gave him a gold ſnuff box garniſhed with brilliants, and a moſt valuable ring.

Before General Orlow's departure from hence for Leghorn, he gave audience to the Deputies from Raguſa; but they have not obtained of him any thing they applied for.

Leghorn, June 5. As to the departure of the Ruſſian fleet, which is now in our port, we believe it is countermanded, and will wait freſh orders from Peterſburgh.

Conſtantinople, May 17. In the night between the 5th and 6th inſt. an incendiary was taken who had juſt ſet fire to a houſe in this City, on which he was immediately ſtrangled, and the fire was extinguiſhed. The diſorders of the Militia are greater than ever were known; they ſurrounded lately the Kaimachan, from whom they demanded money, and he was obliged to purchaſe his liberty at the price of ſixty ſequins. The baths for the women, which have always, till this period, been regarded as ſacred, have been attacked; ſeveral women have been forced away, and two Ladies were very ill treated who were going to them, notwithſtanding every effort to ſave them. Theſe exceſſes continued to the 8th inſtant; when the Grand Signor gave orders for the greateſt part of the Militia and Mariners to embark on board the ſhips in the harbour, and to bring their arms on ſhore; at the ſame time an order was iſſued, giving leave to any perſons attacked to defend themſelves. Two days after like orders were publiſhed at Galata and Pera, when the ſhops were ordered to be opened, and permiſſion given to the Chriſtians, not only to defend themſelves, but to act offenſively againſt any that ſhould inſult them. This order has had a happy effect, thirty of the ringleaders have been ſtrangled, and we now enjoy tranquility.

The plague has manifeſted itſelf afreſh, not only in this capital, but in the ſuburbs.

Dantzick, June 15. The Pruſſian troops have afreſh entered into Werder, and other juriſdictions of this City, where they exact heavy contributions, which have reduced the inhabitants to the greateſt indigence.

Genoa, June 5. The people of Sartana have ſhot and killed the French Attorney-General in that Iſland.

Otranto, June 3. The maritime forces of the Ruſſians in the Archipelago, conſiſt of twelve ſhips of the line, fifteen frigates, and a bomb ketch. Each ſhip of the line carries 600 men, and every frigate 300. They have at Paros 2800 ſoldiers encamped in the plains of Carigi, beſides 3000 Greeks and Albanians.

They write from Conſtantinople, that towards the beginning of laſt month ſome Ruſſian frigates began to bombard the Caſtle of Tenedos.

They write from Naples, that Mount Veſuvius recommenced a few days to throw out a quantity of lava with great violence.

Peterſburgh, June 4. Yeſterday and this morning there have been ſeveral dreadful fires, but they are now happily extinguiſhed: A very great number of woooden houſes, and ſome of brick, have been burnt; among which are the Hotel of the Corps of Marine Cadets, and a hemp warehouſe, in which however there were fortunately not above 10,000 pood of hemp in ſtore.

The loſs to the Britiſh Factory is far from conſiderable, but their danger was very great, as many magazines of combuſtible goods were ſurrounded with flames.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for your Favours paſt, and ſhall be further obliged to you for the Continuance of your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election.

St. James's, July 2. Last night the ceremony of christening of the young Prince was performed in the Great Council Chamber by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury. His Royal Highness was named Ernest-Augustus. The Sponsors were, his Serene Highness Prince Ernest of Mecklenburgh Strelitz in person; his Serene Highness Prince Maurice of Saxe Gotha, represented by the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household; and her Serene Highness the Hereditary Princess of Hesse-Cassel, represented by the Countess of Egremont.

LONDON, June 18.

It is said, that 7 Gentlemen, who have lately had several meetings at a Coffee-house in Cornhill, came to the resolution, a few evenings ago, of presenting Mr. Wilkes with an elegant chariot and pair of horses, in case he be chosen Sheriff.

They write from Gibraltar, that part of a hill there had lately tumbled down, and filled up a great space underneath with the rubbish, which has occasioned orders to be given for building a strong wall, to prevent further ill consequences.

June 20. It is said that Lord North particularly recommended in Council the appointment of the Duke of Grafton to the Privy Seal; and that a very great Personage on this occasion said, "You not only serve your country in this step my Lord, but do yourself honour, in having a man who was Prime Minister acting as a second under your administration."

It is pretty certain that the present Lord Mayor will be re-elected for the year ensuing; and if Mr. Wilkes should be chosen Sheriff this year, which is most probable, the year 1773 may see Alderman Wilkes Lord Mayor.

On Monday Mr. Horne was expelled from the Club at Appleby's.

June 22. Yesterday the Earl of Sandwich set out for Deptford, to visit the state of the dock-yards and shipping there; from thence he proposes to review the royal college at Greenwich, and then proceed to Woolwich, where he will inspect into the situation of the ordnance, and the rest of his Majesty's stores.

It is said, the King of Portugal is in a very declining state of health.

It is not true, as lately reported, that commercial affairs in that kingdom are taking a turn in our favour, no such intelligence having really arrived, our factory and trade there still continuing to decline.

Letters from Vienna, dated May 25, brought by yesterday's French mail, advise, that the negotiation for a peace between the Turks and Russians, under the mediation of the Emperor and the King of Prussia, seems to have all the success that can be wished.

Mr. Bellas, for several days past, in different public rooms, has given it as his opinion, that Mr. Wilkes would certainly be elected Sheriff; but declared positively, that he "shall not serve."

A single elderly Gentleman of considerable fortune, near Frome, in Somersetshire, has bequeathed an estate to Mr. Wilkes of 1200l. per annum after his decease; and it is said, that he has already given the Patriot a genteel present as a reward for his services.

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, June 8, 1771.

"The King of Prussia has for some weeks past been busy with the annual reviews of his troops in different parts of his dominions; at present he is at Magdebourg, from thence he goes to pay a short visit to the Brunswick family at Salzdall, but he is expected at Potzdam some day next week, where he will remain quiet some time, and drink for his health some mineral waters, as is his custom every year. Before he left this place, in the end of last month, he threw out at his own table, that now the Porte had acquiesced in the Empress of Russia's demand of setting her Minister at Constantinople at liberty, he looked upon a peace between the two powers as absolutely certain, and that it would surely take place this summer. Mons. Oberscow, I hear, has already passed through Poland, in his way to Petersburgh; so that I hope we shall soon hear of a place for negociating being agreed upon by the Russian and Ottoman Courts. And as by all accounts the terms on which the Czarina intends to treat, are so equitable and moderate, as will surprize Europe, considering the vast success of her arms, it is to be hoped that their differences will be speedily and amicably settled. What plan is resolved on for the pacification of Poland, I have not yet heard. It is said, that the Courts of Vienna and Berlin will not interfere in those matters, but leave it entirely to the prudence and wisdom of her Czarish Majesty, to settle the peace of that unhappy kingdom. In the mean time the line of Prussian troops along the frontiers of Polish Prussia, &c. which was formed on account of the plague, and to prevent the excursions of the Confederates, commit the greatest abuses in these parts, by levying the most heavy exactions and contributions on the inhabitants: They stop and carry to Konigsberg all Polish boats laden with hemp, flax, corn, &c. in short, they have put a stop to all trade and commerce: That of the town of Dantzick has particularly suffered; letters from thence asserting, that their trade is quite ruined."

Private letters from Lisbon mention, that the late pretended misunderstanding between the Courts of France and Portugal, is nothing but a State-juggle.

June 25. A considerable wager has been made between a Bill of Rights-man and one of the Constitutional Society, that Mr. Wilkes will turn a certain Bull into a Cow, and that after he has transformed the animal, he will milk the creature till it yields him 2000l.

Extract of a Letter from Venice, May 30.

"According to advices received here from Constantinople, the Grand Vizir hath received orders to remain peaceably in his camp, and not to engage in any hostile measures till further instructions shall be sent to him."

An Account of the Proceedings Yesterday at Guildhall.

Yesterday about one o'clock the Lord Mayor, attended by Aldermen Townsend, Oliver, Plumbe, Wilkes, Stephenson, Sawbridge, the Sheriffs, Recorder, Town-clerk, and Common Serjeant, opened the Court of Common-hall. When the Recorder came forward on the Hustings to explain the business of the day, he could not be heard for hissing. At length the noise subsided, and he proceeded without interruption, till he came to talk of the distraction of the Livery, and to declare that he had for these 9 years served the City, acted according to the dictates of honour and conscience, &c. when there arose an universal hooting and hissing, which did not cease till the Lord Mayor interposed, and convinced the Hall, that the business could not go on without the formality of an address from the Recorder. He then made a few observations; after which the several Aldermen who had not served the office of Sheriffs, were put up for that office, as were also near 20 Commoners, and on the holding up of hands there appeared a very great majority for Mr. Alderman Wilkes and Mr. Bull, but a poll being demanded for Mr. Alderman Kirkman, and Mr. Alderman Oliver, by Mr. Deputy Judd, and George Bellas, Esq; as also for Mr. Alderman Kirkman, with Mr. Alderman Plumbe, by Mr. Deputy Hopkins, and Mr. Rivington; the same was also demanded for Mr. Alderman Wilkes and Mr. Bull.

The report from the Committee to assist the Lord Mayor, and Messieurs Aldermen Wilkes and Oliver, in their defence, was read.

A motion was made, that an humble Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, be presented to his Majesty; which Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, being read, was agreed to nem. con.

The Address, Remonstrance, and Petition, is to be presented by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, the four Representatives in Parliament, Common Council, and Livery of the City of London.

A motion was then made, and universally agreed to, that the Livery of London do desire the Common Council to present a gold cup to the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, of the value of 200l. with the City Arms engraved thereon, and to Mr. Aldermen Wilkes and Oliver one each, of the value of 100l. as a mark of their gratitude for their upright conduct in the affair of the Printers, and for supporting the City Charters.

A motion was also made, that the thanks of the Livery be given to the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, and the rest of the Aldermen, who opposed, and did not back the press-warrants, which was carried in the affirmative nem. con.

According to letters from Venice, advice is received there that an insurrection had lately happened at Constantinople, which continued for three days before it was suppressed.

When the motion was made yesterday at Guildhall for a fresh Remonstrance, the Lord Mayor stept forward, and informed the Livery, he would advise that the Address be stiled, "The Address, Remonstrance, and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of London, in Common Hall assembled;" for if his Majesty did not pay any attention to this Address, it would then be time enough for the Common Council to take the matter up, and present another, his Lordship declaring that, for his part, he never should either be afraid or ashamed to go to the King at the head of the Livery, or with the Common Council, until the grievances they laboured under were properly redressed.---After a short pause, the Address was drawn up and read to the Livery, its contents were spirited and proper, beginning with a most pathetic recital of the injury sustained by the people in the affair of the Middlesex election; relating next the arbitrary and despotic conduct of the H---- of C------ during the late sessions, respecting the illegal imprisonment of the Lord Mayor and Alderman Oliver, for having kept their oaths as Magistrates for the City, and particularly enlarging upon the amazing stroke of tyranny exercised in their erasing the record of a judicial proceeding, thereby assuming a power unknown to the Crown, and unknown to the courts of law; also the arbitrary Act of the Durham-yard Embankment; and finally desiring his Majesty to dissolve the parliament, and put for ever from his presence those Ministers, who by their wicked and designing arts had persuaded him to issue his proclamation for apprehending the Printers contrary to the known laws of the land. The Address met with the unanimous approbation of all present.

June 27. Yesterday the Lord Mayor, on his return from Guildhall Chapel, went upon the Hustings, and gave his vote for Mr. Alderman Wilkes, and Mr. Bull.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, June 21.

"We are informed that the charge des affaires for the Court of Madrid at this Republic, had a private conference a few days ago with M. Fagel, Register of the States General, in which the former communicated to the latter, by order of the King his Master, that his Catholic Majesty, for certain solid reasons which he reserved to himself, has resolved, for the future, he will no longer permit any frigate of war of whatever nation, to enter and water in the Ports of the Spanish monarchy, as they have been heretofore accustomed to do; and at the same time required M. Fagel to inform their High Mightinesses of this resolution, that they may instruct the commanders of their frigates destined for the Mediterranean sea accordingly. This unexpected measure has occasioned a great consternation here.

We hear that the Lord Mayor is the only Alderman who is in favour of Mr. Wilkes.

Mr. Alderman Harley yesterday, attended by seven of his friends, polled in favour of the two ministerial Aldermen. He was treated with great contempt.

A Correspondent, who was in Guildhall at the nomination for Sheriffs on Monday, says, that he never saw it so thronged, not less than 5000 people being present, and the greatest order and decorum observed, owing, in a great measure, to the Constables not being summoned, who too frequently break, and not keep, the peace on such occasions.

Mr. George Hayley, Mr. Wilkes's brother-in-law, and Mr. Bull, are to be sureties for the popular Alderman, in case he succeeds in his present contest for the Shrievalty.

Sir J---- M-----y, it is said, has promised to advance for Mr. Wilkes whatever sum may be necessary for his support in the expensive Office of Sheriff, if he should be elected.

It is said Alderman Kirkman has declared, that he has no objection to serve the office of Sheriff with Mr. Wilkes; and he has likewise observed, that he should submit every thing to the determination of the Livery; and although he has been repeatedly importuned to form a junction with the Court party, he has refused it.

Mr. Alderman Wilkes paid a visit last night to his brethren of the Lumber Troop. The number of Liverymen who met yesterday at the Vestry of St. Bride's, and proceeded to Guildhall to poll for Mr. Wilkes, fell very short of what was expected.

Sir Joseph Mawbey, Bart. has been very assiduous every day since the poll began for Sheriffs at Guildhall, in favour of the patriotic Aldermen, and received repeated applause from the Livery.

Yesterday, after casting up the books at Guildhall, an affidavit was made before Mr. Alderman Wilkes, respecting the receipt of a certain letter, tending to influence the Livery in their choice of Sheriffs; after which the manuscript letter and affidavit were publicly read.

Yesterday Mr. Bellas was shoved down the stairs, leading from the Hustings, and otherwise roughly treated by the populace.

A writer against Mr. Wilkes says, "It will be much wondered at, if any man of wealth and independence ever again takes a public part in defence of the rights of the Citizens of London; the treatment of Mess. Oliver, Townsend, and Bellas, last Monday by Mr. Wilkes's friends, was equally infamous and unreasonable. These vociferous bellowers for Wilkes and Liberty, have the impudence to pretend that they are contending for freedom, and yet would deny their superiors in the contest, all free-will and free-agency."

A Writer in favour of Mr. Wilkes says: "Call to mind the services he has done us; consider that your houses are sacred, your papers safe from general warrants, which but for Wilkes had now perhaps been let loose amongst you; with penetration to discover, and courage to resist the wicked schemes of an infamous Administration, should Mr. Wilkes be unemployed?"

June 29. An honest Liveryman of Whitechapel having polled for Mr. Wilkes yesterday, and seeing him upon the Hustings, accosted him thus: "I told you I never would leave you." The worthy Alderman immediately answered, "And I never will leave you."

It was on Wednesday night said at a coffee-house near the Exchange, that three indigent Liverymen had actually been offered 20 guineas each for their single votes, which they nobly refused.

The Court of Directors of a certain great Company, are now exerting all their influence with the Livery in favour of the two Protesting Aldermen.

Mr. Smith, a Merchant in Budge-row, received a letter a few days ago (which was delivered to him by mistake instead of another Gentleman in the same neighbourhood) from a person belonging to a Public Office, desiring him to support Aldermen Plumbe and Kirkman, which Mr. Smith immediately made public; and afterward he, and Mr. Orme his Clerk, made an affidavit of the truth of it before Alderman Wilkes, Alderman Plumbe having refused to accept their affidavit.

One Welch, a true ancient Briton, came yesterday to Guildhall from Monmouthshire, distant 160 miles from the City, to poll for Mr. Alderman Wilkes, and Mr. Bull.

A warm Partizan for Mr. Wilkes, who was chosen into the Common Council for Castle Baynard Ward upon that Interest, when he found the poll go in favour of Kirkman and Plumbe, shrunk from his promise of voting for Wilkes and Bull, with this emphatical expression: "Who would fly in the face of 400l." having had a promise of being Under Sheriff.

On Thursday Mr. Alderman Kirkman came to town, and when he heard that the M------ry had sent their mandates into the City, he was much offended. Mr. Kirkman and Mr. Wilkes are upon the best terms.

Letters from Lisbon say, that a report prevails there that the French King had threatened to recal his Minister and Consuls from every place in Portugal, on account of some commercial infringements, which his subjects had lately suffered in that kingdom.

We are informed that, by a special express arrived at his Excellency's Mouschin Pouschin, the Russian Ambassador at our Court, intelligence was brought him on Monday last, that all the magazines of pitch, tar, tallow, hemp, flax, and linen, at Petersburgh, had been totally burnt to ashes, together with a fourth or fifth of the whole town, which is the metropolis of the Russian Empire. The Russian Ministry instantly went to work to discover the daring and flagitious incendiary, and, in less than four and twenty hours, they found a French man, dressed in woman's apparel. This disguise led them to suspect he might be the man; they put him to the torture, and the vile wretch has confessed the whole plot, from Alpha to Omega.

Several ships of the Russian fleet have left the Mediterranean, to return towards the North. By the above circumstance, it is supposed that the treaty of pacification between the Turks and Russians is in great forwardness, if not concluded.

The Rev. Dr. Wilson being on the Hustings at Guildhall on Thursday, and discoursing very familiarly with Mr. Wilkes, a Common Councilman present asked the Doctor how he could possibly countenance a man of Mr. Wilkes's libertine principles? To which the Doctor instantly replied, "Sir, there is joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, who need no repentance."

Since the publication of the letter and affidavit by Mr. Smith, numbers of the Livery, who intended to vote for Messieurs Kirkman and Plumbe, have reversed their opinions, and polled for Messieurs Wilkes and Bull.

Yesterday a Plaisterer, near Fleet-ditch, under distressed circumstances, with a wife and several children, being a Liveryman, was offered Ten Guineas to vote for the senior Aldermen, which he rejected with contempt, and immediately went and polled for Mr. Alderman Wilkes, and Mr. Bull.

July 2. It is said that one reason why Mr. Wilkes stands a candidate for the office of Sheriff is, the opportunity which that office will give him of being admitted into his Majesty's presence, and of laying his case before him in person.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, June 25.

"Letters received here from Petersburgh advise, that on the 3d inst. a dreadful fire broke out in that city, which it is believed was effected by some incendiaries; 50 stone houses, and 500 wooden houses, were consumed, with the magazines of hemp, pitch, and tar, in which happily there was not a great quantity. This unfortunate accident has ruined many private persons; and the damage it has occasioned amounts to upwards of a million of roubles.

On Saturday the Sally, Osman, arrived in the river from Jamaica; by her there is advice that there has been a very bad crop of sugars.

We hear from undoubted authority that a squadron, composed of several of the guardships at Portsmouth and Plymouth, will be immediately sent on a cruise to the westward, under the command of a Rear Admiral, for the purpose of exercising the officers and men.

A letter from the Hague, dated June 28, says, "It is whispered here, that the King of Portugal had lately run a new risk for his life, by a poisoned letter, which had been presented to his most Faithful Majesty; but that happily it had not the effect which the Traitors who sent it expected."

Perhaps the most universal compliment that has been paid for years past, was yesterday paid to Doctor Wilson, when he mounted the Hustings at Guildhall; even his very enemies complimented him. The good old man by way of gratitude remarked, that he only wished to see justice administered: "When I can see that, said he, I shall say, Lord, now letteſt thou thy servant depart in peace."

India stock has risen within these 5 days between 5 and 6 per cent. The confirmation of the amity between the Russians, Turks, Austrians, and Prussians, has lent a hand to this rise.

We hear that the Lord Chancellor has within these few days had divers private audiences with a Great Personage, on the subject of a popular Alderman being elected Sheriff.

Yesterday the Lord Mayor ordered the numbers on the poll for Sheriffs to be put up at the front of the Mansion-house.

Last night about 9 o'clock, a very numerous concourse of people assembled in the environs of Guildhall, Cheapside, the Mansion House, &c. to oblige the inhabitants to illuminate their houses on account of Mr. Wilkes's success in his election. The mob having divided, part paraded Cornhill and onwards, whilst the other proceeded along Cheapside, through St. Paul's Church-yard, down Ludgate-hill, up Fleet-street, and quite through the Strand to Whitehall, where they made a stop. In the course of these perambulations, it is but just to observe, that the rabble, in general, behaved with more patience than was expected, giving every one a proper time to put up their candles before they proceeded to any violence. Several, however, through obstinacy underwent their fury, and one house in Fleet-street, near St. Dunstan's church, and several in the Strand, had their windows broke in several places. When they came to Charing-cross, a hue and cry was raised of "Lord North, Lord North," by which the Public were made to believe, that they had marked his Lordship out for their revenge; but they contented themselves with spending their fury upon a public-house at Charing-cross. The occasion was this: A Constable being on the watch there, to seize on any riotous persons, was going to lay hold on some who had ignorantly supposed that the Duke of Northumberland had neglected to put out lights, mistaking the front of his house for his dwelling-house, and had thrown several stones against the windows; the mob, therefore, flew upon the Constable, who took shelter in a public-house, and as they could not get at him, they broke every window in the tap room, so that the floor was quite covered with stones: The people of the house were obliged to remove backwards, to save themselves from being knocked on the head. They did not go to Pallmall, but returned and dispersed.

The two following Toasts are now drank:

May the Sheriffs white wand triumph over the Ministers black rod.

May patriotic principle be never left out on ministerial interest.

July 4. A letter from Paris, dated June 24, mentions, that "a paper hath been posted up on the pedestal of the statue of Louis XV. with this inscription---Ludwico nullo."

A Great Personage has declared he will on no account admit the popular Patriot into his presence, but that when he comes to St. James's in his magisterial capacity, upon any public occasions, he must expect to be received only by the Lord in waiting.

The prophecy of the Earl of Chatham seems now verifying apace: When speaking of the conduct of the present Ministry, he said, "You have made Mr. Wilkes your Master; you will soon make him Sheriff for London and Middlesex, and afterwards Lord Mayor."

Yesterday the two Sheriffs, accompanied by one of the Under Sheriffs, went at half an hour past ten to Guildhall, and cast up the poll books for the new election of Sheriffs, which they finished about a quarter after three, when Mr. Common Serjeant, in the room of the Recorder, who was at the Sessions House, declared the numbers to be as follow; viz. For Alderman Wilkes 2315; Mr. Bull 2194; Alderman Kirkman 1949; Plumbe 1875; Oliver 119: Whereupon the two first were declared duly elected; which was received by the very numerous concourse of people in the hall, with long and loud acclamations; and the Sheriffs elect addressed the Livery as follows:

Mr. Alderman WILKES's SPEECH.

Gentlemen, and Fellow Citizens,

"I Thank you for the honour you have done me, and congratulate you on the compleat triumph of this day over the corrupt arts of a profligate Administration, the most barefaced Bribery and daring Menaces, the many shameful practices of the wretched Tools of arbitrary Power among us, the insolent mandates of Placemen, and the Treachery of the pretended Friends of Liberty and their Country. Your firmness and zeal have crushed the united forces of all those, who meant to enslave this great City. I have not the least doubt that the same happy union among ourselves will always remain a firm barrier against every future attack, from the concealed and insidious Friend, or the open Enemy.

"Permit me to assure you of the closest attention to every part of my duty, and the faithful discharge of my office. One particular only I must entirely leave to my worthy Colleague, as I am incapable of acting. Petitions from this City to the House of Commons I cannot present at the Bar of that House, because I am actually a part of the Representative Body of this kingdom, being one of the legal Members for this County. The independent and spirited Freeholders of Middlesex have given me as clear a right to a seat in Parliament, as the Electors of any other Knight of a Shire of England can give to any Gentleman. By the most atrocious injustice of a Majority, placed and pensioned by the venal influence of the Minister, I am deprived of the enjoyment of that right, in direct violation of the clearest privileges of a free people. My legal claim however is clear, and shall on all occasions be supported with spirit.

" The Sheriffs, Gentlemen, merit all our thanks for their attentive, upright, and impartial behaviour during the courſe of a tedious poll. To a thorough knowledge of buſineſs they joined the utmoſt fairneſs and candour. In the whole of their proceedings they have ſecured the approbation of the public. Their conduct cannot at any time be excelled, but I hope it will be equalled, at leaſt by thoſe, who, through your favour, are to be their immediate ſucceſſors."

The SPEECH of FREDERICK BULL, Eſq.

" Gentlemen of the Livery and Fellow Citizens,

" Permit me to acknowledge to you the ſenſe I have of the honour you have now called me to, and I cannot but think myſelf the more obliged, as it was unſolicited by me.

" I ſhould not in theſe alarming times have waited to be aſked to accept, could I have thought myſelf equal to, this important Office. However, Gentlemen, as you have been pleaſed to fix on me, give me leave to aſſure you, I will do every thing in my power to preſerve the peace, and to promote the welfare, the honour, and indpendence, of the City of London."

The Sheriffs were particularly careful in caſting up the Poll. on account of it having been reported, that a Scrutiny would be demanded; but no motion was made for that purpoſe.

According to letters from Vienna, the Court of Peterſburgh is actually meditating an expedition to the frontiers of China, and the Mogul's country, which will be carried into execution after peace is made with the Grand Signor.

They write from Breſt, that while the French are apparently diſarming their fleets at Breſt, Rochfort, and Toulon, the Intendants of the Marine at theſe Ports are indefatigable in augmenting the naval ſtores, collecting magazines of ſhip timber, and compleating the ſeveral men of war on the ſtocks.

We are informed that no account of any freſh inſult offered by Spain has been received here; but that the men of war appointed for cruizing to the weſtward, is in conſequence of a reſolution taken by the Lords of the Admiralty, to keep the naval officers and ſeamen in conſtant exerciſe, and the ſhips always ready, in caſe of any unexpected attack.

NEW-YORK, September 2.

Wedneſday laſt the Powles-Hook Races began, when the Purſe of £ 100 was run for by Capt. Delancey's cheſnut Colt, Sultan, Mr. Perkin's black Horſe, Steady, Mr. Dick's grey Horſe, Vitriol, and Mr. Iſrael Waters's bay Mare, Nettle, which was won with great eaſe by the latter. And

The Day following the Purſe of £ 50 was run for by the following Horſes, viz. Mr. Whitehead Cornell's Horſe, Booby, Mr. Armſtrong's Horſe, Hero, Mr. Elſworth's grey Colt, Quickſilver, Mr. Butler's bay Horſe, Baſtard, Mr. Timothy Cornell's black Horſe, Richmond, Mr. Dick's grey Horſe, Vitriol. Mr. Perkins's black Horſe, Steady, Mr. Van Horne's grey Mare, Caty Crow, and Mr. William Cornell's grey Mare, Dove; which was won by Booby, after three Heats hard running.

Captain Stanton, in 29 Days from the Bay, informs us, That a Snow belonging to Glaſgow, bound for Virginia, failed in Company with him, but put back a few Hours after ſhe failed.

The Fox Maſt Ship from London, the 27th of July, in Lat. 40: 51, Long. 54: 30, ſpoke with the Carnarvan Maſt Ship, Capt. PHILADELPHIA, September 5.

On the Firſt Inſtant departed this Life, after a lingering Illneſs, SARAH WISTER, Wife of RICHARD WISTER, of this City. She was a Perſon poſſeſſed of good natural Abilities, which being religiouſly improved, ſhe thereby filled the ſeveral Stations aſſigned her with Propriety; being an affectionate Wife, a pious Mother, a prudent Oeconomiſt, and a ſincere Friend. On the Day following her Remains were attended by a large Number of the Inhabitants to Friends Burial Ground, where, after a ſolemn Pauſe, and many Goſpel Truths delivered, ſuited to the Occaſion, ſhe was decently interred.

" No Happineſs while here can be compleat,
" No laſting Laurels till the laſt Retreat."

Extract of a Letter from London, July 3.

" You will perhaps have heard, e'er this arrives, that Wilkes is choſen one of the Sheriffs for Middleſex, by a great Majority. A fortunate Accident gained him his Election. The Letter of Mr. Robinſon, which you will ſee in the public Papers, effectually did his Buſineſs. There appeared in one of the Morning Papers of To-day, a humourous Thing, called Wilkes's Will, in which he is made to leave Lord Rockingham " Spirit to ſupport a good Cauſe," and his " Breeches to Mrs. Macauley." His Lordſhip may ſmile at the Wit of the Piece, tho' at the ſame Time he heartily deſpiſes both Wilkes and his Party."

Captain Campbell, from South-Carolina, informs, that the Day he ſailed from thence he fell in with a Spaniſh Snow, from the Havannah, bound to Old Spain, having on board the Paſſengers and Crews of two Veſſels lately caſt away, and being in Want of Proviſions, the Spaniſh Captain deſired him to carry them to ſome Port, when he took them to Cape Look-out, in North-Carolina, where they landed about 100 of the Men, and waited till they could get a Supply of Proviſions from Newbern, in order to proceed on their Voyage; that he learnt from the People who were landed, there were only two Veſſels loſt on Cape-Florida (and not ſeven, as mentioned in our laſt) viz. a Ship and a Snow, richly laden, from La Vera Cruz, who were in Company with ſeveral other Ships, and were carrying home a Regiment, which had lately been relieved; that they ſaved good Part of the Treaſure before they left the Veſſels, which they put on board the above Snow; and that they intended to hire a Veſſel to carry them to the Havannah. Captain Campbell has brought five of the Spaniards in with him. There were on board one of the Veſſels that were caſt away, ſeveral Engliſhmen, who were taken trading with the Spaniards, had been confined at the Havannah for two or three Years, and were ſentenced to be ſent to Spain, there to remain five Years longer, but are happily now releaſed.

Monday laſt the Ship Mercury, Captain Steel, arrived here from Barbados. On his Outward-bound Paſſage, on the 11th of July, in Lat. 33: 22, Long. 63: 21, he paſſed by the Wreck of a New-England-built ſingle Deck Brig, with only her Foremaſt and Bowſprit ſtanding, the Mainmaſt appeared to have been cut away; ſhe was ſtripped of all her Rigging, her Boom in the Larboard Crutch; the Bulk-head of her Half Deck ſtove in, and ſhe was full of Water, but her main Deck whole, and had a Water-Caſk laſhed on her Forecaſtle; her Drift was painted black, her Quarters red, and her Mouldings yellow, appeared to be about two or three Years old, and looked as if ſhe had been in that Condition five or ſix Weeks; no Perſon on board, and her Boats were gone.

Captain Richards, from St. Martin's, on the 27th ult. about 25 Leagues from our Capes, ſpoke the Schooner George, Captain Sibbald, from this Port for Newfoundland, all well.

Captain Outerbridge, from Bermuda, on the 24th of Auguſt, in Lat. 34, Long. 66, ſpoke the Schooner Britannia, Captain John Stewart, from Cape-May for Domin ca, who informed that his Mate was then dying; and on the 25th, in Lat. 34: 30, Long. 68: 30, he ſpoke the Brig Nancy, Captain Shroudy, from this Port for Barbados, out 4 Days, all well.

The Univerſity of Dublin has been lately pleaſed to confer the Degree of Doctor in Divinity on the Rev. Mr. PHILIP HUGHES, Rector of Cheſter Pariſh, in Kent County, Maryland.

ARRIVALS.

From this Port. Captain Simmonds, at Barbados; and Captains Hanſe, and Carr, at Jamaica.

At Barbados. Captains Price, Barnes, Cowper, and Bagot, from Virginia; and Capt. Rogers, from Falmouth, N. England.

Meſſieurs HALL and SELLERS,

I HAVE lately ſeen in the Gazette a Piece, ſigned A Pennſylvania Planter, on the Subject of manufacturing, that muſt give real Satisfaction to every Friend of American Arts and Manufactories. I think nothing can be added to the Arguments made uſe of on that Occaſion: But if Money is raiſed to promote ſuch a uſeful Deſign, I think the Woollen Manufacturer, who ſome Time ago offered his Services, and begged the kind Aſſiſtance of his Country, ought to have ſome Share in the public Benevolence. I wiſh (at leaſt) that he may be taken ſome Notice of, as he has been at Pains to inform his Countrymen what he can do, and did they know him as well as I, they could depend on his Veracity. What though little can be done for ſome Years? it will however lay the Foundation of an uſeful and neceſſary Branch, be daily growing to greater Perfection, and one Mean of encouraging Induſtry among the Poor, which has ever been the Policy of wiſe Stateſmen, and more eſpecially neceſſary to the Welfare and Happineſs of the Colonies.

To the ELECTORS of the City of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for the Favor, you were pleaſed to confer upon me laſt Year, by chuſing me one of your Repreſentatives in Aſſembly. Being then abſent, at a conſiderable Diſtance from Town, and not having received any Notice of your Intentions, when I left home, I had not a timely Opportunity of requeſting you to excuſe me from ſerving you in that Office. My Reſpect for you engaged me therefore to accept it; and I hope I have, on this, and every other Occaſion, where a public Truſt has been committed to me, acted in ſuch a Manner, that my Fellow Citizens and Countrymen will believe my Conduct has been ſolely influenced by a Regard for their Welfare. As ſeveral Reaſons have determined me not to continue longer in Aſſembly, I earneſtly deſire, you will be ſo kind as to chuſe, at the enſuing Election, ſome Perſon to repreſent you in the Place of, GENTLEMEN,

Your obliged Friend, and faithful Servant,

September 2, 1771. JOHN DICKINSON.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, qualified to chooſe Members of Aſſembly, for the City and County of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM obliged to you for the good Opinion you have entertained of me, in chooſing me one of your Repreſentatives in the General Aſſembly of this Province, for ſeveral Years paſt; but, as my own private Buſineſs too much interferes with the neceſſary Application to ſo important a Truſt, I muſt beg you will excuſe me, by chooſing ſome other Perſon, at the enſuing Election, to ſerve in my Stead, which will much oblige your ſincere Friend, THOMAS LIVEZEY.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, of the County of SUSSEX, on Delaware.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my moſt ſincere and grateful Thanks, for the Honour you conferred on me, in chooſing me your Repreſentative in Aſſembly, for upwards of Forty Years paſt. At length, finding myſelf, through the Infirmities of old Age, unable to ſerve you any longer in that Capacity, I beg that you will be pleaſed to chooſe ſome other Perſon in my Stead, at the next general Election. I am, with much Eſteem, and Regard, GENTLEMEN, your much obliged humble Servant,

JACOB KOLLOCK.

For CHARLES-TOWN (SOUTH-CAROLINA)

The BRIGANTINE

HAWKE,

FRANCIS WILLIAMS, MASTER:

Is expected to sail in about 10 Days.

FOR Freight or Passage, apply to JOSHUA FISHER, and SONS, or the Master on board, at Chestnut-street Wharff. August 24.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, on Wednesday, the 18th day of September next, will be exposed to sale, that much admired and valuable plantation, whereon Colonel James Gillespy, deceased, formerly lived, now in the possession of Robert Fulton, in Little Britain township, in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, about 30 miles from Christiana Bridge, a good landing place, where flour and other produce, and merchandize, has a constant communication to and from Philadelphia, and bounded by the lands of Messieurs William Montgomery, Joseph Brown, Widow Rippy, James Ramsay, William Peterson, and Mr. Thomas Whiteside, all kind and friendly neighbours; pleasantly situate, where 4 roads meet, one leading from York county to Christiana Bridge, the other from Lancaster to Charlestown, and 3 different Ferries on Susquehanna to Baltimore-Town, &c. containing 363¾ acres, with allowance, the land is kindly, and good for wheat, oats, corn and flax, and much inclined to pasture; there are also 90 acres of plowable land cleared, 16 of which new; the land is easy wrought, and free from stone. There are 70 acres of good meadow made, and 20 more of good hazel bottom may be made; it lies most delightfully, at each end of the dwelling-house, 4 rods from the door, you may see over the whole of it. There are between 900 and 1000 water-courses cut through it, by which every half acre in the whole can be sufficiently watered, except one half acre. Several small sluices are so fixed in them, that by stopping any one sluice, the water will flow, in some places, over 30, 40, or 50 rods, the course is so level, and produces good timothy and clover hay. The fences on the whole place in good order. There is also a good dwelling, part stone, and part square logs, the stone part is two stories high, 2 rooms on a floor, 3 of which have fire-places, the other part is a large stove room, a good kitchen, 2 good cellars, a draw well, and oven at the kitchen door. Also a large barn 103 by 22, a threshing floor, 4 large bays for hay and grain, 2 stables, that will hold 20 horses, a cow-house, with English stalls for 21 head; also a store-house, well shelved off; a still-house, meat-house, corn-house, and a compleat log-house, all in good repair; two large neat gardens, one of half an acre, the other a truck one, well paled in.---This has been a public place these 36 years, and is fit for public business, such as store-keeping, waggoning, stilling, tavern-keeping, and grazing, &c.

Lancaster, August 24, 1771. FREDERICK STONE.

To the FREEHOLDERS and others, the ELECTORS for the Borough and County of CHESTER.

GENTLEMEN,

I ACKNOWLEDGE your Favours in voting me on the Return for Sheriffs these two Years past; and as I intend to stand a Candidate for the Office at the Expiration of the present Sheriff's Time, your Votes and Interest, at the ensuing Election, in order to keep me on the Return with the present Officer, shall be gratefully acknowledged and remembered by your real friend, HENRY HAYES. ¶

Darby, August 26, 1771.

FIVE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the Upper Cross Roads, in Baltimore county, the 4th of this instant August, two English convict servant men, viz. William Smart, a low well set fellow, about 22 years of age, speaks very broad, his hair is cut off; he served part of his time with Jeremiah Chance, and often tells lies about dealing with, or for, gentlemen in Baltimore-Town; it is likely he will pass for a Waggoner. John Brown, is a low middle sized man, wore black curled hair, has a down look, small grey eyes, by trade a Miller; it is supposed they have the following cloaths, a superfine white broadcloth coat and jacket, 1 light plush jacket, 1 nankeen jacket, 1 pair of leather breeches, 1 pair of redish broadcloth breeches, several pair of trowsers, sundry shirts, 2 pair of thread stockings, 3 silk handkerchiefs, 1 castor hat, 1 coarse felt hat, and 2 needle-worked pocket-books, with many papers belonging to Edward M'Cormick. Whoever secures the said servants, shall have Thirty Shillings for each, paid by us, WILLIAM DITTO,

† ABRAHAM JARRETT.

N. B. They cannot write, but may change their names.

York County, August 16, 1771.

COMMITTED to my custody, a certain RICHARD HAILEY, who (when committed) had in his custody, a certain bay horse, with a small snip, also a blue broadcloth coat, with twisted silver buttons on. If said Hailey has any master, he is desired to come, within four weeks, and pay his charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be sold out for the same, by JACOB GRAYBILL, Goaler. ¶

THE LIBRARY COMPANY of PHILADELPHIA, at the request of several of the MEMBERS, are desired to meet, on Saturday, the 7th day of September next, in the State-House, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, to consider of the expediency of purchasing a lot whereon to build a Library, and of passing a law empowering the Directors to execute the same.

And as the number at their late meeting was insufficient to do business, it is hoped the members in general will be punctual in attending, as thereby the sense of the company may be more certainly known in regard to the measure proposed; and a disappointment by means of there not being one fourth of the members met (as required by law) prevented.

By Order of the Directors,

August 8, 1771. WILLIAM ATTMORE, Secretary.

THREE POUNDS Reward.

STRAYED or stolen out of the pasture of the subscriber, living in Cecil County, near Elk Meeting-House, on Wednesday night, the 16th of July last, a likely black mare, 14 hands high, a natural pacer, shod before, thin mane, and switch tail, branded on the near buttock AB in a piece. She has likewise a remarkable ring of white hairs round the pasture of one of her fore feet, as if formerly cut by a Hopple. Whoever takes up and secures said mare and thief, if stolen, so that the Owner may have the Mare again, and the thief brought to justice, shall have the above reward; but for the mare only Twenty Shillings, and reasonable charges, paid by § 4 W. JOHN LAWSON.

FIVE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away, the 11th of this instant August, from near Lower Cross Roads, in Baltimore county, an Irish servant man, named Thomas Preston, about 24 years of age, about 5 feet 9 inches high, wears short brown hair, is fresh coloured, and middling likely; he wore a brown linsey jacket, a sailor's blue jacket, country linen shirt, tow trowsers, and a pair of old grey silk stockings; he writes a good hand: With him went a young Negroe man, named Toney, is pitted with the small-pox; wore an old fustian coat, and plays well on the fiddle. Whoever secures the said servant, and Negroe, shall have Thirty Shillings reward for each, and if out of the province of Maryland, shall have Fifty Shillings for each, paid by me JAMES MOORE. §

FIVE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the subscriber, living in Baltimore county, 12 miles from Baltimore-Town, an English servant man, named WILLIAM LANGLEY, about 26 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, pale complexion, down look, short black hair; had on, or took with him, a new felt hat, grey fearnought jacket, two new oxenbrigs shirts, and trowsers of the same, blue ribbed yarn stockings, half worn pumps, small square steel buckles. Whoever secures the said servant, so as the subscriber may get him again, shall have Forty Shillings, if taken in the county; if 50 miles from home, Three Pounds; if 100 miles, Four Pounds; and if out of the province, the above reward, with reasonable charges, paid by

May 1, 1771. ABRAHAM PATTON. 7f6.

Talbot County, August 13, 1771.

ESCAPED from my custody, the 29th of July, a certain GEORGE KITCHEN, having been taken, on a precept, for debt; he is about 5 feet 8 inches high, about 28 years of age, of a fair but blotted complexion, born in England, and talks in the West country dialect, by trade a Wheelwright, stoops in his walk, and is very apt to get in liquor; had on, when he went away, a brown broadcloth coat and jacket, leather breeches, and a light grisle cut wig. Whoever takes up the said runaway, and secures him in any goal, so that the subscriber may have him again, shall receive Three Pounds reward; if brought to him, shall receive Seven Pounds, paid by ‖ 4 W. JOSEPH BRUSCUP, Goaler.

STOLEN out of the subscriber's lot, in Chester-Town, Kent county, Maryland, on Sunday night, the 9th of June last, a black HORSE, turned of 4 years old, near 15 hands high, cannot pace any, quarter blood; he has a large blaze in his face, his off hind foot white pretty high up, the hair somewhat worn off his sides with the traces, no known brand. Whoever secures the said horse and thief, so that he may be prosecuted according to law, shall have THREE POUNDS reward, or Thirty Shillings, and reasonable charges, for the horse only, from me DEAN REID. §

FIVE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the subscriber, living in Cæcil county, Maryland, on the 29th day of May last, a native Irish servant man, named JOHN MARA, about 5 feet 8 inches high, about 20 years of age, wears his own light coloured hair, of a ruddy complexion, speaks pretty good English, can write a tolerable good hand, and it is probable will forge a pass; had on, and took with him, a reddish mixed coloured coat, an old light coloured jacket, with metal buttons, a blue ditto, old leather breeches, middling good shoes and buckles, grey yarn stockings, new felt hat, and several shirts, of country made linen; it is likely he may change his clothes and name, as he has been seen to pass by Dunkers Town and Padle Town, near Lancaster, when he had on a red jacket, and called himself James Daughadey, and was in company with one Frances Yetts, a woman, of a lusty size, pitted with the small-pox, of a freckled dark complexion, has a child, of about 18 months old, a boy, with very fair hair; it is probable they may attempt to pass for man and wife, and may change their names and clothes, in order to get clear; she is an idle vagabond woman, and has inticed him away. Whoever secures said servant in any goal, so that his master may get him again, or brings him home, shall have the above reward, and reasonable charges, paid by SAMUEL GILPIN.

N. B. He understands farming, and dressing flax, is a grand rogue, and should he be taken, will make his escape the first opportunity, was at Pittsburg about 18 months ago, and was taken in Philadelphia.

July 26, 1771.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in the Fork of Gunpowder, Baltimore County, a Negroe Man, named Jem, born in Maryland, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and 25 years of age; had on, when he went away, a white broadcloth coat, brown waistcoat, oxenbrigs trowsers, and old shoes, but it is probable will change his dress, as he was (since he ran away) concerned with several other Negroes in breaking open a store in Joppa, from which they have taken money and goods, to the amount of Forty Pounds. Whoever will apprehend the said Negroe, and have him secured in any goal, shall have a Reward of Three Pounds, and if brought home Five Pounds, and reasonable charges, paid by SAMUEL YOUNG. §

Philadelphia, August 29, 1771.

A YOUNG Lad, named JAMES LOWE, but since called himself James Brown, who was Apprentice to one O Dear, Carver and Gilder, in Warder-street, London, left his Master, went to Dublin, and bound himself to Capt. Robert Miller, of the Ship Conelly, bound to Philadelphia; sailed from Dublin the 30th of March 1770, and arrived at Philadelphia in June or July following. If the said Lad applies to BERNARD and JUGIEZ, Carvers, at the Corner of Chestnut and Third-streets, he will hear of something greatly to his Advantage. ¶

NAPLES, May 14.

ON Thurſday laſt Mount Veſuvius began to ſend out columns of black ſmoak with loud exploſions; and ſoon after a Lava burſt forth, near the ſame ſpot where the great eruption was in the year 1767. Their Sicilian Majeſties are prepared to leave Portici at a moment's warning: But as the Lava has taken its courſe towards Reſina (the ſpot under which the ancient city of Herculaneum is buried) and does not menace Portici, it is thought the Court will not remove. The Lava is about 5 miles in length, has deſtroyed ſome vineyards, and is ſtopped within a mile of Reſina. Mr. Hamilton, his Britannic Majeſty's Miniſter at this Court, had the honour of conducting their Sicilian Majeſties to the Lava, which happened to be remarkably curious at the moment of their arrival, having juſt taken its courſe into a deep trench, forming a moſt aſtoniſhing caſcade of fire, the fall of which was perpendicular, and not leſs than ſixty feet.

Stockholm, June 4. The King of Sweden made his entry into Stockholm laſt Thurſday evening, after having dined at the laſt ſtage, a mile and half from hence, where the Queen and the Senators had been invited to dine with him.

A triumphal arch was erected on this occaſion at the expence of the city; and the people in general expreſſed the greateſt joy at his Majeſty's arrival, and accompanied the coach from the gate to the palace, in ſuch numbers, that it got along with difficulty.

The affability with which his Majeſty received all who have paid their Court to him, cannot fail to gain him the affection of his ſubjects, and of every one who has the happineſs to be admitted to his preſence.

Yeſterday the King appeared in the Senate for the firſt time, where his Majeſty repeated his aſſurances of governing according to law, and of uſing his beſt endeavours to render his people happy. And that every body may have eaſy acceſs to him, he has ſet apart an hour, three days in the week, to receive all perſons, of what rank ſoever, who deſire admittance.

Paris, June 7. We are credibly informed that ſix French ſhips of the line, three Frigates, and ſeveral tranſports laden with proviſions, are ſet ſail for the Eaſt-Indies.

Hague, June 18. Letters received here from Copenhagen, ſpeak with the higheſt applauſe of the preſent government of Denmark. The King, by the many wiſe and ſalutary ordinances which he has iſſued during his reign, is loved and adored by his People, who with reaſon call him the Father of his Country. It is ſaid that the Count d'Oſten, the preſent Prime Miniſter of Denmark, a Nobleman of great underſtanding, and a conſummate Politician, hath been a principal inſtrument in procuring the happineſs which the inhabitants of that kingdom now enjoy; and it is the more to his honour, becauſe, when he took the miniſterial reins, affairs were in a very perplexed ſituation.

LONDON.

June 13. It is in vain, ſays a ſenſible Correſpondent, to hope for a free Parliament in this kingdom. The country boroughs are by a great majority under the influence of the Peers, and the Peers are by a great majority under the influence of the Miniſters. So that, with the form of a limited monarchy, the Britiſh government is in fact as abſolute as the Great Mogul's, and muſt continue as abſolute till the dæmon of ſelf-intereſt is totally baniſhed from the boſoms of mankind.

June 15. An evening paper ſays,---Lord Weymouth repeatedly ſolicited the office of Privy Seal, in the room of Lord Suffolk; but as the Biſhopric of Durham was given to the Bedford faction, it was ſaid, "they ought to be ſatisfied with that;" therefore Lord Bute called forth his oſtenſible Deputy, the Duke of Grafton, and prevailed upon the King to appoint him Privy Seal.---Lord North, who had taken the helm when the D. of Grafton, in the moſt cowardly manner, deſerted it, ſeemed diſſatisfied with the idea of his Grace's coming into an office, which gave him a place in the Cabinet; but he was aſſured, that his brother is to be the new Biſhop, and it was hoped that would quiet him. But leſt it ſhould not, or to prevent his being refractory, the King has given him Buſhy Park for himſelf; to which is annexed a ſalary of 600l. per ann. And Lord Suffolk, &c. (friends of the late Mr. Grenville) who had oppoſed the Duke of Grafton's Adminiſtration, ſet up a ridiculous pretence to conſiſtency, by affecting to diſapprove of the plan of introducing his Grace into a Cabinet office; but upon giving Lord Suffolk the poſt of Secretary of State, and amply providing beſides for Mr. Whately, they were ſatisfied.----Thus Lord Bute has ſettled his arrangements for the preſent.

A Correſpondent, who has ſeen ſeveral letters in the public prints, complaining of the great expences attending the naval review at Portſmouth, ſays, that the people of this country are never to be ſatisfied; when Sir Edward Hawke preſided at the Admiralty, the univerſal complaint was negligence; now that a ſtricter attention is paid to the condition of our fleet, the complaint is extravagance; ſo that whether their expectations are diſappointed or anſwered, fault muſt at all events be found, and nothing be right which is an operation of Government.

When a noble Lord was carried the other night to Wood-ſtreet Compter, the Watchman, on being aſked the reaſon why he brought him there, ſaid, "that as the other end of the town Gentry impriſoned our Lord Mayor, he would carry to priſon the greateſt of them all, if he found him acting riotouſly within his juriſdiction."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, May 29.

"The Chatelet is baniſhed, and the purport of their Lettre de Cachet is, that within twenty-four hours after receiving the Letter they quit Paris, and do not come within two leagues of it. The Chatelet was diſſolved yeſterday; many offices (charges) have been ſuppreſſed, and the baniſhed have the liberty of taking the new created offices, which will not be ſold. With reſpect to the ancient ones, it is promiſed that they ſhall be reimburſed, as well as thoſe of the old Parliament. It is ſaid that the King, who is tired of all this, will appoint a Commiſſion to examine every thing that has been done by the Chancellor and by the old Parliament; he will require that this Commiſſion lay their ſentiments before him. If this ſhould take place, and that the Commiſſion ſhould be compoſed of the following perſons who are named, affairs here would take a very different turn. The Duke de Pendievre, Prince de Soubiſe, Duke de Nivernois, Marechal Broglio, Duke de la Vrilliere, ancient Preſident Molé, M. Seguier, M. de Monclare, Attorney General to the Parliament of Aix. The Princes of the Blood are ſtill deprived of the beatific viſion, and indeed ſeem to care little about it. M. de Boulogne is ſet out for Holland, to try if he can ſucceed in borrowing eighty millions of livres (about 3,500,000l.) which is ſuppoſed impoſſible; yet his ſucceſs would procure him the appointment of Comptroller General. Abbé Terrai totters violently; but what is very certain is, that diſtreſs (le miſere) is at a pitch ſcarcely to be imagined. The emigrations are numerous and continual, particularly in Franche Comté, Lorraine, and Alſatia. A Receiver General told me the other day, and with aſſurance of his certain knowledge, that the population of all France amounted but to 13 or 14 millions; and that the receipt of the Farmers General was diminiſhed ſince January about 1,200,000 livres a month, and every month decreaſed."

June 18. An evening paper of laſt night ſays, notwithſtanding the Duke of Grafton is appointed Lord Privy Seal, he is not admitted to the cabinet. Lord North has ſo far prevailed, though he could not keep the Duke out of office, yet to keep him out of council. So that his holding the high office of Lord Privy Seal, may be conſidered as a penſion; a great nominal employment, without any duty.

Orders are given from the War Office for a ſurvey to be taken of all his Majeſty's land forces in Scotland and Ireland, and a report thereof to be made forthwith.

Lord Bute's ſeat at Luton Hoo is ordered to be beautified, and new-hung with paper, his Lordſhip intending to continue there during the ſummer, and not viſit the Continent.

June 20. The Magiſtrates of Edinburgh, Glaſgow, and Aberdeen, have come to the reſolution to put the laws of Scotland into execution againſt all Engroſſers, Foreſtallers, and Exporters of Cattle, &c. by which proviſions have been advanced to a price never before known in that part of the kingdom.

June 22. We hear that a Royal Proclamation will ſoon be iſſued out, for putting the laws in full force againſt all Foreſtallers, Monopolizers, and Regraters, in order to reduce the exorbitant prices of proviſions.

It is ſaid, that Lord L. is preparing to ſet out on a tour to foreign parts.

June 24. The Duke d'Aguillon, now Prime Miniſter for France, ſays a Correſpondent, is one of the compleateſt Gentlemen in Europe; he has gone through ſeveral offices of the higheſt conſequence with the approbation of his Prince; and was Intendant of the Provinces of Britanny and Normandy during the laſt war; he directed the operations of the French army in the year 1758, which, on the 11th of September, terminated ſo fatally for General Bligh, during the embarkation at St. Cas. On the 21ſt of November 1759, when Sir Edward Hawke deſtroyed the French fleet off Belleiſle, he was Intendant of Breſt and Gaſcony; and had the addreſs the very next day to go on board and pay a viſit to Sir Edward Hawke, by whom he was honourably entertained, and entered into an agreement, which at that time hindered the burning of ſome ſhips of war that had taken ſhelter in the River Villaine: A diſpute of an extraordinary nature aroſe between Sir Edward and him, touching a man of war, which each of them claimed, the moſt ſpirited letters paſſed between the two Commanders, but the Frenchman retained it. Being well acquainted with the ſtate of the dock-yards and finances, he has been fixed on at this juncture, when it is expected he will endeavour to reſtore France to as flouriſhing a condition as in the time of Cardinal Fleury, who died in 1743.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, in and for the Borough and County of CHESTER.

RESPECTED FRIENDS,

AS I purpoſe to offer myſelf a Candidate for the Sheriff's Office, at the Expiration of our preſent Sheriff's Time (as limited by Law) I requeſt the Favour of your VOTES and INTEREST, at the enſuing ELECTION, in order to be voted on the RETURN with him. Your Favours ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by Your aſſured Friend, ELISHA JONES.

Springfield, September 6, 1771. ¶

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for the Borough and County of CHESTER.

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR voting me on the Return theſe ſeveral Years paſt, for Coroner, demands my public Acknowledgment, and I hereby do it with real Gratitude; and as I purpoſe to offer myſelf a Candidate for the Sheriff's Office, at the Expiration of the preſent Sheriff's Time, I take this early Opportunity to deſire the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, in order to be held in Memory for the ſaid Office, at the Time aforeſaid; which Favour ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by

Your ſincere Friend, JOSEPH GIBBONS, junior. §

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, of the Borough and County of LANCASTER.

THE Confidence you have repoſed in me, in chooſing me one of your Repreſentatives, to ſerve in Aſſembly, for a Number of Years paſt, merits my ſincere and hearty Acknowledgment; but as it is too hard for me to ſerve you longer in that Station, on Account of Age, and often cold Weather and bad Roads to travel, I muſt requeſt you would be pleaſed to elect another in my Stead, to ſerve you in that important Truſt, at the next Election. I am, your ſincere Friend,

¶ EMANUEL CARPENTER.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for BERKS County.

GENTLEMEN,

SINCE for the laſt three Years you have been pleaſed to favour me as a Candidate for the Sheriff's Office, with a conſiderable Number of your Votes (for which I return you my ſincere and hearty Thanks) it has been an Encouragement to me to offer myſelf again a Candidate for the ſaid Office, at the next enſuing Election, and to requeſt the Continuance of your Votes and Intereſt; aſſuring you, at the ſame Time, that if I ſhould have the good Fortune to be choſen Sheriff by you, I ſhall make it my conſtant Study to diſcharge all the Duties of that Office with the Integrity, which the Laws of the Land, and my Attachment to you require. I am, GENTLEMEN,

Your devoted and moſt humble Servant,

Reading, Sept. 3, 1771. HENRY HALLER. ¶

To be poſitively SOLD, at public VENDUE, on Thurſday, the third day of October next enſuing, by the ſubſcriber, on the premiſes,

THE Public-houſe or Tavern, now in the tenure of John Dowdney, ſituate in Middletown, in the county of Bucks, at a place, commonly known by the name of the Four Lane Ends, within 22 miles of Philadelphia, 9 of Trenton, 7 of Briſtol, and 4 of Newtown.---The ſaid houſe is large and ſpacious, having 4 rooms on the lower floor, with an 8 feet entry through the ſame, 5 rooms on the ſecond floor, and 2 convenient garrets; a genteel garden adjoining the houſe, with a well and pump at the garden door, and a ſmall lot at the end of the garden, on which is erected a very good ſtable, the houſe, which is built of brick and ſtone, is in the beſt repair, being almoſt new; the ſituation very high and beautifully commodious, and ſo remarkably healthy, that intermitting fevers, fevers and agues, and fluxes, common to other places, are not known here. The adjacent neighbourhood, who conſiſt of the moſt wealthy and reputable farmers, are a kind, benevolent, converſable and agreeable people. To accommodate the ſaid Tavern (which may be converted into a Gentleman's country ſeat) will be ſold with the ſaid houſe, between 5 and 6 acres of woodland, capable (from a conſtant ſtream of water paſſing through it) of being made valuable watered meadow, as the ſoil is admirably well adapted to that uſe. The conditions of ſale wil be made known on the day of vendue, which will be eaſy to the purchaſer. GILBERT HICKS.

By the Ship CHARMING MOLLY, Captain GILL, arrived here from LONDON, we have the following Advices, viz.

From the GENERAL EVENING POST, July 9.

To his G---- the D--- of G------.

MY L--D,

THE influence of your G----'s fortune ſtill ſeems to preſide over the Treaſury. The genius of Mr. Bradſhaw inſpires Mr. Robinſon. How remarkable it is (and I ſpeak of it not as matter of reproach, but as ſomething peculiar to your character) that you have never yet formed a friendſhip, which has not been fatal to the object of it, nor adopted a cauſe, to which, one way or other, you have not done miſchief! Your attachment is infamy while it laſts, and which ever way it turns, leaves ruin and diſgrace behind it. The deluded girl, who yields to ſuch a profligate, even while he is conſtant, forfeits her reputation as well as her innocence, and finds herſelf abandoned at laſt to miſery and ſhame. Thus it happened with the beſt of P-----s. Poor Dingley too!----I proteſt I hardly know which of them we ought moſt to lament:---The unhappy man, who ſinks under the ſenſe of his diſhonour, or him who ſurvives it. Characters, ſo finiſhed, are placed beyond the reach of panegyric. Death has fixed his ſeal upon Dingley, and you, my Lord, have ſet your mark upon the other.

The only letter I ever addreſſed to the K--- was ſo unkindly received, that I believe I ſhall never preſume to trouble his M-----, in that way, again. But my zeal for his ſervice is ſuperior to neglect, and, like Mr. Wilkes's patriotiſm, thrives by perſecution. Yet his M------ is much addicted to uſeful reading, and, if I am not ill-informed, has honoured the Public Advertiſer with particular attention. I have endeavoured therefore, and not without ſucceſs (as perhaps you may remember) to furniſh it with ſuch intereſting and edifying intelligence, as probably would not reach him through any other channel. The ſervices you have done the nation,---your integrity in office, and ſignal fidelity to your approved good maſter, have been faithfully recorded. Nor have his own virtues been entirely neglected. Theſe letters, my L--d, are read in other countries, and in other languages; and I think I may affirm without vanity, that the gracious character of the beſt of P-----s is by this time not only perfectly known to his ſ------s, but tolerably well underſtood by the reſt of Europe. In this reſpect alone, I have the advantage of Mr. Wh--h--d. His plan, I think, is too narrow. He ſeems to manufacture his verſes for the ſole uſe of the hero, who is ſuppoſed to be the ſubject of them, and, that his meaning may not be unlawfully exported in foreign bottoms, ſets all tranſlation at defiance.

Your G----'s re-appointment to a ſeat in the C-b-n-t was announced to the public by the ominous return of Lord B--- to this country. When that noxious plant approaches England, he never fails to bring plague and peſtilence along with him. The K-- already feels the malignant effect of your influence over his C-------s. Your former Adminiſtration made Mr. Wilkes an Alderman of London, and Repreſentative of Middleſex. Your next appearance in office is marked with his election to the Shrievalty. In whatever meaſure you are concerned, you are not only diſappointed of ſucceſs, but always contrive to make the G-------nt of the beſt of P-----s contemptible in his own eyes, and ridiculous to the whole world. Making all due allowance for the effect of the Miniſter's declared interpoſition, Mr. Robinſon's activity, and Mr. Horne's new zeal in ſupport of Adminiſtration, we ſtill want the genius of the D--- of G------ to account for committing the whole intereſt of Government in the City, to the conduct of Mr. H-----y. I will not bear hard upon your faithful friend and emiſſary Mr. T------t, for I know the difficulties of his ſituation, and that a few lottery tickets are of uſe to his œconomy. There is a proverb concerning perſons in the predicament of this gentleman, which however cannot be ſtrictly applied to him. They commence dupes, and finiſh knaves. Now Mr. T------t's character is uniform. I am convinced that his ſentiments never depended upon his circumſtances, and that, in the moſt proſperous ſtate of his fortune, he was always the very man he is at preſent---But was there no other perſon of rank and conſequence in the city, whom Government could confide in, but a notorious Jacobite? Did you imagine that the whole body of the Diſſenters, that the whole Whig-intereſt of London would attend at the levee, and ſubmit to the directions of a notorious Jacobite? Was there no Whig Magiſtrate in the city, to whom the ſervants of George the Third could intruſt the management of a buſineſs ſo very intereſting to their maſter as the election of Sheriffs? Is there no room at St. James's, but for Scotchmen and Jacobites?---My L--d, I do not mean to queſtion the ſincerity of Mr. H----y's attachment to his Majeſty's Government. Since the commencement of the preſent reign, I have ſeen ſtill greater contradictions reconciled. The principles of theſe worthy Jacobites are not ſo abſurd as they have been repreſented. Their ideas of divine right are not ſo much annexed to the perſon or family, as to the political character of the S-------n. Had there ever been an honeſt man among the Stuarts, his -----'s preſent friends would have been Whigs upon principle. But the converſion of the beſt of ------- has removed their ſcruples. They have forgiven him the ſins of his H--------n anceſtors, and acknowledged the hand of Providence in the deſcent of the ----- upon the head of a true Stuart. In you, my L--d, they alſo behold with a kind of predilection, which borders upon loyalty, the natural repreſentative of that illuſtrious family. The mode of your deſcent from Charles the Second, is only a bar to your pretenſions to the Crown, and no way interrupts the regularity of your ſucceſſion to all the virtues of the Stuarts.

The unfortunate ſucceſs of the Reverend Mr. Horne's endeavours, in ſupport of the miniſterial nomination of Sheriffs, will I fear obſtruct his preferment. Permit me to recommend him to your G----'s protection. You will find him copiouſly gifted with thoſe qualities of the heart, which uſually direct you in the choice of your friendſhips. He too was Mr. Wilkes's friend, and as incapable as you are of the liberal reſentment of a gentleman. No, my L--d;---it was the ſolitary, vindictive malice of a monk, brooding over the infirmities of his friend, until he thought they quickened into public life; and feaſting, with a rancorous rapture, upon the ſordid catalogue of his diſtreſſes. Now, let him go back to his cloiſter. The church is a proper retreat for him. In his principles he is already a Biſhop.

The mention of this man has moved me from my natural moderation. Let me return to your G-----. You are the pillow, upon which I am determined to reſt all my reſentments. What idea can the beſt of S--------s form to himſelf of his own g--nt; in what repute can he conceive that he ſtands with his p- ple, when he ſees, beyond the poſſibility of a doubt, that, whatever be the office, the ſuſpicion of his favour is fatal to the candidate, and that, when the party he wiſhes well to has the faireſt proſpect of ſucceſs, if his R---l inclination ſhould unfortunately be diſcovered, it drops like an acid, and turns the election? This event, among others, may perhaps contribute to open his M------'s eyes to his real honour and intereſt. In ſpite of all your G----'s ingenuity, he may at laſt perceive the inconvenience of ſelecting, with ſuch a curious felicity, every villain in the nation to fill the various departments of his G-------nt. Yet I ſhould be ſorry to confine him in the choice either of his footmen or his friends.

JUNIUS.

Venice, June 1. According to our laſt advices from the Archipelago, the Iſles of Paros, Milo, Naxos, and Tine, are in the hands of the Ruſſians, to whom the inhabitants pay tribute, and furniſh their fleet with all neceſſaries. Three ſquadrons of their fleet are ſtationed at Paros, having on board 2500 men. Brigadier Borſch is cruiſing before the Dardanelles, and Admiral Aſff near Smyrna. The other Ships are cruiſing in different ſtations, in order to intercept any convoys from being ſent to the Turks, and to hinder the commerce of the Dulcignotes and Raguſans.

Marſeilles, June 21. Letters from Acre, by Capt. Fournier, inform us, that the Arabs, inſtigated by the Pacha of Damaſcus, had fallen ſuddenly upon the troops from Egypt and Acre, and after cutting many of them to pieces, put the reſt to flight.

Baſtia, June 9. The French troops under Count de Marbeuf, have had a bloody action with the malecontents on the other ſide of the mountains, and it is ſaid the former were obliged to retire with conſiderable loſs in killed and wounded. Some of their baggage is alſo fallen into the hands of the banditti.

June 13. The Count de Marbeuf is arrived at San Bonifacio, eſcorted by a picquet of cavalry, and immediately aſſembled all the officers; after which he viſited the fortifications of the place, and left orders concerning ſome additions and alterations that are to be made therein.

Warſaw, June 19. Count Branicki is marching with a corps of 3500 men towards Cracow; and as Colonel Drewitz is likewiſe in march, we ſoon expect to receive ſome intereſting news. Every thing is in motion in Lithuania.

Warſaw, June 20. We are informed, that the Commandant of Cauna hath prevented the effect of a General Confederacy in Samogitia. A troop of 120 men, commanded by Kowaleſki, hath committed great exceſſes there. They have carried off from the Royal Treaſury at Jueberg 11,000 florins, and have treated the Jews very ill. The Commandant ſent two detachments in purſuit of them, who came up with them in a village near Roſinne, and after an obſtinate battle the Confederates fled, having loſt fifty-three men and two officers, beſides twenty taken priſoners. The Ruſſians took alſo ſome thouſands of florins in ſpecie. The reſt of the Confederates are diſperſed.

Paris, June 30. Several prieſts are already returned here by virtue of the declaration lately made in their favour. It is aſſerted alſo, that upwards of 150 Jeſuits have entered the city, on the aſſurances given them, that they might avail themſelves of this law, provided they continued their ſecular habit. It is added, that the Archbiſhop has begun to employ ſeveral of them in the miniſtry of the goſpel; and one of the order has even preached in a pariſh church at Paris, to a vaſt concourſe of people.

Dantzick, June 22. Yeſterday our magiſtrates aſſembled at 9 in the morning, and did not break up till 8 in the evening, when it was reſolved to permit, from their magazines, the free exportation of rye and wheat, reſerving only 2000 laſts of the former, and 1000 of the latter. So that we ſhall continue to export as uſual, as many veſſels are arrived with grain from Poland.

A report is this moment current, that the Pruſſian troops have ſeized on Warmia, a Province in Royal Pruſſia, and that the regiment of Anhalt has garriſoned the town of Heilſberg, the capital of the Biſhopric of that name.

St. James's, July 9. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant unto the Right Hon. Lady North, the office of Keeper of Buſhy Park, in or near Hampton Court, in the county of Middleſex, during his Majeſty's pleaſure.

LONDON, July 8.

It is confidently ſaid that a treaty is on foot, with the powers concerned, to annex a valuable trading iſland and port, in the Levant, to the Crown of Great-Britain.

The Duke of Glouceſter being in a bad ſtate of health, his phyſicians have recommended a ſouthern air to his Highneſs; in conſequence of which the Venus frigate is fitting out to carry him to Liſbon.

We hear that Charles Fox, Eſq; is now become a Cabinet Counſellor to a Great Perſonage.

The queſtion of the Middleſex election will certainly be brought on again at the meeting of Parliament, in a manner, and from a quarter, at preſent little ſuſpected.

Dr. Wilſon has lately purchaſed a pair of very fine coach bay geldings, which he has preſented to Mr. Sheriff Wilkes, as a freſh mark of his eſteem for that gentleman.

They write from Briſtol, that a ball and entertainment was given at the Guild of that city, on Tueſday night laſt, in honour of Mr. Wilkes's election: Some gentlemen of the town, who oppoſed it, were roughly handled by the populace.

Letters of good authority from France ſay, that a diſpute of much greater importance than was generally known has for ſome time paſt ſubſiſted between the Courts of Verſailles and Madrid; that it was firſt broached by a demand which the former made on the latter of money to a conſiderable amount, to relieve her preſent neceſſities, but which Spain abſolutely refuſed. This quarrel is ſtill to ſettle; and unleſs the new Premier of France exerts his abilities to ſuppreſs it, the conſequences will ſoon produce the ruin of the family compact.

Extract of a letter from Paris, July 2.

"An edict was iſſued yeſterday to ſuppreſs the office of Treaſurers of Paris, with three Preſidents, 12 Treaſurers, &c. The Baron de Bretueil, we are aſſured, is appointed to go Ambaſſador to England."

Extract of a letter from Portſmouth, July 5.

"Sailed yeſterday his Majeſty's ſhip Tartar for New-York. Several men of war are to come into harbour, which, we hear, are to be fitted for foreign ſervice. This morning the 33d regiment of foot began to clear the ground for the fortifications round the dock-yard."

An officer of rank in the horſe, has lately been ſuperſeded for mal-practices.

The marine companies, which at preſent conſiſt of no more than fifty men each, are to be encreaſed to the complement of one hundred; and the guard which they conſtituted at Portſmouth dock, and which has been for ſome time diſcontinued, is to be re-eſtabliſhed, when the companies are compleated.

July 9. Yeſterday Lord Clive ſet out from his houſe in Berkely-ſquare for Spa in Germany, for the recovery of his health.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, July 2.

"We have juſt received advice here, that not only frigates, but likewiſe all ſhips of war, without diſtinction, of every nation, are forbidden by the King of Spain to enter into any of the ports of his ſtates; and we are aſſured his motives for this ſtep are, that it has been perceived for a long time paſt, that ſhips which are not ſubjected to viſitation, have greatly abuſed the permiſſion granted them by the Spaniſh monarch of putting into his ports, by exporting not only a great quantity of gold and ſilver, in money and in ingots, but alſo by carrying on a contraband trade with the inhabitants, which has greatly prejudiced the revenue of the Crown."

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, July 8.

"The following ſhips are getting ready to cruize in the Channel, viz. Trident 64 guns; Worceſter 64; Lenox 64; Royal Oak 64; Glory 36; Thames 36. Theſe ſeven men of war are, we hear, to join three more of the line at Plymouth, and proceed to ſea as ſoon as poſſible.

"At Spithead ſixteen ſhips of war."

A Cabinet-Council was ſummoned this very morning for Thurſday next, to take ſome late letters, in the public prints, into conſideration; doctrines of a treaſonable nature being ſtrongly inculcated in their productions.

Though ſeveral addreſſes from the city have been preſented ſince Mr. Wilkes's enlargement from the King's Bench, that gentleman from motives of delicacy, we hear, has not attended any one; and it is thought the ſame conſiderations will lead him to be abſent to-morrow, from a preſence where he would be particularly obnoxious.

Mr. Wilkes, ſays a correſpondent, in his North-Briton, reproached the Univerſity of Oxford for chooſing the late Lord Weſtmoreland their Chancellor, becauſe he was the moſt perſonally diſagreeable man in the kingdom to George the Second. This reflection, adds our correſpondent, will fall with equal weight on the loyalty of his own followers, who choſe him Sheriff of London for being the moſt perſonally diſagreeable man in the kingdom to his preſent Majeſty.

A correſpondent wiſhes before the Livery go up to St. James's with the Remonſtrance, that they will conſider if there is not a poſitive act of Parliament reſtraining the tumultuous petitions of the ſubject, and regulating the particular manner in which bodies corporate are to addreſs the Sovereign.

We hear there has been a great fire at Conſtantinople, many palaces, and a great number of houſes being deſtroyed.

The guards are ordered to be in conſtant readineſs to quell any diſorders which may happen to-morrow.

Many people having condemned the Lord Mayor's advertiſement relative to the Time of his ſetting out for St. James's to-morrow, it is but juſtice to his Lordſhip to inform the public, that at the Common-hall on Midſummer-day, he was requeſted to give the moſt early, and the moſt general notice of the day appointed by his Majeſty for receiving the Remonſtrance; and conſequently the notice which he gives in the prints, is no more than a compliance with the wiſhes of the Livery.

Notwithſtanding the two Sheriffs Martin and Baker have conducted themſelves to the eve of their office with an impartiality that does them great honour, it is thought the advertiſement which they have this morning addreſſed to the Livery, relative to his Majeſty's deſire of receiving only the Mayor and Aldermen to-morrow, will affect their popularity not a little; men now-a-days reaſoning from their prejudices, not their judgment, and deeming thoſe their enemies who communicate any truth which happens to be repugnant to their inclination.

July 10. The Earl of Rochford is ſaid to have ſent a very ſpirited Memorial to the French Court, inſiſting on the immediate payment of the money due on account of the Canada paper; and that a firm reſolution is at length taken, that this matter ſhall no longer remain the diſgrace of our public conduct, and a ſtain on the national honour.

A noble Lord, who wagered a conſiderable ſum that Mr. Wilkes would not be one of the Sheriffs, has refuſed to pay the bett till the Patriot is ſworn into his office, and offers to make any ſtake whatever, that ſome Court manœuvre will be yet made uſe of, before that period arrives, to prevent him from ſerving.

Extract of a letter from Leghorn, dated June 9.

"We have juſt received advice from Malta, that an Engliſh Merchant ſhip, named the Anglican, having taken on board at Smyrna about 300 Turks, moſtly Traders, whom he was to carry to Alexandria, and who had with them a conſiderable ſum of money, was met by a Ruſſian corſair, who ordered him to bring to. The Engliſh Captain, having his colours flying, took no notice of the order, but ſailed on his deſtined rout; however, the Ruſſian having joined a frigate of war of his nation, they both attacked, ſome hours after, the Engliſh, who after an engagement of three hours, in which he received great damage in his maſts and rigging, was obliged to ſurrender. This advice comes farther confirmed in a letter from a Merchant at Malta to his Correſpondent here, with orders to buy up great part of the cargo on his account, if it ſhould be brought in to this place."

July 11. Yeſterday morning his Majeſty came from Richmond, and gave audience to ſeveral of the Miniſtry, and principal officers of State, previous to his receiving the addreſs, remonſtrance and petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, &c.

A meeting of ſeveral of the Aldermen and Common Council was held on Tueſday afternoon at Guildhall, when the affair relative to the Common Council accompanying the Lord Mayor and Aldermen to St. James's yeſterday, with the City Remonſtrance, was the ſubject of conſideration.

The following copy of a letter was received on Tueſday night at 12 o'clock, by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, from the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain.

"My LORD,

As in conſequence of the notice given of the time your Lordſhip purpoſes ſetting out to-morrow, the Livery may be induced to attend your Lordſhip to St. James's, I have the King's command to acquaint you, that it being unprecedented to admit the Livery upon ſuch occaſions, as well as impracticable, to introduce ſo numerous a body, no perſons beyond the number allowed by law to preſent petitions to the Throne, will be admitted, except your Lordſhip, the Aldermen, Common Council, and City officers. I am,

My Lord, with the greateſt reſpect,

Groſvenor-ſtreet, Your Lordſhip's moſt obedient humble ſervant,

July 9, 1771. HERTFORD."

Yeſterday morning the Lord Mayor cauſed copies of the above letter to be ſtuck up in divers parts of the city, that the Livery might be acquainted with the ſame.

Yeſterday, between 12 and 1 o' clock, the Lord Mayor, attended by Aldermen Stephenſon, Trecothick, Sawbridge, Townſend and Oliver, Sir James Hodges, and the other city officers (excepting the Recorder) and many of the Common Councilmen, Mr. Bull, and ſeveral of the Livery, went to St. James's, and preſented to his Majeſty, the Remonſtrance of the City of London.

There was a very numerous concourſe of people in King-ſtreet, and Cheapſide, and not the leaſt diſturbance or interruption.

The following is ſaid to be the purport of his Majeſty's anſwer: "That already two petitions had been preſented to him upon the ſame ſubject, to which he had given anſwers ſufficiently known; that the additional articles in this, could not induce him to alter his opinion, much leſs to condemn the conduct of his Parliament, which he had ſo much approved in his laſt ſpeech from the Throne; and that having no leſs a thorough confidence in the loyalty and candour of that body, than in the uprightneſs and fidelity of his Miniſters, he could not comply with their prayer and requeſt."

While the King, in one reſpect, adheres ſo religiouſly to an obſolete law, why does he ſuffer it to be violated with regard to the Aldermen? Are not the Livery as much his ſubjects as the Aldermen? A Prince ſhould never ſeem afraid of his people.

Yeſterday the Court appeared every way brilliant and numerous, and his Majeſty was ſurrounded with a great many of the nobility, foreign ambaſſadors, and officers of ſtate.

A correſpondent has ſent us an extract from the act of parliament, which he preſumes is what is alluded to in the Earl of Hertford's letter to the Lord Mayor:---13 Charles II. chap. 5. "An act againſt tumults and diſorders upon pretence of preparing or preſenting public petitions, or other addreſſes, to his Majeſty or the Parliament. Whereas it hath been found by ſad experience, that tumultuous and other diſorderly ſoliciting of hands by private perſons to petitions, complaints, remonſtrances and declarations, and other addreſſes to the King, &c. have been made uſe of to ſerve the ends of factious and ſeditious perſons gotten into power, to the violation of the public peace, and have been a great means of the late unhappy wars, confuſions and calamities in the nation: For preventing the like miſchiefs for the future, be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Lords, &c. that no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall, from and after the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1661, ſolicit, labour or procure the getting of hands, or other conſent, of any perſons above the number of twenty or more to any petition, complaint, remonſtrance, declaration, or other addreſs to the King, or both or either Houſe of Parliament, for alteration of matters eſtabliſhed by law in church or ſtate, unleſs the matter thereof have been firſt conſented unto and ordered by three or more Juſtices of that county, or by the major part of the Grand Jury of the county or diviſion of the county where the ſame matter ſhall ariſe at their public Aſſizes, or General Quarter Seſſions; or if ariſing in London, by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Council aſſembled; and that no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall repair to his Majeſty, or both or either of the Houſes of Parliament, upon pretence of preſenting or delivering any petition, complaint, remonſtrance or declaration, or other addreſſes, accompanied with exceſſive number of people, nor at any one time with above the number of ten perſons, upon pain of incurring a penalty not exceeding the ſum of 100l. in money, and three months impriſonment, without bail or mainprize, for every offence; which offence to be proſecuted at the Court of King's Bench, or at the Aſſizes or General Quarter Seſſions, within ſix months after the offence committed, and proved by two or more credible witneſſes."---Ruffhead's ſtatutes at large, 4to. vol. III. page 208.

The Kings of Denmark and Sweden, by their readiness to hear the petitions of their subjects, have set a glorious example to the rest of the Sovereigns of Europe.

It is hinted that Mr. Wilkes will go into partnership with Mr. Bull, which, it is thought, will amply repay the expences of the Sheriffalty.

A Correspondent observes, it has been said by some of Mr. Wilkes's old Cronies at Court, who enjoy the prospect of having our citizens disgraced, that Br-s Cr--by will be sacrificed as soon as he has contributed to the success of Mr. Wilkes's present views, and can be no longer rendered serviceable. Mr. Wilkes loves jesting at his heart, and it is well known that he thinks his L------p will furnish excellent matter of merriment: Besides, by giving up such a friend, he imagines that he shall disgust no man, and possibly may have an opportunity of forming some new connection by the help of his disgrace.

The Lord Mayor has made Mr. Alderman Wilkes a present (for his new chariot) of the two fine long-tailed horses which he had when he served the office of Sheriff.

PHILADELPHIA, September 12.

By the HONOURABLE

JAMES HAMILTON, Esq; President,

And the COUNCIL of the Province of Pennsylvania,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by an Instrument of Writing, under the Privy Seal, bearing Date the Eighteenth Day of June, 1766, lately transmitted to this Government, by one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been pleased to adjudge and declare void, an Act of Assembly of this Province, passed in September, 1764, entituled, "A Supplement to the Act, entituled, An Act for erecting a Light-House at the Mouth of the Bay of Delaware, at, or near Cape-Henlopen, for placing and fixing Buoys in the said Bay and River Delaware; and for appointing Commissioners to receive, collect and recover certain Sums of Money, heretofore raised by Way of Lottery, and to appropriate the same to the Purposes aforesaid." AND WHEREAS His Majesty, by a like Instrument, under the Privy Seal, bearing Date the Fifth Day of June last, did also adjudge and declare void, one other Act of Assembly of this Province, passed in February, 1770, entituled, "An Act for the Sale of Goods distrained for Rent, and to secure such Goods to the Persons distraining the same, for the better Security of Rents, and to prevent Frauds and Abuses committed by Tenants." WE HAVE therefore thought fit to signify and make known the same, to all Persons within this Government, in order that they may take Notice thereof, and govern themselves accordingly.

GIVEN in Council, under the Great Seal of the said Province, at Philadelphia, the Ninth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-one, and in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of GOD, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and so forth.

JAMES HAMILTON, President.

By Order of the President and Council,

JOSEPH SHIPPEN, junior, Secretary.

GOD Save the KING.

JONATHAN ODELL, Secretary to the Corporation.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, of the Borough and County of CHESTER.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my sincere Acknowledgments for the Honour you have done me, in choosing me one of your Representatives in the General Assembly of this Province, for these three Years past; but the Situation of my private Affairs, at this Time, will make it very inconvenient for me, to serve you any longer in that Station; I therefore request the Favour of you, to choose some other Person, at the ensuing Election, in the Stead of, Your obliged and respectful Friend,

§ JOHN CROSBY.

To the FREEHOLDERS and ELECTORS of NEW-CASTLE County on Delaware.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you hearty Thanks for your favourable Opinion, in thinking me worthy of a Seat in your House of Assembly for such a Number of Years past; but now having certain Reasons to decline accepting thereof, I do request, as a farther Instance of your Favours, that you would not vote at the ensuing Election for your humble Servant,

† WILLIAM ARMSTRONG.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, the ELECTORS for the County of NEW-CASTLE.

GENTLEMEN,

I ACKNOWLEDGE your Favours in making, or voting me your Sheriff some years ago, and as I intend to stand a Candidate for the aforesaid Office, at the Expiration of the present Sheriff's Time, your Votes and Interest, at the ensuing Election, in order to put me on the Return with the present Sheriff, shall ever be remembered by, GENTLEMEN,

Your obedient humble Servant,

Brandywine Hundred, Sept. 6, 1771. WILLIAM GOLDEN.

Philadelphia, September 10, 1771.

RUN away the 2d instant, a servant man, named JAMES HILL, 20 odd years of age, a shoemaker by trade, about 5 feet and an half high, born in England, has a very full bluff red nose, pock-marked, wears his own short dark brown hair, a mole on his right cheek, writes a good hand, pretends to be free, and may change his name, and dress to suit his purpose. Took with him 1 cloth coat, of a dark brown or chocolate colour, yellow metal buttons, 1 white linen waistcoat, 1 check shirt, 1 pair of white worsted stockings, 1 pair of brown thread ditto, and 1 pair of dirty leather breeches. He was trusted by his master to go off for Cumberland county, to Juniata river, with an old sorrel mare, very low in flesh, a small blaze in her face, loaded with leather, and new shoemakers tools, and other things, but he has sold or made away with the whole, except the new tools, which he has with him. Any person that will discover where the mare and goods are, shall be paid Thirty Shillings; and whoever secures the runaway, so that his master may get him again, shall receive Ten Dollars reward, and reasonable charges, paid by JOSEPH CLAYPOOLE, Hatter, in Market-street.

N. B. All masters of sea vessels, shallops, pilot-boats, and small craft, are warned not to carry him off at their peril. It is thought he will make for New-York, or some other place, and go to work at his trade.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, on Wednesday, the 25th day of this instant September, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, will be exposed to sale, by public vendue, on the premises, a certain messuage and plantation, or tract of land, situate in London Britain township, containing, by estimation, 320 acres; late in the tenure of William M'Dowell, Thomas Singleton, and John Jack, and being parcel of a larger tract of land, containing 420 acres, and all of the same tract that lies in Chester county, which the trustees of the Pennsylvania land company, in London, by deed, of the 29th of November, 1762, conveyed to a certain John Singleton; also another small tract of land, No. 74, situate in the township aforesaid, adjoining the lands of Benjamin Whitting, Catherine Crawford, and Jane Evans, in Whiteclay creek, containing 45 acres; and also 50 acres of land, late the property of Starrett Gray, sold by John Morton, Esq; to the said John Singleton; late the property of the said John Singleton, deceased; seized and taken in execution by

JESSE MARIS, Sheriff.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, on Wednesday, the 25th day of this instant September, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, will be exposed to sale by public vendue, on the premises, a certain tract or parcel of land, situate on a branch of Elk-river, in New-London township, Chester County, bounded by the London tract, and lands of Benjamin Franklin, Esq; and Samuel Kennedy, containing 100 acres, late the property of Samuel Mears, deceased; seized and taken in execution by

JESSE MARIS, Sheriff.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, on Saturday, the 28th day of this instant September, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, will be exposed to sale by public vendue, on the premises, two full equal and undivided fifth parts of a certain tract of land, situate in East Caln, containing 41 acres, bounded by lands of William Hope, Phineas Lewis, Samuel Worth, Robert Parke, and land formerly of John Bradley; late the property of William Hunt; seized and taken in execution by

JESSE MARIS, Sheriff.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, on Saturday, the 28th day of this instant September, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, will be exposed to sale, by public vendue, on the premises, a messuage, and lot of ground, situate in Lower Chichester township, Chester county, containing about two acres, bounded by lands of John Price, Esq; and others; late the property of Allen Robinett; seized and taken in execution by

JESSE MARIS, Sheriff.

FOUR DOLLARS Reward.

RUN away from the subscriber, living near George-Town, in Kent county, Maryland, the 3d of this instant September, at night, an Irish servant man, named TIMOTHY CONNER, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has short brown hair, a sore place on his right breast, and a large wart on his left hip; had on, and took with him, a new country linen shirt, and trowsers of the same, an old lightish brown jacket, with cuffs to the sleeves, and lappelled, a half-worn felt hat, and half-worn shoes, with broad rimmed brass buckles in them; his other cloaths (if any) not known; it is very likely he may change his name, as he has been used to do so before. Whoever takes up said servant, and secures him in any goal, and sends notice to his master, so that he may get him again, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges, if brought home, paid by GEORGE BROWNING.

N. B. All masters of vessels, and others, are forbid to harbour or carry him off, at their peril. ¶

STOLEN from the subscriber, in Vincent township, Chester county, on Monday, the 2d of September instant, out of the field, a sorrel HORSE, mixed with white hair, about 10 years old, shod before, two white hind feet, and a small slip or blaze down his forehead, and a colter fell in his left fore hoof, but is almost grown out, paces and trots, between 14 and 15 hands high, hath neither brand nor ear-mark. Whoever takes up said horse and thief, and brings him to the owner, so that he may have him again, shall be intitled to the reward of Ten Pounds, or Five Pounds for the horse alone, from me

JACOB HOFMAN.

N. B. The aboveaid thief hath left an iron grey mare in the field, with a bald face, shod all round, which is supposed to be stolen; the owner is desired to come, pay charges, and take her away. §

Chester Goal, September 7, 1771.

COMMITTED to my custody this day, two men, named Cornelius Hurry, and George Aris, or Arison, on suspicion of being run away servants, and answer the description of an advertisement in the Chronicle, No. 242, signed by Brougton Reynolds; their master or masters are desired to come, pay the charges, and take them away.

JOEL WILLIS, Goaler. §

Philadelphia, September 9, 1771.

STRAYED away, off the commons of this city, near 4 weeks ago, an old sorrel HORSE, white mane and tail, a star in his forehead, about 14 hands high. Whoever brings said horse to THOMAS MACKANESS, the corner of Fourth and Vine-streets, shall receive Ten Shillings reward. ¶

CAME to the place of the subscriber, in Upper-Hanover township, Philadelphia county, on the 23d of August last, a brown HORSE, about 15 hands high, between 8 and 9 years old, without brand or any other mark. He was taken up with saddle and bridle, and as he was very much harrassed and abused, is supposed to have been stolen. The owner is desired to come, prove his property, pay charges, and take him away.

DAVID LEVY, Shop-keeper.

THIS is to inform the public, and my friends and cuſtomers in particular, that as I am about to decline the tanning buſineſs, I have opened a ſhop for the retail of dry and wet goods, at the houſe I now live in, in Front-ſtreet, near to Mr. Stamper's wharff, and oppoſite to where Mr. Deacon formerly lived, and ſhall be much obliged to them for their cuſtom in this way, as I ſhall make it my buſineſs to ſupply them with goods of good quality, and at a reaſonable rate, and hope to give general ſatisfaction. I return my ſincere thanks to my kind cuſtomers for former favours, JOHN SNOWDEN, junior.

N. B. I alſo retail leather as formerly, and receive hides, tallow or bees-wax for pay. Shoemakers, and others, may be ſupplied with leather in ſmall or large quantities, and depend on having it good; alſo leather will be received to curry, at a reaſonable rate. September 10. J. S. ¶ 6 W.

WILLIAM IBISON returns his Thanks to the Public for the Encouragement he has met with in eſtabliſhing his OFFICE OF INTELLIGENCE, which is kept the Weſt Side of Front-ſtreet, near Cheſtnut-ſtreet, where is wanted ſeveral Sums of Money on undoubted Security.

Boys to go Apprentices to different Trades.

A Journeyman Tanner and Currier and an Apprentice Boy to the ſame.

To be Diſpoſed of, ſeveral Plantations in this and the neighbouring Colonies.

A Number of Houſes in this City and the Suburbs.

Merchandize of all Kinds, Horſes, Chairs, Sulkees, Phætons, and Carriages of all Sorts.

A Man offers himſelf as an Overſeer to a Farm, or to take a Place on Shares.

As the Public may be deſirous of being more fully acquainted with the Nature of ſuch an Office, the Intelligencer propoſes the following Plan, viz.

Firſt---Any Merchants, Maſters of Veſſels, or others, that have got any Sort of Merchandize to ſell cheap for Caſh, by entering them at the Office, may ſoon be informed of Purchaſers, paying Two Shillings for entering the ſame; and all Perſons that want to purchaſe any Sort of Merchandize, cheap for Caſh, ſhall be informed gratis, where to purchaſe, if any ſuch be entered in the Office.

Secondly---If any Perſon has got any Houſes or Veſſels to ſell, lett or charter, Rooms, Shops or Lodgings to lett, Negroes or Servants to ſell, may be informed of Purchaſers, Hirers and Lodgers, by entering them at the Office, paying Two Shillings for the ſame; and any Perſon that wants to buy, hire or charter any of the above, or wants Rooms, Shops, or Lodgings, may be informed, gratis, by applying to ſaid Office.

Thirdly---If any Perſon has got any Money to lend, on good Security, by applying to this Office, and paying Two Shillings, may ſoon be informed of a Perſon that wants Money, and can give good Security; any Perſon that wants Money, and can give good Security, paying Two Shillings, may ſoon be informed where to borrow---further, whereas ſundry Perſons are under a Neceſſity often to raiſe Money on a ſhort Warning, and have got many ſuperfluous Articles of ſome Kind or other by them, and at the ſame Time not willing to riſque theſe Articles to Vendue, nor ſell them themſelves at their own Houſes, this is to inform thoſe Perſons if they will ſend ſuch Articles as they want to ſell to the Office, the Intelligencer will uſe his utmoſt Endeavour to diſpoſe of them to the beſt Advantage. If he cannot diſpoſe of them ſo, will endeavour to borrow Money on them for a ſhort Credit, and for his Service he requires but moderate Commiſſions.

Fourthly---If Men or Women want Places of Service, enter their Names and Places where they live at the Office, paying Two Shillings, may ſoon be informed of Employment.

Fifthly---Maſters may hear of Journeymen, and Journeymen of Maſters, in all Profeſſions, by applying to this Office and paying Two Shillings.

Said Intelligencer intends to take in a News-Paper publiſhed in every capital Town on the Continent and ſettle a Correſpondence there, who will inform him of the current Prices of Goods in theſe Places, any Perſon by applying to the Intelligencer, may be informed gratis of the ſame; as the Nature of the Office is ſuch, the more it is encouraged the more uſeful it becomes to the Community, the Intelligencer earneſtly requeſts the Public's Favours in general, which will ever be eſteemed by their aſſured Friend,

¶ WILLIAM IBISON, Broker.

Glouceſter County, Ninth Month 2, 1771.

THERE will be expoſed to Sale, by Way of public Vendue, on the 30th of this inſtant (September) at the Houſe of Hugh Creighton, Inkeeper, in Haddonfield, the two following Tracts of Land, ſituate and being in the Townſhip and County of Glouceſter. One Tract containing about 400 Acres, on which there is a Dwelling-houſe, Barn, and Apple Orchard; alſo a Saw-mill, commonly called, Tice's Big Mill, the Stream on which the Mill is erected is thought ſufficient for a Griſt-mill likewiſe, which might be advantageous to the Purchaſer, as the Situation is convenient for the back Inhabitants, being near the landing Road, as well as to a Number of Farmers in the Neighbourhood; ſaid Mill is about five Miles from a public Landing.

One other Tract of about 96 Acres, adjoining the above, on which there is a Houſe and other Improvements, and is now in the Tenure of John Buſſell: Any Perſon inclining to view the Premiſes, may apply to Richard Tice, living near the ſame. The Sale of ſaid Lands to begin at One o'Clock in the Afternoon of ſaid Day, at which Time the Conditions will be publiſhed, the whole being Part of the real Eſtate of ſaid Tice, and aſſigned to us for the Benefit of his Creditors.

ISAAC MICKLE, THOMAS REDMAN, Aſſignees.

N. B. There are 7 or 800 Acres of Pine Land and Cedar Swamp, ſituate convenient to ſaid Mill, the Property of ſaid Tice, which may be purchaſed. ¶

WHEREAS MARGARET, the wife of THOMAS ELTON, of Northampton, in the county of Burlington, and Weſtern Diviſion of New-Jerſey, hath by her extreme ill behaviour in times paſt, as well as at preſent, eloped from her huſband, the firſt time in company with one John Alcott, a Flatman, and took with her goods to a conſiderable value, leaving her huſband with one child not a year old; and by virtue of an advertiſement, with a reward of Five Pounds, it is ſuppoſed they parted, and ſhe returned without goods or her cloaths, ſave what ſhe had on, and ſtill contitues in a ſtate of not being reconciled to her huſband; theſe are therefore to forewarn all perſons not to harbour her, either by night or day, nor truſt nor have any dealings whatſoever with her, at their peril, as I am reſolved to proſecute whoever ſhall be found ſo doing; and any perſon or perſons who have received the goods which are my property, and her cloaths, which I bought for her, are deſired to return them to me at Mount-holly, or Burlington, where I will receive them, and gratefully reward them, and will pay any debt that ſhe has contracted upon them. And whereas the ſaid John Alcott is not yet apprehended, I, the ſubſcriber, do continue the above reward of Five Pounds, and reaſonable charges, to any perſon who ſhall ſecure him, in any of his Majeſty's goals, ſo that he may be brought to juſtice. The ſaid John Alcott is a well ſet fellow, about 5 feet 10 inches high, a ſandy complexion, grey eyes, has a down look, a large hooked noſe, and wears his hair tied; the ſaid Margaret is a ſhort thick body, a round likely face, black hair, flat noſe, her eyes black, and ſtand farther apart than common from each other, roſey cheeks, has a ſmall ſcar under her left noſtril reſembling a croſs, ſhe has loſt two of her fore teeth, talkative, and very much for ſinging; ſhe commonly wears a large pair of ſilver buckles, the rims carved, and holes through the rims.

Auguſt 30, 1771. THOMAS ELTON. ‖ 7*f*6.

THREE POUNDS Reward.

RAN away, from the ſubſcriber, living in Weſt-Town townſhip, Cheſter county, a Welſh ſervant lad, named DAVID EVANS, about 19 years of age, five feet ſix or ſeven inches high, a luſty ſtrong lad, has the mark of an old ſcar under one ear, ſhort brown curly hair, and is ſubject to ſlabber: Had on an old ragged tow ſhirt, an old cloth jacket, with cuffs, old tow ſailor trowſers, a half-worn coarſe felt hat, and old neat's leather ſhoes, with ſtrings; not known to have any money with him, except only a one ninth of a dollar bill, Maryland money, ſo ragged that it is hardly paſſable. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo that his maſter may get him again, ſhall have the above reward, paid by JAMES GIBBONS.

N. B. He ran away the 26th of laſt month, and was taken up in the Valley, near Downing's-Town, the ſame day, on ſuſpicion of being a runaway, but got away from the perſon that had him in cuſtody. He is very ſubject to lying and ſtealing. ¶ September 11.

NOTICE is hereby given to John Galloway, a Millwright, who formerly worked at the Row Mills, by Newton Limevada, in Ireland, and came to this Country laſt Spring, that his Couſin Roſe Moore, came to Philadelphia the 20th of Auguſt laſt, on Redemption, and is very deſirous of ſeeing him before the 20th of September inſtant, as ſhe wants ſome Aſſiſtance to pay her Paſſage, otherwiſe ſhe will be ſold a Servant for 3 Years. She now lives at John Williamſon's, in Newton Townſhip, Cheſter County, near the Square Tavern.

¶ ROSE MOORE.

Ephrata, Auguſt 21, 1771.

TO be ſold or rented, a Plantation, of 11 Acres, and 103 Perches of Land, ſituated in Hinkle-Town, Earl Townſhip, Lancaſter County, near the Great Road from Paxton to Philadelphia; there is on the Place a two Story Houſe, 40 Feet by 22; on the lower Story there are two Rooms with Fire Places, a Shop, and Kitchen; and on the Second three Rooms, one of which has a Fire Place. To the lower Story joins a Potter's Shop of Stone, 15 Feet wide, with the Kiln made after the Engliſh Manner; there are two Cellars, a Barn and Stable, and a Pump of good Water near the Houſe; likewiſe a large Garden, which joins a ſmall Houſe, fit for Buſineſs, an Orchard of 40 bearing Trees, and 30 more lately planted, is very convenient for a Tavern or Shopkeeper, and all the Fences in good Order. The Title for 99 Years, 16 whereof are elapſed; the whole letts for Three Pounds and Five Shillings; there are 3 Acres of Winter Grain. Whoever inclines to purchaſe or rent ſaid Premiſes, may apply to the Subſcriber, living thereon. ‡ JOHN SHULTZ.

TO BE SOLD,

A DUTCH SERVANT MAN, about 26 Years of Age; he is a hearty ſtrong Fellow, and has four Years and ten Months to ſerve. Any Perſon, inclining to buy ſaid Servant, may apply to JAMES WHITEHEAD, in Philadelphia.

N. B. A Perſon, who is capable of tending a Griſt and Saw-mill, and can be well recommended, may meet with Encouragement, by applying to ELIJAH WEED, at the Corner of Arch and Fourth-ſtreets, Philadelphia. ¶

WHEREAS the Subſcriber, living in Cocalicoe Townſhip, Lancaſter County, ſold a COW laſt Spring to a Drover, and ſhe is ſince come back to the Place. The Owner is deſired to come, prove his Property, pay Charges, and take her away. CONRAD MENZER. ¶

Kent County, Maryland, Ninth-month 2, 1771.

THE ſubſcriber, for the better carrying on his mills, makes the following advantageous offers to the acceptor thereof, having beſt burrs and Cologne ſtones, in a fine wheat country, on a good ſtream of water, where may be manufactured upwards of thirty thouſand buſhels of wheat in one year, and hath alſo a commodious ſtore-houſe, where may readily be ſold for ready pay, Four Thouſand Pounds worth of goods in a year; if any perſon of ability and character will furniſh the place with Two Thouſand Pounds in goods and caſh, to carry on the buſineſs in their own names, and be at the charge thereof, the ſubſcriber will keep the mills in good order, and be at all the charge, riſque, and expence attending manufacturing the wheat, and each party to have one half the profits ariſing; or will treat on any other terms, and waits on the premiſes for application. JOHN VANSANT.

N. B. Situate 12 miles from Duck-creek, and an advantage of about Two-pence in the buſhel, of any of the mills on Brandywine, ariſes on the difference of carting wheat and flour to Philadelphia. ¶

September 5, 1771.

To WILLIAM GOLDEN,

WHEREAS a certain PATRICK BRAIDY, alias BEATTY, was advertiſed in the Gazette of July 4, 1771, by you, for feloniouſly taking certain Goods, not yet all known: And whereas the ſaid Advertiſement may be ſomething prejudicial to my Character, I take this Method to acquaint you and the Public, that my Place of Abode, or Reſidence, is in the Townſhip of Waterford, in the County of Glouceſter, my Occupation is Flatting and going by Water, and am well known in Philadelphia, or up and down the River, and if you have any Demands upon me, I am ready and willing to anſwer you, or any other Perſon, that appears againſt me.

¶ PATRICK BRADY.

FORTY SHILLINGS Reward.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for your Favours paſt, and ſhall be further obliged to you for the Continuance of your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election.

JUDAH FOULKE, Sheriff.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, qualified to chooſe Members of Aſſembly, for the City and County of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM obliged to you for the good Opinion you have entertained of me, in chooſing me one of your Repreſentatives in the General Aſſembly of this Province, for ſeveral Years paſt; but, as my own private Buſineſs too much interferes with the neceſſary Application to ſo important a Truſt, I muſt beg you will excuſe me, by chooſing ſome other Perſon, at the enſuing Election, to ſerve in my Stead, which will much oblige your ſincere Friend, THOMAS LIVEZEY.

To the ELECTORS of the City of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for the Favor, you were pleaſed to confer upon me laſt Year, by chuſing me one of your Repreſentatives in Aſſembly. Being then abſent, at a conſiderable Diſtance from Town, and not having received any Notice of your Intentions, when I left home, I had not a timely Opportunity of requeſting you to excuſe me from ſerving you in that Office. My Reſpect for you engaged me therefore to accept it; and I hope I have, on this, and every other Occaſion, where a public Truſt has been committed to me, acted in ſuch a Manner, that my Fellow Citizens and Countrymen will believe my Conduct has been ſolely influenced by a Regard for their Welfare. As ſeveral Reaſons have determined me not to continue longer in Aſſembly, I earneſtly deſire, you will be ſo kind as to chuſe, at the enſuing Election, ſome Perſon to repreſent you in the Place of, GENTLEMEN,

Your obliged Friend, and faithful Servant,

September 2, 1771. JOHN DICKINSON.

To the FREEHOLDERS and others, the ELECTORS for the Borough and County of CHESTER.

GENTLEMEN,

I ACKNOWLEDGE your Favours in voting me on the Return for Sheriffs theſe two Years paſt; and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the Office at the Expiration of the preſent Sheriff's Time, your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, in order to keep me on the Return with the preſent Officer, ſhall be gratefully acknowledged and remembered by your real friend, HENRY HAYES. ¶

By His EXCELLENCY

WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;

Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral in the ſame, &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS His Majeſty, by two ſeveral Orders in Council at St. James's, bearing Date the Seventh Day of June laſt, hath been pleaſed, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to declare His Diſallowance of two Acts of the Legiſlature of this Province; one of which ſaid Acts was paſſed in November 1769, and is intituled,

"An Act to erect Courts in the ſeveral Counties in this Colony, for the Trial of Cauſes of Ten Pounds, and under."

The other is an Act paſſed in March 1770, intituled, "An Act to explain and amend an Act of the General Aſſembly, paſſed in the Tenth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned." And purſuant to His Majeſty's Royal Pleaſure thereupon expreſſed, the ſaid Acts are thereby diſallowed, declared void, and of none Effect.

I HAVE therefore thought fit to publiſh His Majeſty's Royal Diſallowance and Repeal of the ſaid two Acts by Proclamation, to the End that all His Majeſty's Subjects whom it may concern, may take Notice thereof, and govern themſelves accordingly.

[For more new ADVERTISEMENTS, ſee the fourth Page.]

On Sunday last arrived here Captain SPARKS, from London, by whom we have the following Advices, viz.

COPENHAGEN, June 11.

IN order to prevent a ſcarcity of grain in this capital, his Majeſty has given orders that a magazine ſhall be erected here, which ſhall always contain 10,000 tons; this is to be replaced from year to year; and if our own country ſhould not furniſh a ſufficiency to keep it up, a quantity ſufficient for that purpoſe is to be bought in foreign countries.

Legborn, May 29. We learn from Otranto, that in order to put a ſtop to the diſorders which are daily committed by the Albanian troops, in the places where they are quartered, the Governors of the ſeveral towns have received orders to ſend them to the army under the Grand Vizir.

Very little grain has been ſown this ſeaſon in the Morea, from whence it is feared the neighbouring iſlands will ſuffer greatly hereafter, as they principally depended on them for proviſions.

Thorn, in Poland, June 19. All advices from the Danube concur in aſſuring us, that the Ruſſian and Turkiſh armies draw nearer to each other.

Prague, June 20. There was a riot in this City on account of the dearneſs of proviſion. The Governor told the mob, if they would not diſperſe, he would order the garriſon to fire upon them. Not in the leaſt intimidated, they replied, that they would look upon the execution of his menaces as a favour, ſince a ſudden death by the muſket was preferable to a ſlow one by famine. The Governor did not chuſe to take their advice, but ſent an expreſs to the Empreſs, who was ſo much moved with the diſtreſs of her ſubjects as to ſhed tears. She countermanded the waggons loaded with corn for Ratiſbon, and gave that City an indemnification of 1500 ducats.

Hague, July 5. We have juſt received certain information, that a corps of three battalions of foot guards, three other regiments of infantry, and two regiments of cuiraſſiers of the Ruſſian troops, under the command of Lieutenant General Stibikow, are aſſembled in Carelia, on the frontiers of Sweden, and that theſe forces have no other deſtination but to obſerve attentively, and get all poſſible information of whatever ſhall be tranſacted at the preſent Dyet of that kingdom, as well as to keep in awe thoſe who compoſe it, that they may form no reſolutions diſadvantageous to Ruſſia, becauſe the Court of Peterſburgh hath not forgotten the Manner in which the Swedes acted againſt her in their Dyet held in 1740; or leſt the Swedes, believing the Ruſſians to be exhauſted by the expenſive war which they have had to ſupport againſt the Turks, may reſolve to attack them, and endeavour to recover whatever they had been obliged to cede to the Ruſſians at the treaty of Nyſtadt; an expedition, which, unhappily for the Swedes, coſt them very dear.

Vienna, June 15. The different bodies of troops in Moravia and Upper Auſtria, have received orders to remain quiet in their quarters. A part of the horſes deſtined for the ſervice of the artillery, have been ſent back to their owners, with leave to convert them to what uſe they think proper.

Trieſte, June 12. Letters from the Levant ſay, that the Ruſſian ſquadron is in a bad condition, as well for want of money, as good proviſion.

Venice, June 19. According to the laſt letters from the Levant, the Ruſſians propoſe to make another attempt upon the Morea. Private letters ſay, that they have advanced into Bulgaria.

Mittau, June 17. We begin to feel here the like troubles with Poland and Lithuania. The Diſſidents, in the neighbourhood of our frontiers, take refuge in this Dutchy, ſeeking an aſylum againſt the violences of the Confederates; but the latter, without regard to the Law of Nations, purſue them hither, maſſacre all thoſe who have the misfortune to fall into their hands; lay waſte the ſown lands, and pull down the houſes which they find in their paſſage. The Proteſtants have built a church at Birſen, the Confederates are come to deſtroy it, and ravage at the ſame time the terrtories of the Chamberlain Turnau, though ſituated in this Dutchy.

Conſtantinople, May 17. The plague is juſt broke out again in this Capital, and its ſuburbs.

Poſnania, June 26. It is reported that the Empreſs of Ruſſia will attempt the Conqueſt of the Crimea, before ſhe conſents to a ſuſpenſion of arms during the negociations of peace with Turkey.

Warſaw, June 19. This whole Country is in a continued State of Agitation. The Confederates commit Hoſtilities every where, and their Number, inſtead of diminiſhing, ſeems daily to increaſe, and to gain Strength. A ſtriking Proof of this is their Acquiſition of M. Weſſel, the grand Treaſurer of the Crown, who, hitherto their Friend in private, has now formally entered himſelf a Member of their Body, and approves of all their Declarations. The general Confederacy hath appointed M. Czerni Envoy to the Porte, and he has ſet out for Conſtantinople.

Piſa, June 23. A Report prevails here, that the Emperor of Morocco hath declared War againſt the French; and that his Corſairs have already inſulted the Flag of that Nation.

Cologne, July 9. We are informed that a Courier arrived lately from Peterſburgh at Berlin with ſome Diſpatches, which were immediately ſent by Expreſs to the Court of Vienna, and to the Camp of the Grand Vizir: We are aſſured that theſe Diſpatches contain the laſt Anſwer of the Empreſs of Ruſſia relative to the Negotiation carrying on with the Porte.

Paris, July 5. We are aſſured that the Jeſuits and their Partizans, have offered two hundred Millions for Permiſſion to return to their Convents: It is added, that the Jews have alſo offered an hundred Millions for a Synagogue, and the Right of Citizens, at Paris; and that they alſo propoſe to purchaſe the fine Coliſeum, which the Diſtreſs of the Times hath rendered a Deſert. Many People, who are fearful of ſome further Operations in the Finances, prefer theſe two Methods of obtaining Money to that of having Recourſe to new Burthens on the people.

St. James's, July 10. This day the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, the Sheriffs, and the Common Council, with a Committee of the Livery, of the City of London, waited upon his Majeſty, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſhold, with the following Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition, which was read by Sir James Hodges, Town Clerk.

"To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY,

"The humble Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the City of London, in Common-Hall aſſembled.

"Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

"WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the City of London, in the Anguiſh of our Hearts, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, and deeply to lament that we ſtill ſuffer, together with many others, all thoſe great and unparallelled Grievances, which we have before ſubmitted to your Majeſty, with the Hope of a full and ſpeedy Redreſs from our Sovereign, as the Father of his People.

"The ſame arbitrary Houſe of Commons which violated the ſacred Right of Election, and ſeated among themſelves, as a Repreſentative of the People, a Man who was never choſen into Parliament, have, the laſt Seſſion, proceeded to the moſt extravagant Outrages againſt the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and the Liberty of the Subject, of which your Majeſty is by Law the Great Guardian. They have ventured to impriſon our Chief Magiſtrate, and one of our Aldermen, for diſobeying their illegal Orders, and not violating the holy Sanction of their Oaths to this great City, as well as their Duty to their Country. They have, by the moſt artful Suggeſtions, prevailed upon your Majeſty, to ſuffer your Royal Name to give a pretended Authority to a Proclamation, iſſued at their expreſs Deſire, contrary to the known Laws of the Land. At length they proceeded to the enormous Wickedneſs of eraſing a judicial Record, in order to ſtop the Courſe of Juſtice, and to fruſtrate all Poſſibility of Relief by an Appeal to thoſe Laws, which are the nobleſt Birthright and Inheritance of all the Subjects of this Realm.

"During the unjuſt Confinement of our Repreſentatives, they proceeded to a Law, depriving the Citizens of London of a conſiderable Part of their Property in the Soil of the River Thames, ſolemnly granted to them by divers Charters, and confirmed by the Authority of Parliament; and, under Colour of Equity, inſerted in that Law an unuſual ſaving Clauſe, ſubverſive of the known and eſtabliſhed Laws of Property; they have, without any Pretence of an Abuſe, ſuperſeded the Conſervancy of the River Thames, in the Liberty which the Citizens of London have enjoyed from the Conqueſt.

"We therefore, your Remonſtrants, again humbly ſupplicate your Majeſty to reſtore our Rights, and to give Peace to this diſtracted Nation, by a ſpeedy Diſſolution of Parliament, and by removing your preſent wicked and deſpotic Miniſters for ever from your Councils and Preſence.

(Signed by Order) JAMES HODGES."

To which Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition, his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

"I ſhall ever be ready to exert my Prerogative, as far as I can conſtitutionally, in redreſſing any real Grievances of my Subjects; and the City of London will always find me diſpoſed to liſten to any of their well-founded Complaints: It is, therefore, with Concern, that I ſee a Part of my Subjects ſtill ſo far miſled and deluded, as to renew, in ſuch reprehenſible Terms, a Requeſt, with which, I have repeatedly declared, I cannot comply."

LONDON.

July 9. A letter from Warſaw, June 19, ſays, "If we may give credit to letters from Vienna, Peterſburgh, and Berlin, thoſe Courts have jointly agreed on the means proper to be uſed for reſtoring tranquility to this unhappy kingdom."

Letters from Algiers mention, that the intended reinforcement for the ſervice of the Grand Signor has been laid aſide, by which it is believed that a peace is upon the point of being concluded between the Turks and Ruſſians.

July 11. Several councils have been held at Paris on the benefit and advantage of their conqueſt of Corſica, which has coſt, in ſoldiers and ſailors, 32,000 men, and 19,070,000 livres in money; it coſts ſince the departure of Paoli, all accounts balanced, 3,900,000 livres a year. The iſland does not bring in more than 1,800,000 livres, excluſive of the woods: It was thought that this article would have proved very advantageous, but as it is under the management of the King's undertakers for ſhip-building, the timber is brought to the docks 18 per cent. dearer than that imported from the North.

It is confidently aſſerted, that the T----y B---d have ſunk above 20,000l. within this month in ſecret ſervices.

Lord Rochford's memorial to the Court of Paris, reſpecting the Canada Paper Money, does the higheſt honour to the political ſentiments and ſpirit of that Nobleman.

It is ſaid that the letters received by the Eaſt India ſhips lately arrived, give an account that affairs remained in a peaceable ſituation when thoſe ſhips left India.

They write from Gibraltar, that the ſhips of a certain Northern Power have of late practiſed ſome unwarrantable acts in ſearching Engliſh merchant ſhips in the Mediterranean, under pretence of having Turkiſh property on board.

July 13. A letter from Naples of the 6th of June, ſays, "We expected that the eruptions of Mount Veſuvius, on the 27th paſt, would have ceaſed on a ſudden, the lava having then taken its courſe along the road of Ottajano, as far as a place called Ill Mauro; but ſince that day it is ſo conſiderable, that from the ſummit, down to the middle of the mountain, the whole is covered with aſhes as white as ſnow. This day a quantity of ſtones and enflamed matter iſſued from it with ſuch violence, that it is preſumed there is a freſh aperture, which ſpreads a conſternation among the inhabitants of the adjacent parts.

We are aſſured that the King, and not the Lord Chamberlain, read the Anſwer to the Remonſtrance on Wedneſday.

Mr. Wilkes being aſked to accompany the Lord Mayor on Wedneſday, replied, "I certainly will not; and I wonder, Sir, you can deſire me to do ſuch a thing, who know, that it has ever been the rule and ſtudy of my life to give his Majeſty no offence.

Yeſterday arrived a mail from New-York, which was brought by the Lord Hyde Packet, Capt. Goddard. She ſailed from New-York the 10th of June.

A Nobleman on Wedneſday aſked an Alderman at Court, what was the intention of the Citizens by their preſent viſit? To open the King's eyes, and let him ſee who are his enemies, anſwers the Alderman. I wonder, then, replies the Lord, that you left Mr. Wilkes behind you; for had he been here, you would have ſucceeded completely, and his Majeſty would have ſeen them all.

Extract of a Letter from Baſtia, July 13.

"The malecontents of this iſland are in great affliction ſince they have been informed, that a Frigate and a Chebec are immediately expected from Toulon, to embark all the natives who are in our priſons, and tranſport them to America."

They write from Peterſburgh, that the late terrible fires in that city, are ſolely attributed to the emiſſaries of a certain ſouthern court.

They write from Berlin, notwithſtanding all reports to the contrary, that his Pruſſian Majeſty has nothing leſs in view than any deſigns to interrupt the general tranquility of Europe.

They write from Cadiz, that ſeven ſhips of war have been lately diſarmed in that and other ports of Spain.

July 15. When Lord Sandwich was lately queſtioned about the impropriety of admitting the French Ambaſſador to ſee the ſtores at Portſmouth, he ſpiritedly replied, "I deſpiſe the pitiful policy of affecting to conceal our real ſituation from our enemies; they have been told by Lord Chatham that we were defenceleſs, and entirely at their mercy; I was therefore willing to let them ſee that we are ready for them at any time; and the ſight which they have ſeen, will probably ſave them the trouble of a new negociation."

Yeſterday evening their Excellencies the Imperial, Spaniſh, Pruſſian, Ruſſian, and Sardinian Ambaſſadors, had a long conference with the French Ambaſſador, at his houſe in Great George-ſtreet, Weſtminſter, ſaid to be on ſome recent advices from Verſailles.

*It is aſſerted, that in conſequence of an expoſtulation from the Crown of Spain, complaining of the continual viſits of the Britiſh ſhips of war in Cadiz Bay, which they repreſent come for money, contrary to the edict of their Sovereign, our Miniſtry have complied with their requeſt, and that no man of war whatſoever ſhall, on any account, without Admiralty orders, viſit any of the Spaniſh Ports. In conſequence of which, the Captain of the Alarm was tried by a Court Martial---*but honourably acquitted.---This valuable money trade is now loſt, from the M-----l compliance, and all gold and ſilver are now conveyed in French and Dutch bottoms.

The Albion man of war, of 74 guns, at Portſmouth, is fitting up for the reception of Rear Admiral Spry, who is to have the command of a ſquadron of eight ſhips, now fitting out at that port.

By the laſt letters from the Eaſt-Indies, advices have been received that the Marattoes are likely to be very troubleſome to the Company. A very large army of thoſe Warriors were within a few days march of Mongueer, in Bengal, inſiſting upon regularly receiving in future the chout, or quarter part of the revenue which the Company collect under the denomination of the Dewanny, together with all arrears, which they pretend are due upon the ſame account; and the Marattee Vaquel, or ambaſſador, had left Calcutta. Upon the coaſt of Coromandel they have likewiſe inſiſted upon receiving from the Governor and Council of Madraſs a categorical anſwer, whether they will take part with Hyder Ally, or declare in favour of their nation in the war now likely to rage with the greateſt fury againſt that Chief. The deciſion of this point is of a moſt delicate nature, for which ever of the contending powers receives the ſupport now required, the Company will ſupport an ambitious rival, and a dangerous neighbour. The natives, who have ſo frequently felt the miſeries conſequent on the incurſions of the Marattoes, are greatly alarmed, and the conſequences to our company will be very ſerious; for though we need not fear them as ſoldiers, yet the incurſions of their numerous Cavalry never fail of cauſing a total ſuſpenſion of the collection of the revenues, and the proviſion of the homeward inveſtment.---The Companies territories have been ſo drained of ſpecie, that from the three Preſidences of Bengal, Madraſs, and Bombay, they have already been neceſſitated to draw bills on the Direction for upwards of one million ſterling, and a very conſiderable ſum will be further wanted for next ſeaſon.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, July 9.

"Letters received here from Warſaw adviſe, that the declaration of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, made by M. de Salderen, her Ambaſſador to the Republic of Poland, for the re-eſtabliſhment of tranquility in that unhappy kingdom, hath yet had very little effect; and, according to appearances, her Imperial Majeſty's good intentions, as to that object, will not be crowned with ſucceſs. The Prince Primate, it is ſaid, has juſt taken off the maſk, and declared, that, in his opinion, Poland will never be tranquil and happy but under the government of a foreign Prince; and that he knows no one more proper for it than a Prince of the Electoral Houſe of Saxony, becauſe the Polanders, being accuſtomed to the dominion of that Houſe, will with difficulty ſubmit to any other, eſpecially to that of the preſent King, on account of his favouring the Diſſidents. But the moſt ſenſible part of the nation are not dupes of the Primate, but rather believe that he is influenced by the fair promiſes of the Empreſs Queen, to favour her beloved project of raiſing Prince Albert of Saxony, Duke of Teſchen, her ſon-in-law, to the Throne of Poland, in hopes of ſeeing a Crown on the head of the Princeſs, her favourite daughter."

It is ſaid ſome precedents have been found, where the Barons of the Exchequer have ſet aſide perſons who have been choſen to ſerve the office of Sheriff. The ſearching for ſuch precedents makes it be imagined, that there is an intention of uſing them, if poſſible, againſt Mr. Wilkes.

On Saturday laſt an expreſs arrived at the Admiralty, with the agreeable news of the arrival in the Downs of the Endeavour, Captain Cooke, from the Eaſt-Indies. This ſhip ſailed in Auguſt 1768, with Mr. Banks, Dr. Solander, Mr. Green, and other ingenious Gentlemen on board, for the South Seas, to obſerve the tranſit of Venus; they have ſince made a voyage round the world, and touched at every coaſt and iſland, where it was poſſible to get on ſhore, to collect every ſpecies of plants, and other rare productions in nature. Their voyage, upon the whole, has been as agreeable and ſucceſsful as they could have expected, except the death of Mr. Green, who died upon his paſſage from Batavia: Dr. Solander has been a good deal indiſpoſed, but it is hoped a few days refreſhment will ſoon eſtabliſh his health: Captain Cooke, and Mr. Banks, are perfectly well.

July 17. We are informed that ſome very diſagreeable diſpatches have lately been received from the Court of Madrid, which have occaſioned ſeveral conferences to be held with the Spaniſh Ambaſſador on the ſubject thereof.

The Earl of Chatham is expected at his houſe in Pall-Mall today, whence, it is ſaid, he will go to St. James's to wait on his Majeſty, purſuant to his deſire, whence various ſpeculations are formed among ſome of the moſt profound politicians.

Letters from Senegal mention that the Garriſon was very healthy, and that the Troops which lately went over with the Governor had not loſt one Man in the Paſſage.

By Captain FELLOWS, arrived at Boſton from London, we have theſe further Particulars, viz.

LONDON, July 17.

MONDAY ſome particular diſpatches were ſent off from Lord Hillſborough's office, for his Excellency Governor Tryon, at North-Carolina.

The meaſures adopted by the Miniſtry for making the American Governors independent of the province, ſeems very well calculated to ſecure the dominion of the Mother-country; while the Governors depended entirely upon the provincial aſſemblies for their ſalary, they were always ſlaves to the party preponderating, and were often led into conceſſions, not a little injurious to the ſupremacy of England: The removal of the cauſe therefore will naturally annihilate the effect, and we ſhall not make the guardians of our rights the unavoidable betrayers of our proſperity.

Yeſterday was held a court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen at Guildhall, when Meſſieurs Wilkes and Bull gave bond to ſerve the office of Sheriff.

The Earl of Dunmore, Captain Lawrence, who is arrived off Dover from New-York, compleated his voyage in two months and 27 days, from the Downs to New-York and back; the quickeſt paſſages that ever were known.

We are aſſured, that in leſs than a month the preliminary articles of peace will be ſigned between Ruſſia and the Porte.

General Paoli will certainly leave this kingdom before the end of next month, he having received a commiſſion from his Daniſh Majeſty, appointing him to a command in his ſervice.

July 20. It is remarkable that the Ruſſians alone have done more, this war, againſt the Turks, the grand enemy of Chriſtianity, than all the confederate Chriſtian powers in the famous cruſade; and if the brave Empreſs is not diverted from her purpoſe by ſome neighbouring Potentate, there is no doubt but ſhe will ſoon drive the proud infidel out of Europe.

Yeſterday a board of trade on colony affairs was held at the plantation office, at which the Earl of Hillſborough preſided.

Admiral Montagu, now commander in North-America, is appointed Rear Admiral of England, in the room of Admiral Holbourne, deceaſed.

It is expected that Admiral Montagu, a relation to Lord Sandwich, will be appointed Maſter of Greenwich Hoſpital, a place of conſiderable emolument, in the room of the late Admiral Holbourne.

Mr. Wilkes is very ſtill and cloſe at preſent, ſo that it is tho't he is making ſearches as well as my Lord Chancellor.

Several letters from the Levant mention the continued ſucceſſes of the Ruſſians over the Turks, ſo that the fate of Conſtantinople is expected to be known before Chriſtmas.

Advice is received, that three Spaniſh men of war lately fell in with 5 Algerine xebeques, within 20 leagues of Malaga, and, after a ſmart engagement, took three of them, ſunk the other two, and made for Cadiz with their prizes. Upon examining them, it appeared that they had been out on a cruiſe 5 weeks; and, during that time, had robbed ſeveral merchants ſhips of the moſt valuable parts of their cargoes. The three taken had on board a large quantity of French brandy and wines, which it is ſuppoſed they had taken out of ſome French ſhips. The letters further ſay, that, as the officers could produce no authority from the Dey of Algiers for committing ſuch hoſtilities, they will be dealt with by the Spaniards as pirates. Amongſt the common ſailors on board the xebeques were men of different nations, who had been made ſlaves, and, as they ſay, were forced into the ſervice.

It is ſaid that all the differences between the contending patriots are amicably ſettled.

Notwithſtanding the young King of Sweden has made the warmeſt profeſſions of friendſhip to our court, we are well aſſured, that ſome underhand negotiation is now carrying on between him and the court of France.

Orders were on Tueſday laſt ſent from the Admiralty office, to the commiſſioners of Chatham, Sheerneſs, Portſmouth, and Plymouth, for an immediate account to be tranſmitted of the number of frigates which are fit to be employed as cruizers, with their names, number of guns, &c.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Auguſt 26.

Laſt Week a Chief of the Oneida Indians arrived here from the Cherokee Country, attended by 5 or 6 of his own Countrymen, and about 20 Cherokees. He has been on an Embaſſy to the ſeveral Tribes on the Ohio, and ſays he has made a general Peace between the Engliſh and Indians, as far as the Chickeſaws. He has had ſeveral Conferences with his Honour the Governor in Council, and propoſes to embark in the firſt Veſſel for Philadelphia, in order to return to his own Country.

NEW-YORK, September 16.

The Purſe of 100l. was not run for at Flatbuſh, laſt Tueſday, as was advertiſed, only one Horſe, Mr. De Lancey's, appearing to ſtart for the ſame.

But the next Day, being Wedneſday the 12th, there was good running for the Purſe of 50l. which was won by Mr. Whitehead Cornell's black Horſe Steady (got by Old England) beating Mr. William Cornell's Mare Dove, Mr. Waters's Horſe Vitriol, Mr. Armſtrong's Horſe Hero, and Mr. Elſworth's Horſe Quickſilver.

The King Fiſher Sloop of War, arrived at Boſton, from England, has brought Prints as late as the 27th of July.

Yeſterday Captain Cobourn arrived here in a Sloop from Philadelphia; on Wednesday Morning last, in a hard Northweſt Wind, off Barnagat, he had the Misfortune to loſe his Maſt.

Captain Cobourn ſaw a Sloop on ſhore near the ſame Place, but could not diſcover who ſhe was.

PHILADELPHIA, September 19.

On the 12th Inſtant departed this Life RACHEL EMLEN, (the Wife of SAMUEL EMLEN) in the Sixty-fourth Year of her Age, after a lingering and tedious Indiſpoſition, which ſhe bore with ſuch Conſtancy and Reſignation, as rendered her the Admiration of all, whoſe Duty or Inclination led them to viſit her. In the Courſe of her Illneſs ſhe had frequently to expreſs her intire Satisfaction with the Will of her Maker, being abundantly convinced, that a Crown of Righteouſneſs is laid up in Store for thoſe whoſe full Confidence is in the Lord. Thus, after a long and well ſpent Life, in which ſhe honourably filled the Stations of an affectionate Wife, tender Parent, and charitable Citizen, ſhe bid adieu to the fading Enjoyments of this World.---Her Remains were interred on the 14th in Friends Burying Ground, attended by a reſpectable Number of Citizens.

On Wedneſday, the 11th Inſtant, departed this Life, in the Fifty-fourth Year of her Age (after four Days Sickneſs of the Bloody Flux) ANN, the Wife of ALEXANDER EDWARDS, Eſq; of this County. Her Death was attended with great Weeping and Sadneſs by her Friends and Relations, as well as by a great Number of poor People, who were ſenſible of their irretrievable Loſs---as ſhe was wont frequently to beſtow charitably upon them at Times, when Poverty would have been the Cauſe of their great Diſtreſs, had they not been provided with ſuch a benevolent Friend.

Extract of a Letter from Leiceſter, June 14, 1771.

"The Silk of your Manufacture I exhibited to the beſt Judges in London, and they unanimouſly pronounced it equal to any, except China. There wants no Improvement in it---there wants only Quantity. I am now manufacturing it into Stockings."

Extract of a Letter from London, July 13.

"You will have heard of the Fate of the Lord Mayor and Aldermens Remonſtrance to the King, which was ſuch a one as might reaſonably have been expected. The Court ſeems determined to purſue its old Syſtem of Politics, and what Wonder, when the Oppoſition is reduced to ſo paltry a Sett of Men as Wilkes and his Partizans! Much Clamour has been raiſed againſt Lord North for making a Biſhop of his Brother, who, it ſeems, will not be 30 Years of Age before the 20th of this Month, and conſequently cannot cannonically be conſecrated. Mr. North is appointed to the rich See of Litchfield and Coventry----has kiſſed Hands upon his Appointment---but is not to be conſecrated till after the 20th of July."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, dated July 16.

"I have juſt been looking over the Tranſactions of your American Philoſophical Society. They are much ſought after by the Literati in London, many of whom have declared that they will do you great Honour."

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated Auguſt 25, 1771.

"Captain Wilkinſon arrived here a few Days ago from Tobago, by whom we learn, that about 3 Weeks before, the Coromantee Negroes, belonging to Mr. Henry Fowkes's Plantation at Bloody Bay in Tobago, who had been run away ſome Time, joined with other Runaways, to the Number of 50 or 60, and came to the Plantation, with an Intention to deſtroy 12 Negroes, belonging to Mr. Fowkes, then on the Place, who had gone off with the reſt, but left them, and returned to their Maſter. There were only two Soldiers on the Plantation, who defended themſelves for ſome Time, and killed one of the Ringleaders, but at laſt were obliged to retreat, and the Negroes, who were the Objects of their Reſentment, happily eſcaped, and got to a Place of Safety; at which the Rebels were ſo exaſperated, that out of Revenge they burnt every Houſe and Hutt on the Plantation. They then attacked and plundered Mr. Oley's Plantation at Parlahevier Bay, and Mr. Townſend's, at Little Engliſhman's Bay. Captain Ferguſon, Commander of the Troops at Tobago, who has a Plantation at Caſtara Bay, in the Neighbourhood of the Bays above mentioned, having Intelligence of theſe Outrages, marched with 12 Soldiers thro' the Heart of the Iſland, from Barbados Bay to a Place in the Mountains, on the North-ſide, ſeemingly inacceſſible, where the Inſurgents had built Houſes, and, with great Difficulty, getting to the Top of the Eminence, where they were poſted with Fire-arms, ready to receive him, he attacked them with great Bravery, and, after a ſtout Reſiſtance for ſome Time, put them to Flight. In this Attack a Serjeant was killed, and a private Man wounded. Several of the Negroes were killed, and many wounded. The Captain then ſearched their Houſes, and found them extremely well ſtored with Proviſions, Clothes, and other Neceſſaries. Every Thing that he could not carry away he burnt. The Rebels are now quite diſperſed, and two ſtrong Parties out to ſcour the Woods, one under the Command of Captain Ferguſon, and the other under that of Captain Phipps, both brave and active Officers, who, it is not doubted, will be able ſoon to put an End to the preſent Rebellion, and the Gentlemen of the Iſland will take ſuch Meaſures as will prevent the like for the future.

"From the beſt Intelligence I can collect, Tobago will certainly become a Sugar Iſland of the firſt Importance; the Soil is reckoned extremely rich indeed, and produces the moſt luxuriant Canes imaginable; they have had fine Seaſons there, and the Planters can now think of nothing but Mountains of Sugars, and Rivers of Rum."

On Thurſday laſt his Excellency the Right Hon. the Earl of DUNMORE arrived here from New-York; and on Sunday Morning ſet out for his Government of Virginia.

Captain Young, from London, on the 13th of laſt Month, in Lat. 45: 40, ſpoke the Brig Peggy, Captain Matthews, from the Grenades for London; the next Day ſpoke a Brig from Virginia for Liverpool; 15th, in Lat. 44, ſpoke a Ship from Charleſtown for Leith; 24th, in Lat. 38: 46, ſpoke a Ship from Virginia for London; 27th, in Lat. 38: 51, ſpoke the Snow Charlotte, Captain Curtis, from Philadelphia for Waterford, 11 Days out; on the firſt Inſtant, in Lat. 37: 42, ſpoke the Ship Britannia, Captain Smith, from Antigua for Caſco-Bay, out 14 Days; and the next Day he ſpoke a Ship from Virginia for Glaſgow, all well.

Captain Sparks, from London, ſpoke the Brig Leiſure Hour, Captain Thompſon, from Providence for London in the Downs, out 42 Days, all well; on the 6th Inſtant, in Lat. 40: 23, ſpoke a Brig from Boſton for Barbados; and on the 10th, in Lat. 38: 31, he ſpoke the Schooner Sally, Captain Benſon, from New-York for Barbados, out 3 Days.

Captain Simmonds, from Barbados, on the 5th Inſtant, in Lat. 35, Long. 66, ſpoke the Brig New Speedwell, Capt. Gamble, from this Port for Jamaica, 9 Days out; and on the 14th, in Lat. 37, Long. 73, he ſpoke a Brig, Capt. Henderſon, from Jamaica for Baltimore, out 28 Days, all well.

Captain Aſkey, in 5 Weeks from the Bay of Honduras, informs, that a Sloop from New-York arrived there juſt before he ſailed; that he left in the Bay, the Captains Robinſon and Hawke, both for this Place, the former almoſt ready for ſailing; and a Snow, Captain Stevenſon, belonging to New-York. On the 4th Inſtant, in Lat. 32, Long. 76, he ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Mulbone, belonging to Rhode-Iſland, bound from Georgia for Cape-Nichola, all well.

Captain Alliſon, from Jamaica, on the 26th ult. on the North Side of Cuba, ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Johnſon, from Kingſton for Norfolk, 10 Days out; and on the 5th Inſtant, off Cape-Hatteras, he ſpoke a Sloop from Ocracock for Barbados, out one Day, all well.

By Captain Laing, from North-Carolina, we learn, that laſt Thurſday a Sloop, bound from Georgia for this Port, endeavouring to get into Chincoteague, ſtruck on the Bar, and as the Wind blew very hard, and the Sea ran high, it is feared the Veſſel is loſt.

Tueſday laſt the Ship Minerva, Captain Arnott, arrived here from Rotterdam with Palatines.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, of the County of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for the Reſpect you have ſhewn me, by electing me one of your Repreſentatives in the General Aſſembly of this Province for ſeveral Years paſt; and as it will by no Means ſuit me to be continued in that Station, I deſire you will chooſe ſome other Perſon at the next Election, in the Place of your ſincere Friend,

¶ ROWLAND EVANS.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, of the County of BUCKS.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my moſt ſincere and grateful Thanks, for the Honour you were pleaſed to confer upon me, in chuſing me one of your Repreſentatives in Aſſembly for ſeveral Years paſt, but as the State of my private Buſineſs too much interferes for me to diſcharge ſo important a Truſt, I earneſtly beg that you will be pleaſed to chooſe ſome other Perſon in my Stead, at the enſuing Election, which will greatly oblige your faithful Friend, and very humble Servant, PETER SHEPHERD. ¶

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for the County and Borough of CHESTER.

WHEREAS you have choſe me one of your Repreſentatives for ſome Years paſt, and the Time for your annual Election approaching, I think it neceſſary to acquaint you, that I cannot conveniently attend that Service longer; therefore, I requeſt you will leave out my Name, at the enſuing Election, and you will much oblige your aſſured Friend,

† JOHN MINSHALL.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for the Honour you did me the laſt Year, in voting me on the Return for Coroners, and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the ſaid Office at the enſuing Election, I beg the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt, which ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by, GENTLEMEN,

Your obliged Friend, and humble Servant,
CALEB CASH, Coroner.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, of the County of NEW-CASTLE.

GENTLEMEN,

BEING encouraged by my Friends, to offer myſelf a Candidate, to be on the Return with Mr. Duff, for the Sheriff's Office; I take this public Method to ſolicit your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election; your Favours, and Friendſhip, will be ſincerely acknowledged, with the warmeſt Gratitude, by

To be SOLD by the SUBSCRIBER,

Altogether, or divided into 2 or 3 parts, to ſuit the purchaſers,

THE large and pleaſant ſituated farm, called Cornwall, on which he now lives, in the townſhip of Alexandria, and county of Hunterdon, in the province of Weſt New-Jerſey, containing about 680 acres of land, about 400 of which are cleared, and laid into regular fields, the reſt well timbered; there is on ſaid farm a handſome ſtone houſe, two ſtories high, with a piazza in front, and two wings, the one a kitchen, the other lodging rooms, a well built ſhingled barn, two old orchards, and one large young orchard, of 400 apple trees, beginning to bear, chiefly grafted fruit, about 40 acres of Engliſh meadow, ſituated along the front of the houſe, great part of which is watered by ſeveral fine ſprings, about 15 or 20 acres more may be made; the fields are all well watered by living ſprings, the houſe pleaſantly ſituated on an eminence, nearly in the middle of the farm, and ſo conveniently, that the meadow, and all the fields, may be ſeen in one view from the door; there is an Engliſh church at about half a mile diſtance from, and in view of the houſe; it alſo lies very convenient to ſeveral mills and ſtores, Pitts-town being on one ſide, about one mile and half diſtance, where there are two griſt-mills, a fulling-mill and ſaw-mill, and a large well aſſorted ſtore; and on the other ſide, about two miles diſtance, is another mill; it is alſo about 5 miles from the town of Alexandria, adjoining the river Delaware, which is about 42 miles from Philadelphia, from whence all goods and produce are conveniently brought and carried by water. On the whole, it is a well ſituated farm or ſeat, for any gentleman that inclines to purchaſe and live in that part of the country. Whoever wants to purchaſe ſaid farm, may apply to the ſubſcriber, living on the premiſes, who will diſpoſe of it on very eaſy terms of yearly payments, giving 4 or 5 years to pay the whole (if required) paying intereſt.---There is a good ſtock of cattle, horſes and ſheep, with a compleat ſett of farming utenſils on ſaid farm, which the purchaſer may alſo have at a reaſonable rate with the farm.

He has alſo to ſell, about 800 acres of good land on Paulinskill, in Suſſex county, New-Jerſey, divided into farms, now on rent; this tract is ſome of the beſt land in the county, and exceedingly well calculated for the keeping of ſtock of all kinds, as there is a large quantity of meadow already brought into Engliſh graſs, and convenient outlets to a fine range; it is ſituated about 4 miles from the Court-houſe in that county, and 9 miles from the Andover Iron-works. The ſame eaſy terms of payment will be given to the purchaſer of this tract, as mentioned for the aforeſaid farm, and an indiſputable title given to the purchaſers of the whole, by LEWIS STEVENS. 3M

WHEREAS Hugh Gilleland, of Hanover townſhip, in the county of Lancaſter, did, ſome time paſt, ſell unto me, the ſubſcriber, a certain plantation, ſituate in the ſaid townſhip of Hanover, adjoining Lands of John Glen, Daniel Leedy, and others, containing 117 acres, for the ſum of £ 343, upon which I paid him £ 30, and gave ſeven bonds for the remainder, in the manner following; one bond for 70l. not ſure when due; another bond for 20l. due May 1, 1773; another bond for 25l. due May 1, 1774; another bond for 25l. due May 1, 1775; another bond for 25l. due May 1, 1776; another bond for 25l. due May 1, 1777; another bond for 23l. due May 1, 1778. And whereas the ſaid Hugh Gilleland hath hitherto neglected to make me a good title to the ſaid land, according to our agreement, neither doth it appear that he is able ſo to do; theſe are therefore to forewarn all perſons whatever, from buying or taking aſſignments of the ſaid bonds, or any of them, as I am determined not to pay the ſame, until the ſaid Gilleland hath made me a good title, or until I ſhall be thereto compelled by due courſe of law.

Sept. 13, 1771. PETER WALLMER. ¶

WHEREAS HANNAH, the wife of the ſubſcriber, did, on the 11th day of this inſtant September, 1771, without my conſent, elope from me; theſe are therefore to forbid all perſons to truſt her on my account, for I will pay no debts of her contracting after this date; and all perſons are forbid paying to her any money that is now due to me, or ſhall hereafter become due for rent, or otherwiſe. §

SILVANUS TOWNSEND, junior, of Cape-May.

TO BE SOLD,

A VALUABLE plantation and tract of land, ſituate in the townſhip of Greenwich, and county of Glouceſter, in Weſt New-Jerſey, lying on the great road from Glouceſter to Cape-May, near a place called the Lake, late the eſtate of George Miller, deceaſed, and where he formerly kept a public houſe, containing about 487 acres, about one third part whereof is excellent meadow ground, the remainder good upland, well timbered, about 50 acres of which is cleared, and within good fence; whereon there is an orchard, and a good dwelling-houſe, with a well of good water near the ſame, a good barn, ſtables, and other out-houſes, all in good repair. The ſaid plantation will be very ſuitable for any perſon that inclines to follow raiſing of cattle, and grazing, by reaſon of the great quantity of meadow that may be made thereon; and the vaſt outlet, or range for cattle, which it affords, as it is but thinly ſettled thereabouts. Any perſon inclining to purchaſe the ſaid premiſes, may know the terms, by applying to JOSEPH MATHER, in Germantown townſhip, in the county of Philadelphia; WILLIAM HUGG, in Glouceſter; or JOHN BEASLEY, at Alloway's Creek, in Salem county, Weſt New-Jerſey. §

Glouceſter county, New-Jerſey, Sept. 16, 1771.

JAMES MAFFETT, being under confinement in the goal of the ſaid county for debt, hereby gives notice, that he gives up all his goods and chattels to his creditors, and has applied to the next ſeſſion of General Aſſembly of the ſaid province for relief, of which all perſons are hereby to take due notice.

JAMES MAFFETT. ¶

TWENTY SHILLINGS REWARD.

RUN away laſt night, from the ſubſcriber, living in Eaſttown, Cheſter county, Pennſylvania, an Iriſh ſervant man, named Nathaniel Anſter, about 5 feet 7 inches high, ſandy complexion, ſhort buſhy hair, 30 years of age, ſpeaks on the Iriſh dialect, and much inclined to ſtrong drink; he has been in this country above 4 years, and ran away twice before, for which he was adjudged by the Court to ſerve one year and ſeven months longer; he may ſhew his maſter's part of his firſt indenture as a paſs, the term therein mentioned being expired; had on, when he went away, a good felt hat, an old ſtriped blanket coat, torn down the back, a homeſpun ſhirt and trowſers, a good pair of ſhoes and buckles; the day before he ran away, he was detected in ſtealing money, which is ſuppoſed to be the cauſe of his going off at this time; he may change his name and clothes, if any lies in his way, having a natural propenſity to ſteal. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by September 13, 1771. ¶ ISAAC WAYNE.

SIX DOLLARS Reward.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, living in Weſt-Pennſborough townſhip, Cumberland county, a ſervant man, named John Ewing, about 25 years of age, about 5 feet 10 inches high; had on, when he went away, a blue coat and jacket, with metal buttons, and white lining, red breeches, blue yarn ſtockings, and old ſhoes, with iron buckles; he ſerved his time before in Paxton townſhip, Lancaſter county, and has his indentures with him, and a paſs, ſigned by Colonel Burd; he alſo is ſuppoſed to have taken with him a fur hat, and one new felt ditto; he went down towards Lancaſter. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, in any of his Majeſty's goals, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by

ANDREW MILLER.

N. B. Said Ewing has his hair tied, and is very thin faced, and long viſaged, and went off the 8th of September inſt. ‡

TO BE SOLD,

A VALUABLE plantation, in Upper Makefield townſhip, in the county of Bucks, about 9 miles from Tre ton, containing 450 acres, and upwards, adjoining the river Delaware a mile or more, 200 acres of cleared land or more, 130 acres thereof low land, 30 acres of meadow, and a great quantity more may be made; likewiſe a good dwelling-houſe, or rather two dwelling-houſes, a very good barn, and other convenient buildings, a well of excellent water near the door; alſo two valuable orchards; the woodland well timbered, a large ſwamp of excellent timber, ſuch as walnut, maple, and ſweet gum, &c. The title indiſputable; late the eſtate of Joſeph Knowles, deceaſed; to be ſold by THOMAS PHILIPS.

N. B. One third of the purchaſe money to be paid down, time will be given for the remainder. ¶

Cheſter County, September 10, 1771.

CARRIED away in a miſtake, or ſtolen out of the ſtore of George Adams, at Chriſtiana, a large Iriſh ſack, full of clothes, ſuch as one light blue coat, half-worn, one light coloured unlined ratteen coat and veſt, eight old ſhirts, one pair of blankets, two old coats, two old waiſtcoats, with ſundry other things, ſome of which the ſubſcriber cannot now remember. Any perſon who may have carried away ſaid ſack, is deſired immediately to return the ſame, either to the place from whence taken, or elſe to the widow Cummings, of Weſt-Nottingham, where no queſtion ſhall be aſked further about them; if any perſon who may have the above clothes ſhould be wicked enough to conceal them, the ſubſcriber, who came lately from Ireland on board the Kitty and Peggy, Captain Ferguſon, hopes that ſome of his ſhipmates, who are acquainted with and know ſaid clothes, will take notice and detect any perſon that may have them, for which they ſhall be handſomely rewarded, by

SAMUEL MOORE. §

By the Captains Scott, and Chambers, arrived at Boſton, and Captain Depyſter, arrived at New-York from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

V E N I C E, June 19.

NOTWITHSTANDING our Hopes of an Accommodation between the Turks and Ruſſians, Hoſtilities ſtill continue. According to our laſt Letters from the Levant, the Ruſſians have debarqued a Number of Troops at the Iſland of Tenedos, ſituate to the South Eaſt of Lemnos, in order to lay Siege to the Caſtle which defends the Port, which is very proper to favour their projected Enterprize againſt the Dardanelles, from whence this Place is but a few Leagues diſtant. This News is confirmed by Letters from Otranto.

Rome, June 29. Laſt Week a Courier arrived here with Advice that the Ruſſians had made themſelves Maſters of Raguſa.

Warſaw, July 2. A Courier, juſt arrived from Moldavia, has brought the following Intelligence:

The Turks, under the Command of Mouſſon Oughil, paſſed the Danube the 9th of June, in Number 18,000, in three Bodies, two of which afterwards joining, attacked Gen. Potemkin, who was beſieging Fort Turno, oppoſite Nicopolis: That General, however, having been informed of their Deſign, advanced towards them, diſperſed them, ſeized their Cannon, and forced them to retire towards Viddin. The other Turkiſh Corps was more ſucceſsful; they ſat down before Fort Giurgova, and after ſeveral Attacks for three Days, the Ruſſian Commandant, named Henckel, capitulated on the 14th of June, when he was allowed to march out with all the Honours of War, but leaving ſixty-four Pieces of Cannon behind.

Prince Repnin hearing of the Attack, marched to the Aſſiſtance of the Ruſſians, but arrived three Hours after the Capitulation. However, he has inveſted the Place, and promiſes to get Poſſeſſion of it in 15 Days.

The Ruſſian Commandant, with all his Officers, were put by Prince Repnin under an Arreſt.

The 7th of March laſt, the taking this Place coſt the Ruſſians 1000 Men.

Warſaw, July 3. We learn this Moment, from Buchareſt and Cronſtadt, the important News that the Pacha, encouraged by the Retaking of Giurgova, having paſſed the Danube with 60,000 Turks, attacked on the 22d of laſt Month, between the ſaid Place and Buchareſt, Prince Repnin, who had under him only 30,000 Men; that the Engagement was bloody and obſtinate; but that, after laſting 5 Hours, Victory declared in Favour of the Ruſſians. The Turks loſt in this Action three Agas, 1500 Men, and 100 Pieces of Canxon; 5000 were made Priſoners, without counting the Trophies taken by the Ruſſian Hunters in the Purſuit; and a Number who were drowned in the Danube.

Peterſburgh, July 5. The Court has this day received the important news, that Prince Dolgorucki arrived the 23d of laſt month before Precop, at the head of the Second Imperial army, and that on the 25th of the ſame month, at ſix o' clock in the morning, he had happily ſucceeded in forcing the lines at the firſt attack, notwithſtanding they were defended by the fortreſs of that name, and guarded by an army compoſed, according to the report of the priſoners, of 50,000 Tartars, and 7000 Turks, which the Khan Selim Girey commanded in perſon. The attack began at two in the morning. As ſoon as the ſignal was given for the attack, our troops began it with an aſtoniſhing ardour and impetuoſity. The Khan at firſt oppoſed the efforts of our left wing in perſon, but not being able to withſtand the bravery of our troops, he turned off towards our right wing, in hopes by his preſence to encourage his troops, which he found ranged in order of battle, to do their duty; but all this was to no purpoſe; he was obliged to give way to the courage of our troops, and ſeek his ſafety with his men by a ſhameful flight. The counterſcarp of the ditch, which our troops climbed over with an amazing intrepidity, in preſence of an army of 60,000 men, was ſix fathom and a half high; the ſcarp was thirteen, and the ditch eight fathom in breadth. We had not one officer killed, and only four wounded; the number of ſubaltern officers and ſoldiers, killed or wounded, amounts to 100, which is a very inconſiderable loſs, conſidering the importance of the advantage gained on that glorious day. Our trophies conſiſt in 40 pieces of cannon taken from the enemy, and a great quantity of powder and ball.

St. James's, July 20. The King has been pleaſed to appoint Charles Proby, Eſq; to be Comptroller of the Victuallers Accounts of his Majeſty's Navy, in the Room of Robert Oſborn, Eſq; deceaſed.

July 23. His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint William Leyborne, Eſq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Iſlands of Grenada, the Grenadines, St. Vincent, and Tobago, in America, he this Day in Council took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governors of his Majeſty's Plantations.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Sir John Bentley to be Governor of Greenwich Hoſpital, in the room of Francis Holburne, Eſq; deceaſed.

A Grant alſo paſſed the Great Seal to Charles Proby, Eſq; to rank as a principal Officer of the Navy; and alſo of the Office of Comptroller of the Victuallers Accounts of his Majeſty's Navy, with a Salary of 500l. per Ann. payable quarterly.

L O N D O N, July 20.

They write from Jerſey, that ſcarce one third of the Fiſhermen have gone out this ſeaſon to the Banks of Newfoundland as did laſt year; on the other hand, the number of French ſhips ſailed for that place, is near double to that of laſt year.

During Lord Halifax's reſidence in Ireland, the ſalary of the Lord Lieutenant was (by his intereſt) raiſed from 12,000l. to 17,000l. per annum, which, however, he would not accept for himſelf, but politely thanked government for their attention to his ſucceſſors.

Wedneſday his Majeſty's Firſt Regiment of Guards began to learn the new exerciſe which Lord Cornwallis has introduced into the thirty-third regiment, which is eſteemed the beſt diſciplined in the army.

When his Majeſty reviewed Lord Cornwallis's regiment laſt week at Blackheath, he was ſo pleaſed with the fine appearance of the men, and the dexterity as well as readineſs with which they performed ſome new evolutions and manœuvres, lately introduced by their Colonel, that he expreſſed a deſire to ſee them go through their exerciſe again; and accordingly did them the ſingular honour to review them a ſecond time yeſterday morning in Hyde-Park.

Extract of a Letter from Plymouth, July 9.

"On Wedneſday arrived here the Aſia Man of War, from Portſmouth. The next Day ſailed the Torbay Man of War, with Admiral Spry on board, for America, with the Somerſet, Intrepid, Aſia, Lenox, Royal Oak, the Glory, Tartar, and Thames Frigates, under his Command."

The Sentence of our Court Martial at Minorca on Lord George Lenox, is ſaid to be to this Effect, viz. That he do make a public Submiſſion to General Moyſtyn, the Governor, for his improper Conduct to him, and that the ſame be entered in the public Orders. The latter Part of the Sentence, we hear his Majeſty has been pleaſed to remit, and that the Submiſſion be made to the General, in the Preſence of the Field Officers only.

The Foundations of this Court Martial, we hear, was a Letter from Lord George to the General, in which were contained ſome oblique Inſinuations relative to the Conduct of the General.

July 22. Ruſſia, emboldened by her late numerous ſucceſſes over the Turks, and particularly thoſe on the banks of the Danube, &c. has grown very haughty in her conventions with the Porte about a peace. It is now inſiſted on, on the ſide of Ruſſia, that in caſe of a ceſſation of arms, all the immenſe tracts of land, and conſequently all the navigation, north of the Black Sea, ſhall be immediately ceded to her.

The Knights who will be inſtalled in perſon at the enſuing Inſtallation, are, the Prince of Wales, the Biſhop of Oſnaburgh, the Duke of Cumberland, the Dukes of Marlborough and Grafton, the Earl of Albemarle, and Earl Gower.

Mr. Alderman Townſend ſat yeſterday as Juſtice for Mr. Alderman Wilkes, at Guildhall. A good Sign. And it is ſaid that all the differences between the contending Patriots are amicably ſettled.

Wedneſday ſeveral papers were ſcattered through the neighbourhood of St. James's, bearing only theſe words: To your tents, O Iſrael! Bind your Nobles in chains, and your Princes in fetters of iron. They were diſperſed by a man who appeared diſordered in his ſenſes, and ſeemed no leſs a religious than a political enthuſiaſt.

July 23. We hear from the Levant, that the Ruſſian fleet has above one half of the hands on board from different countries, moſt of whom, except the Iriſh and Scots (of whom there is a conſiderable number) diſcover an averſion to act [but] upon the offenſive, ſo that it is thought the Dardanelles will not be attacked this ſeaſon.

It was on Saturday reported upon Change, that a very great miſunderſtanding had happened between the King of Pruſſia and States General; the particulars of which, authenticated, are hourly expected.

Since the Arrival of the Earl of B--e Betts are greatly in Favour of the preſent Miniſtry, as Harmony and conciliating Meaſures are ſtrongly recommended to them.

We hear from Plymouth, that Adm. Spry's fleet was driven by contrary Winds 70 leagues to the weſtward, and is now lying in Torbay. The Admiral dropped down in an apoplectic fit, and has been dangerouſly ill ever ſince; but there is now great hope of his recovery.

A ſhip is lately arrived from Miſſiſippi with a cargoe of furs, amounting to near 30,000 l. She is the firſt Engliſh veſſel which ever came from that part of the world, and makes ſo very favourable a report of the country, that ſeveral Boards of Trade have been held, in which the propriety of eſtabliſhing a government there, has, we hear, been abſolutely determined upon by the Commiſſioners.

On Friday Mr. Moore made an experiment with his new conſtructed coach. He has hung the body, which is like that of a common coach reverſed, between two large wheels, nine feet ſix inches in the diameter, and draws it with a horſe in ſhafts. The paſſengers ſit ſideways within, and the driver is placed on the top of the coach. Eight perſons were drawn in this carriage on Friday night with great eaſe, by a ſingle horſe.

Mr. Moore's new invented coach, drawn by one horſe, and on the ſame principles with his cart, went to Highgate laſt Saturday in 40 minutes, with ſix perſons in it. The paſſengers get in and out behind the coach.

We hear from Cornhill, in Northumberland, of a very melancholy death lately in that neighbourhood. Colonel Max--ll, being indiſpoſed, was waited upon by ſome friends who, upon entering his houſe, were alarmed by the ſervants informing them, they had juſt heard a report like that of a piſtol from his chamber; whereupon one of the gentlemen, a clergyman, immediately ſtepping to his room, found him weltering in his blood, with a ſword in his hand, and a blunderbuſs lying on the floor, with which he had ſhot himſelf.

Among the tranſports conveyed on Wedneſday morning from Newgate on board the ſhip deſtined to carry them to America, were the two Kennedies.

A remarkable circumſtance happened at the fire which broke out on Saturday in Great St. Andrew-ſtreet, Seven-dials. A woman, who was a lodger, had lately been brought to bed of three children, all of whom ſhe let down in her apron, and then jumped into a blanket, held by ten men, and both mother and children eſcaped unhurt.

The Annapolis Royal, Vibert, took fire at ſea: The Crew were ſaved by a veſſel belonging to Briſtol: but the ſhip and cargoe are entirely loſt.

The Diſpute between Horne and Wilkes ſeems to have ſubſided; the Papers hint that while Horne was writing his 13th Letter to Mr. Wilkes, he received a Blow from Junius, that brought on a Mortification, which ſo rapidly attacked his noble parts, that he politically expired in great agonies of mind on Monday, July 8.

To Meſſrs. WILKES and HORNE.

Says John Wilkes to John Horne, "You're a very ſad Dog;"
Says John Horne to John Wilkes, "You're a very great Rogue;"
---We all are convinced, by the Letters you write,
That you both have ſpoke Truth, that you're both in the Right.

The Parliament is further prorogued till the Firſt of October next.

Two married Ladies, who have lately made ſome Noiſe in the World, have taken Lodgings at Windſor at the Price of 50 Guineas for 3 Days.

A Cornchandler, not many Miles from the Royal Exchange, paid no leſs than 50 Guineas for 4 Tickets to admit himſelf, his Wife, and two Daughters, in the Hall at Windſor.

We hear that Lord Camden had a very genteel Invitation, by the Requeſt of a Great Perſonage, to be preſent at the Inſtallation.

The Road from Hyde-Park Corner to Windſor was lined, or rather ſtrewed, with drunken Soldiers, on Tueſday laſt, lying, inſtead of ſtanding, under Arms; it is ſaid they were a Detachment of his Majeſty's Guards, on their March to Windſor, for the Preſervation of Peace and good Order, during the Inſtallation.

Mr. Wilkes we hear has received a very polite Invitation from Lord T----e to ſpend a few Days next Month, at his Seat at Stowe, in Buckinghamſhire.

July 25. We hear from Hayes, in Kent, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham is not ſo dangerouſly ill as has been repreſented.

A poor Woman, big with Child, went to Mr. Wilkes at Rocheſter, and deſired the Honour to ſalute him, which was complied with; and on Mr. Wilkes's wiſhing the Child might prove a Boy, the Woman declared, if it did, it ſhould be named Croſby Wilkes, in Honour of ſuch good and noble Patriots.

July 26. We are aſſured that the Inſtallation will coſt his Majeſty at leaſt Forty Thouſand Pounds.

The Inſtallation of the Knights of the Garter, Nine in Number, at Windſor, on Thurſday, the 25th of July, was very brilliant; it is ſaid that a brighter Blaze had not been kindled ſince the Days of old Edward the Third. There was a very grand Levee.---The Proviſion for Dinner was for one Thouſand Perſons. Two Waggon Load of Gold and other Plate were carried from the Jewel Office. All the King's Linen was carried from St. James's, ſo that there was not a Change left for the Table at St. James's. Two Waggon Load of Oil and Spice were carried from the Spicery. Five Waggons Load of China, excluſive of Glaſs, were carried. Lord Pomfret was appointed his Majeſty's Carver at Dinner.

Wedneſday an Expreſs was ſent off from the Earl of Hillſborough's Office, for his Excellency the Governor of North-Carolina.

Letters from Leghorn mention, that all the Raguſan ſhips in that port are diſarmed and laid up, leſt they ſhould fall into the hands of the Ruſſians.

It is not true, as has been reported, that ſhips are ordered to be fitted out for importing timber from America.

We are aſſured, from good authority, that there is now caſting at one Foundery in London, 150 tons of Cannon Balls, for Spain; and Agents are alſo buying up all the old balls they can meet with, for the ſame kingdom; a great quantity lies now ready at a certain wharff, to be ſhipped immediately.

July 27. His Majeſty's Ship the Endeavour, which is lately arrived in the River from the Eaſt-Indies (where ſhe has been with the three Aſtronomers on the Tranſit of Venus, &c.) loſt, by the Unhealthfulneſs of the Climate, 70 of her Hands, though they were picked Men, and had been ſeveral Times in the Indies. However, thoſe that ſurvive, will have made their Fortunes by Traffic, having brought home ſome of the richeſt Goods made in the Eaſt, which they are ſuffered to diſpoſe of without the Inſpection of Cuſtom-houſe Officers. This, our Correſpondent ſays, is allowed them, as a Reward for their hard and dangerous Services, during a Voyage of three Years.

We learn by the Endeavour, from the South-Seas, that they diſcovered a ſouthern Continent, in the Latitude of the Dutch Spice Iſlands; that the People were hoſpitable, ingenious, and civil, of a Copper Complexion, but handſome, and well made. Mr. Banks paſſed ſome Months amongſt them; and though theſe People were ſo politely civilized, it is very extraordinary that they have no Kind of Worſhip or Religion amongſt them. Two of the Natives came voluntarily with Mr. Banks, but died of the Flux at Batavia. From this Voyage we expect many Diſcoveries, and much Entertainment. They had an excellent Obſervation of the Tranſit of Venus; but the ingenious Mr. Green died upon his Return. Upon their Arrival, the Admiralty ſeized all the Officers Papers. In Conſequence of this Diſcovery, more Ships will be deſtined in Search of this new terreſtrial Acquiſition; and it is to be hoped the Miniſtry will ſelect Men with Heads, as well as Hearts, to accompliſh ſuch a Voyage.

Dr. Solander, and the other Gentlemen, who lately ſailed round the World in the Endeavour Frigate, ſpent 4 Months at George's Land, and the new diſcovered Iſlands. They learnt the Language there, and two of the Natives came with them to Batavia, where they were carried off by Sickneſs, together with many of the Crew, &c. The above Gentleman likewiſe touched at a great many other Iſlands, not known to any other Europeans, but which have plenty of Inhabitants; and they brought over with them a great Number of different Species of Plants, moſt of which were never known in Europe before.

A Letter from Paris, dated the 18th Inſtant, ſays, "It is this Moment the Report of the whole Town, that laſt Night, a little before Twelve, the Chancellor Beaubeon was ſhot at in his Carriage, as it was turning the Corner of the Rue de Louis le Grande. The Place is in an Uproar about this alarming Incident, and the Lieutenant de Police has been ſent for to Verſailles."

At a Meeting of the Supporters of the Bill of Rights at the London Tavern, July 23, 1771, it was reſolved, That a Number of Articles be drawn up, to be ſubmitted to the Electors of Great-Britain, which Articles the Candidates for Repreſentatives ſhould on Oath bind themſelves to perform---the following are two of the Articles, viz.

10. You ſhall attend to the Grievances of our Fellow Subjects in Ireland, and ſecond the Complaints they may bring to the Throne.

11. You ſhall endeavour to reſtore to America the eſſential Rights of Taxation, by Repreſentatives of their own Free Election; repealing the Acts paſſed in Violation of that Right, ſince the Year 1763; and the Univerſal Exerciſe, ſo notoriouſly incompatible with every Principle of Britiſh Liberty, which has been lately ſubſtituted, in the Colonies, for the Laws of Cuſtoms.

Mr. Bingley ſent a Petition or Memorial to the Society, laying his Caſe before them,---that he was confined to the King's-Bench Priſon for Life,---that he had a Wife and four Children to ſupport,---and that his Buſineſs was in great Confuſion,---requeſting they would take ſome Method to relieve him. The Meeting of the Society was adjourned to the 24th of September.

Windſor-Caſtle, July 26.

This afternoon, at one o'clock, their Majeſties left this place to return to Richmond; their Royal Highneſſes the Prince of Wales, the Biſhop of Oſnabrugh, Prince William, and the Princeſs Royal, having ſet out for Kew in the morning.

July 29. Saturday Lord North had a long conference with his Majeſty at Richmond.

A Council is ſummoned to meet on Wedneſday next, at St. James's, in conſequence, as ſuppoſed, of ſome recent advices from Ireland.

Extract of a Letter from Windſor, July 26, copied from an Evening Paper of Saturday.

---"As to the ceremonial you knew as much of it before it took place as we do now; you will perhaps wiſh to hear a few of the occurences of the day.

"After dinner the new regulation of the Lord Steward took place about the ſcramble; as it was thought a better plan of œconomy to carry the victuals to the mob, than to let the mob come to the victuals. Accordingly the windows of the caſtle were thrown open, and the proviſions toſſed out to the gaping croud below. A cloud of hams, chickens, paſties, haunches, and delicacies of every kind, with knives, forks, plates, table cloaths and napkins, their companions, darkened the air. This was ſucceeded by ſhowers of liquor; ſome conveyed in bottles properly corked, but the greater part in rain. The ſcramble was more diverting than any part of the preceding farce. You would ſee one ſtooping for a fowl, and a great ham falling plump on his back; another having a fork ſtruck in his ſhoulder, and looking up to ſecure himſelf from more of the arrows thus flying by day, received a creamed apple pye full in his face. A Beef-eater having loſt his cap in the ſcuffle, had his loſs repaired by a veniſon paſty falling inverted upon his head. A Bargeman who had juſt ſecured a noble haunch of veniſon, was retiring as faſt as he could with his booty, and ran with it full againſt the back of Lord -------, and made an impreſſion on it ſo like a gridiron, that all the mob, after they ceaſed their laughter, cried out, Smoke the Merry Andrew.

"Our inn-keepers and inhabitants are more diſappointed than any, for they aſked ſo extravagantly before the day for lodgings, proviſions, and accommodations, that you have a bed, ſtabling, and every convenience where you pleaſe, and for what you pleaſe. I muſt inform you, that two or three days before the Inſtallation, it was almoſt impoſſible for any of the inhabitants to get proviſions at any rate, as every thing was kept for this day, ſo that we had like to have ſtarved in the midſt of plenty, but fortunately for us, the melancholy news arrived that a brother of the Queen was dead, and the Inſtallation would be poſtponed; immediately the price of proviſions ſunk almoſt to nothing; and had the report continued for many hours, the ceremony of throwing proviſions out of window would have begun ſooner than to day.

"As I have been generally entertained with the folly of this feſtival, it is with pain I mention, that it has been concluded with a ſerious riot, in which there has been much miſchief."

Auguſt 3. Two ſhips of 74 guns each, at Portſmouth, and 3 of 60, at Chatham, are ordered to be got ready forthwith for the Leeward Iſlands ſtation.

A dreadful Fire happened at Conſtantinople, the 3d of June, which laid in Aſhes two Thouſand Houſes.

Letters from Paris mention, that the French are ſecretly exporting from Breſt and Rochfort, great quantities of naval ſtores for the coaſts of Malabar and Africa, in Dutch bottoms.

Thurſday Lord Viſcount Ligonier kiſſed his Majeſty's hand, on being appointed Colonel of the 9th regiment of foot, in the room of Colonel Whitemore, deceaſed.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter propoſes to ſet out for Portſmouth on Thurſday next, to embark there on board his Majeſty's frigate Venus, on his intended voyage up the Mediterranean.

B O S T O N, September 12.

Captain Arey informs, that on his outward-bound Paſſage from hence, the 24th of May, in Lat. 42:4, Long. 49, he diſcovered the Wreck of a Schooner, having a brown Bottom, Turpentine Waiſt, black Stern, with white Mouldings, long Quarter-deck, about 80 or 90 Tons burthen.

We hear from Haverhill, that a few Days ago as two Boys at Plaiſtow, were playing with a Gun which had lain about the Houſe, not known to be loaded, having no Priming in the Pan, it went off, and ſhot one of the Boys, named Bradley, about 6 Years old, through the Body, of which he died in an Hour or two after.

Sept. 16. On Tueſday a Fellow was tried and found Guilty of breaking into the Office of Joſeph Goldthwait, Eſq; and ſtealing a conſiderable Sum of Money, and ſundry Articles: He was ſentenced to receive 20 Stripes, to pay 500 l. Damages, and Coſts; but having nothing to pay, he was ſentenced to ſerve 20 Years. Wedneſday he received the 20 Stripes at the Public Whipping-Poſt.

Yeſterday arrived here the Captains Scott and Chambers from London, but laſt from Falmouth; the former in 40, and the latter in 35 Days.--They left the Downs in Company with the Captains Symmes and Callahan, bound to this Place.----Capt. Brace for this Port, and the Packet for New-York, were to ſail from Falmouth in a Day or two after the above Veſſels.

N E W - Y O R K, September 23.

Captain Depyſter left Torbay the 12th of Auguſt, in Company with the Ship the Dutcheſs of Gordon, Captain Wynn; the Hope, Captain Chriſtopher Miller; and the Lady-Gage, Captain Kemble, for this Port; and the Pompey, Captain Nicholl, from Hull for Philadelphia; and the 14th Inſtant, in Lat. 37:43, Long. 66, he ſpoke with a Ship from Glaſgow for Virginia, 45 Days out, but did not learn the Captain's Name.

PHILADELPHIA, September 26.

In ASSEMBLY. September 24, 1771, A. M.

THE House taking into Conſideration, a Publication in the Pennſylvania Chronicle, No. 245, ſigned, A Friend to Liberty, with one other Piece, dated Germantown, September 20, 1771, publiſhed by William Goddard, Printer, who is now confined in the common Goal of the City and County of Philadelphia, under divers Executions for Debts;

Reſolved, That the Charges and Reflections contained in the ſaid Publications againſt the Honourable JOSEPH GALLOWAY, the Speaker, are falſe, ſcandalous and malicious, a daring Inſult to, and a Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe.

Ordered, That the foregoing Reſolve be publiſhed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, and Journal, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do immediately furniſh the Printers with a Copy of the ſame.

A true Extract from the Journals,
CHARLES MOORE, Clerk of Aſſembly.

Extract of a Letter from London, July 15, 1771.

"You ſee Wilkes is choſen one of our Sheriffs, as I imagined he would, though he really owed his election to the Court's interpoſing (which is always unpopular with the Livery) and to the Miſ-delivery of a Letter from one of the Secretaries of the Treaſury. But all this ſignifies nothing. The Spirit of Faction muſt gradually ſubſide, for Want of Fuel; for in Reality we have no Grievances worth naming to complain of, though the moſt unwearied Pains have been taken to foment the popular Frenzy, and to make us believe we are in a dangerous Situation, from the Weakneſs and Wickedneſs of the Miniſtry. To this End our News Papers have not a little contributed, which are daily filled with the groſſeſt Falſities, copied from one another, all over the King's Dominions. From which, one at a Diſtance, who had no other Means of Information, muſt naturally conclude, that we are here in a State of the utmoſt Diſtraction, and juſt at the Eve of ſome grand Convulſion. Whereas the real Truth is, we are in perfect Peace and Tranquility, nor any Complaint heard, unleſs of the preſent Dearneſs of Proviſions, which no Body lays to the Account of the King or his Miniſtry.

"Laſt Wedneſday the Lord Mayor, after advertiſing for a Fortnight, to invite the whole Livery to attend him, preſented another Remonſtrance, conceived in the moſt impudent and unwarrantable Terms. You will doubtleſs ſee in the Papers a ſplendid Account of the Cavalcade. But whatever they may tell you, I can aſſure you, from ocular Demonſtration, that it made a moſt pitiful and paltry Figure. A Number of People were brought to the Streets to gaze at him, and the few Aldermen that accompanied him, but only ten or a Dozen Blackguards followed or hallooed him; which feeble Applauſe was much more than overballanced by the Hiſſes of the honeſt and well meaning Spectators, whoſe Indignation was juſtly raiſed, at ſeeing the beſt of Princes teazed and abuſed by a little, pitiful, deſperate and inconſiderable Junto, whom, as Individuals, no reputable Man would chooſe to aſſociate with. I am ſorry I am obliged to ſpeak of theſe Gentlemen with ſo much ſeeming Aſperity; but my Warmth proceeds from a thorough Knowledge of their Malevolence and Futility. At preſent I ſhall diſmiſs the Subject, and leave it to Time to tell you, whether I am right or not in what I now ſay.

"The Miniſtry is, I think, upon a firm Foundation, which, I own, I am pleaſed with for three Reaſons, 1. Becauſe farther Changes, after the Multitude we have already had in this Reign, muſt be fatal to the Peace and Authority of our amiable Sovereign, by not only weakening and diſtreſſing his Government at home, but rendering the Nation contemptible in the Eyes of foreign Courts. 2. Becauſe I really know not how their Places could be better ſupplied, the whole Oppoſition not affording many Names worthy of Conſideration and Truſt. 3. Becauſe I know the Men now in Power mean well, and are many of them poſſeſſed of real Honour and Capacity."

Captain Caſſon, from Liſbon, on the 30th ult. in Lat. 26: 30, Long. 58, ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Dickinſon, from Madeira for Charleſtown, out 24 Days, all well.

Captain Tingley, arrived at New-York from Madeira, on the 17th Inſtant, in Lat. 38, Long. 71: 37, ſpoke the Snow Penn, Captain M'Claine, from this Port for Liſbon; and the ſame Day he ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Wilſon, from Maryland for St. Croix.

Captain Caton, from Cape-Nichola, on the 14th Inſtant, about 36 Leagues to the Eaſtward of Cape-Henry, ſpoke a Brig from Virginia for Whitehaven.

The Brig Content, Captain Price, is arrived at Antigua from this Place.

Laſt Thurſday Evening, between Seven and Eight o'Clock, ſome Rogues went into a Shop in Water-ſtreet, while the Family were ſitting in the Parlour, and ſtole a great Quantity of Goods, with which they got off undiſcovered.

On Tueſday laſt, at a Court of Oyer and Terminer, James Guthrie, and Richard Weſt, were indicted and tried for Burglary, when Guthrie was acquitted; and Weſt was alſo acquitted of the Burglary, but found guilty of the Larceny.

A Bill of Indictment was found againſt Lazarus Stewart, William Speedy, and the others mentioned in the Governor's Proclamation of the 9th of February laſt, for the Murder of Mr. Nathan Ogden, at Wyoming.

A Bill of Indictment was alſo found againſt George Wittman, George Spotts, and Andrew Engle, for robbing Dewalt Schrom on the King's Highway; of which George Wittman, and Andrew Engle, were acquitted, and George Spotts found guilty.

MR. JEREMIAH WARDER, having cautioned all Perſons againſt purchaſing the Plantation, lately advertiſed for ſale by us; we think proper to poſtpone the Sale, until the Seventh Day of October next, in order to give thoſe, who incline to become Purchaſers, an Opportunity of conſidering Mr. Warder's Title, a Brief of which, well ſupported, we apprehend, it is incumbent upon him to lay before the Public, before they can be convinced, "that the ſaid Plantation is his Property." For although, as he obſerves, it might have been regularly granted and ſurveyed, upwards of 80 Years ago, to one of the firſt Purchaſers, it does not follow that it is the Property of Mr. Warder, unleſs he can make it appear that he holds under the firſt Purchaſer, or derives a Right from him, founded upon Principles of Law or Equity. This, we have Reaſon to conclude, he is unable to do; and, therefore, give Notice, that the ſaid Plantation will be ſold, at Public Vendue, on the Seventh Day of October next (between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o' Clock in the Morning) at the Houſe of Mr. Wells, formerly kept by Archibald M'Clean, where the Subſcribers will be glad to ſee Mr. Warder, and be ready to anſwer any objections he might think proper to urge againſt the Validity of their Title, which they think unqueſtionable; and, on the Day of Sale, againſt Mr. Warder, his Heirs, and all other Perſons, will for ever warrant and defend.

It is with great Reluctance, we are under the Neceſſity of entering into a public Conteſt with a Gentleman of Mr. Warder's good Character; and would very willingly avoid it, if a more eligible Mode of deciding our Diſpute could be pointed out; what that Mode ſhall be, we will leave to himſelf; if he inclines to bring an Ejectment, we aſſure him, we will do every Thing in our Power to bring it to the moſt ſpeedy Iſſue. If he is averſe to having Recourſe to the Law, which amongſt honeſt Men, who mean to act with Integrity, ſhould be the laſt Reſort, we are willing to ſubmit our Difference to the Deciſion of any Number of reſpectable ſenſible Gentlemen we can agree upon, even of his own religious Sentiments. Nay, to avoid Diſpute, if he can produce a Scrip of Paper that ſhews Penn (under whom he claims) had a Right to the Land, we will immediately drop all Pretenſions to it, and give him no more Trouble. ISAAC HUNT,
ISAAC BEWLEY.

TO be ſold by HANNAH DUBRE, in the Northern Liberties, a large number of fruit trees, grafted with the beſt ſort of fruit, and a quantity of the beſt of garden ſeeds, which may be had at James Truman's, in Elbow-lane, near the Harp and Crown tavern. Likewiſe, to be rented, the plantation on which ſhe now dwells, containing between 30 and 40 acres of cleared land, whereon is a good orchard, ſome meadow, and ſundry good fruit trees; alſo a quantity of aſparagus beds on the place. For terms, apply to HANNAH DUBRE, JOSEPH MARRIOTT, in Philadelphia, or ANDREW DOZ, at Peel-Hall, adjoining the above mentioned plantation.

N. B. The above mentioned James Truman continues to cure and pack rounds of beef, and neats tongues, in the beſt manner, as uſual. §

To be ſold by public vendue, on the firſt day of November next, on the premiſes, at two o'clock in the afternoon,

A VALUABLE plantation, containing 226 acres, ſituate in the townſhip of Newlin, and county of Cheſter, and province of Pennſylvania; Brandywine Creek runs near the houſe, ſome good meadow made, and more may be made, and well watered; the ſaid plantation is well watered and timbered, a good dwelling-houſe and barn, about 28 miles from Philadelphia, and half a mile from a good merchant mill; the great road that leads from the Great Valley to Wilmington, runs through the ſaid plantation, and near the houſe, 17 miles from Wilmington; on ſaid place is a ſmall orchard. The terms of payment will be known at the day of ſale, by me

§ NATHANIEL NEWLIN.

ALL perſons who have any demands againſt the eſtate of Hugh Powell, tanner, late of the Northern Liberties of Philadelphia, deceaſed, are deſired to bring them in for ſettlement; and thoſe who are indebted to ſaid eſtate, are deſired to make payment to WILLIAM HASLEWOOD, Adminiſtrator, at Mr. William Smith's, in Second-ſtreet, near Market-ſtreet. §

To the Inhabitants of New-Jerſey, Pennſylvania, and Maryland.

WHEREAS a certain Perſon (whoſe Reſidence at preſent is in Weſt-Nottingham, in Cheſter County, Pennſylvania) who calls himſelf by the Name of Henry Watts, hath made a Practice of the Begging Trade, and it is thought impoſed greatly on charitable People in Places where he is not known; thereby collecting conſiderable Sums of Money, Meat and other Things of Value, pretending Poverty, and that he has a Family to maintain, and ſhewing an old Brief, whilſt in Fact he is an Impoſtor, and a Perſon of an ill Character where he is known, much ſubject to Drunkenneſs and other Vices, has no Family but a Woman which he calls his Wife, who, by often quarelling with each other, are a Nuiſance in the Neighbourhood were they dwell. He carries a wooden Leg on the left Side, is of a middle Stature, red faced, wears his own Hair tied behind, and moſtly rides on Horſeback.

The intent of this Advertiſement is to give the Public a Hint of his Conduct and Character, as it is apprehended he has followed Begging long enough. ¶ 7ſ6

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, an indented ſervant man, named JANUS NOWER, by trade a Bricklayer, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, of a ſwarthy complexion, ſtoops in his ſhoulders, turns his toes in when he walks, is much addicted to drink, wears his hair, which is black; had on, when he went away, a light coloured duffil coat, ozenbrigs trowſers, or green ſhag breeches, and white linen ſhirt, country made ſhoes and ſtockings, and a felt hat; but as he has ſome perſons that aſſiſt him, he may have changed his dreſs. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and brings him back to his maſter, living near Buſhtown, in Baltimore county, Maryland, ſhall receive FIVE POUNDS reward, and reaſonable charges; or if ſecured in any goal, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall receive the above reward of FIVE POUNDS, paid by AQUILA HALL. ¶

CAME to Greenwich-point Ferry, oppoſite Glouceſter, in June laſt, a bright ſorrel MARE, white mane and tail, a blaze down her face, her fore and hind feet white, a natural trotter, and appeared to have been lately docked. The owner is deſired to come, and prove his property, pay charges, and take her away. RICHARD RENSHAW. ¶

THE MEMBERS of the CORPORATION for the Relief of the Widows and Children of Clergymen in the Communion of the Church of England in America, are requeſted to attend the Annual Meeting, which is to be held, according to Adjournment, at the City of Perth-Amboy, in New-Jerſey, on the Second Day of October next, being the firſt Wedneſday after the Feaſt of St. Michael.

JONATHAN ODELL, Secretary to the Corporation.

FOUND, about the 6th of May laſt, a ſmall parcel of GOODS, in Market-ſtreet, Philadelphia. The owner proving his property, and paying all charges, may have them again, by applying to CHRISTOPHER VERTZ, in the Borough of Lancaſter. ¶

WANTED,

AN APPRENTICE to the mercantile BUSINESS. One who writes a good Hand, and is thoroughly acquainted with Arithmetic, on Application to the PRINTERS of this Paper, may know where to apply. §

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for your Favours paſt, and ſhall be further obliged to you for the Continuance of your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election.

JUDAH FOULKE, Sheriff.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, ELECTORS for the City and County of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for the Honour you did me the laſt Year, in voting me on the Return for Coroners, and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the ſaid Office at the enſuing Election, I beg the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt, which ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by, GENTLEMEN,

Your obliged Friend, and humble Servant,

CALEB CASH, Coroner.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, of the County of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for the Reſpect you have ſhewn me, by electing me one of your Repreſentatives in the General Aſſembly of this Province for ſeveral Years paſt; and as it will by no Means ſuit me to be continued in that Station, I deſire you will chooſe ſome other Perſon at the next Election, in the Place of your ſincere Friend, ROWLAND EVANS. ¶

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, qualified to chooſe Members of Aſſembly, for the City and County of Philadelphia.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM obliged to you for the good Opinion you have entertained of me, in chooſing me one of your Repreſentatives in the General Aſſembly of this Province, for ſeveral Years paſt; but, as my own private Buſineſs too much interferes with the neceſſary Application to ſo important a Truſt, I muſt beg you will excuſe me, by chooſing ſome other Perſon, at the enſuing Election, to ſerve in my Stead, which will much oblige your ſincere Friend, THOMAS LIVEZEY.

To the ELECTORS of the City of PHILADELPHIA.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for the Favor, you were pleaſed to confer upon me laſt Year, by chuſing me one of your Repreſentatives in Aſſembly. Being then abſent, at a conſiderable Diſtance from Town, and not having received any Notice of your Intentions, when I left home, I had not a timely Opportunity of requeſting you to excuſe me from ſerving you in that Office. My Reſpect for you engaged me therefore to accept it; and I hope I have, on this, and every other Occaſion, where a public Truſt has been committed to me, acted in ſuch a Manner, that my Fellow Citizens and Countrymen will believe my Conduct has been ſolely influenced by a Regard for their Welfare. As ſeveral Reaſons have determined me not to continue longer in Aſſembly, I earneſtly deſire, you will be ſo kind as to chuſe, at the enſuing Election, ſome Perſon to repreſent you in the Place of, GENTLEMEN,

Your obliged Friend, and faithful Servant,

September 2, 1771. JOHN DICKINSON.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, of the County of BUCKS.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my moſt ſincere and grateful Thanks, for the Honour you were pleaſed to confer upon me, in chuſing me one of your Repreſentatives in Aſſembly for ſeveral Years paſt, but as the State of my private Buſineſs too much interferes for me to diſcharge ſo important a Truſt, I earneſtly beg that you will be pleaſed to chooſe ſome other Perſon in my Stead, at the enſuing Election, which will greatly oblige your faithful Friend, and very humble Servant, PETER SHEPHERD. ¶

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, in and for the Borough and County of CHESTER.

RESPECTED FRIENDS,

AS I purpoſe to offer myſelf a Candidate for the Sheriff's Office, at the Expiration of our preſent Sheriff's Time (as limited by Law) I requeſt the Favour of your VOTES and INTEREST, at the enſuing ELECTION, in order to be voted on the RETURN with him. Your Favours ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by Your aſſured Friend, ELISHA JONES.

Springfield, September 6, 1771. ¶

To the FREEHOLDERS and others, the ELECTORS for the Borough and County of CHESTER.

GENTLEMEN,

I ACKNOWLEDGE your Favours in voting me on the Return for Sheriffs theſe two Years paſt; and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the Office at the Expiration of the preſent Sheriff's Time, your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, in order to keep me on the Return with the preſent Officer, ſhall be gratefully acknowledged and remembered by your real friend, HENRY HAYES. ¶

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for the Borough and County of CHESTER.

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR voting me on the Return theſe ſeveral Years paſt, for Coroner, demands my public Acknowledgment, and I hereby do it with real Gratitude; and as I purpoſe to offer myſelf a Candidate for the Sheriff's Office, at the Expiration of the preſent Sheriff's Time, I take this early Opportunity to deſire the Favour of your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, in order to be held in Memory for the ſaid Office, at the Time aforeſaid; which Favour ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by

Your ſincere Friend, JOSEPH GIBBONS, junior. §

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for the County and Borough of CHESTER.

WHEREAS you have choſe me one of your Repreſentatives for ſome Years paſt, and the Time for your annual Election approaching, I think it neceſſary to acquaint you, that I cannot conveniently attend that Service longer; therefore, I requeſt you will leave out my Name, at the enſuing Election, and you will much oblige your aſſured Friend,

‡ JOHN MINSHALL.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, of the Borough and County of CHESTER.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my ſincere Acknowledgments for the Honour you have done me, in chooſing me one of your Repreſentatives in the General Aſſembly of this Province, for theſe three Years paſt; but the Situation of my private Affairs, at this Time, will make it very inconvenient for me, to ſerve you any longer in that Station; I therefore requeſt the Favour of you, to chooſe ſome other Perſon, at the enſuing Election, in the Stead of, Your obliged and reſpectful Friend,

§ JOHN CROSBY.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, of the Borough and County of LANCASTER.

GENTLEMEN,

I SHALL be greatly obliged to you for your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, to carry me on the Return with the preſent Sheriff, as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for that Office, after his Time expires, in the uſual Manner. I am,

¶ Your humble Servant, GEORGE HOOFNAGLE.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, of the Borough and County of LANCASTER.

THE Confidence you have repoſed in me, in chooſing me one of your Repreſentatives, to ſerve in Aſſembly, for a Number of Years paſt, merits my ſincere and hearty Acknowledgment; but as it is too hard for me to ſerve you longer in that Station, on Account of Age, and often cold Weather and bad Roads to travel, I muſt requeſt you would be pleaſed to elect another in my Stead, to ſerve you in that important Truſt, at the next Election. I am, your ſincere Friend,

¶ EMANUEL CARPENTER.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, for BERKS County.

GENTLEMEN,

SINCE for the laſt three Years you have been pleaſed to favour me as a Candidate for the Sheriff's Office, with a conſiderable Number of your Votes (for which I return you my ſincere and hearty Thanks) it has been an Encouragement to me to offer myſelf again a Candidate for the ſaid Office, at the next enſuing Election, and to requeſt the Continuance of your Votes and Intereſt; aſſuring you, at the ſame Time, that if I ſhould have the good Fortune to be choſen Sheriff by you, I ſhall make it my conſtant Study to diſcharge all the Duties of that Office with the Integrity, which the Laws of the Land, and my Attachment to you require. I am, GENTLEMEN,

Your devoted and moſt humble Servant,

Reading, Sept. 3, 1771. HENRY HALLER. ¶

To the FREEHOLDERS, and others, the ELECTORS for the County of NEW-CASTLE.

GENTLEMEN,

I ACKNOWLEDGE your Favours in making, or voting me your Sheriff ſome years ago, and as I intend to ſtand a Candidate for the aforeſaid Office, at the Expiration of the preſent Sheriff's Time, your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election, in order to put me on the Return with the preſent Sheriff, ſhall ever be remembered by, GENTLEMEN,

Your obedient humble Servant,

Brandywine Hundred, Sept. 6, 1771. WILLIAM GOLDEN.

To the FREEHOLDERS and ELECTORS of NEW-CASTLE County on Delaware.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you hearty Thanks for your favourable Opinion, in thinking me worthy of a Seat in your Houſe of Aſſembly for ſuch a Number of Years paſt; but now having certain Reaſons to decline accepting thereof, I do requeſt, as a farther Inſtance of your Favours, that you would not vote at the enſuing Election for your humble Servant,

† WILLIAM ARMSTRONG.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and other ELECTORS, of the County of NEW-CASTLE.

GENTLEMEN,

BEING encouraged by my Friends, to offer myſelf a Candidate, to be on the Return with Mr. Duff, for the Sheriff's Office; I take this public Method to ſolicit your Votes and Intereſt, at the enſuing Election; your Favours, and Friendſhip, will be ſincerely acknowledged, with the warmeſt Gratitude, by

GENTLEMEN, Your humble Servant,

¶ JOHN ARMSTRONG.

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, for the County of NEW-CASTLE.

GENTLEMEN,

WITH Gratitude I acknowledge the Eſteem you have held me in for a Number of Years paſt, in chuſing me one of your Repreſentatives, but finding it will be very prejudicial to me on ſeveral Accounts to continue longer, therefore requeſt you will chooſe ſome other Perſon at the enſuing Election. I am, GENTLEMEN, with great Regard, your Friend and humble Servant, JOHN EVANS. §

To the FREEHOLDERS, and ELECTORS, of the County of SUSSEX, on Delaware.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my moſt ſincere and grateful Thanks, for the Honour you conferred on me, in chooſing me your Repreſentative in Aſſembly, for upwards of Forty Years paſt. At length, finding myſelf, through the Infirmities of old Age, unable to ſerve you any longer in that Capacity, I beg that you will be pleaſed to chooſe ſome other Perſon in my Stead, at the next general Election. I am, with much Eſteem, and Regard, GENTLEMEN, your much obliged humble Servant,

JACOB KOLLOCK.

RUN away, in the night of the 3d inſtant September, from the ſubſcriber, an Iriſh ſervant man, named THOMAS CLEMANS, a thick well ſet fellow, of a pale complexion, about five feet ſewen or eight inches high: Had on, and took with him, a grey coat, with white metal buttons, a purple and white checked jacket, white drilling breeches, and ſeveral other things, not yet known. There is likewiſe gone along with him, a woman, of a pale complexion and thin viſage, who no doubt will paſs for his wife. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have THIRTY SHILLINGS reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by DAVID THOMSON, Ship-builder, living in Southwark, PHILADELPHIA. ¶

THE 9th of laſt month, a perſon unknown left a grey HORSE in my paſture, in Glouceſter; this is therefore to deſire ſaid perſon to come and take him away, otherwiſe he will be ſold for the charges. W. HUGG. ¶

FOUR DOLLARS Reward.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, living near George-Town, in Kent county, Maryland, the 3d of this inſtant September, at night, an Iriſh ſervant man, named TIMOTHY CONNER, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has ſhort brown hair, a ſore place on his right breaſt, and a large wart on his left hip; had on, and took with him, a new country linen ſhirt, and trowſers of the ſame, an old lightiſh brown jacket, with cuffs to the ſleeves, and lappelled, a half-worn felt hat, and half-worn ſhoes, with broad rimmed braſs buckles in them; his other cloaths (if any) not known; it is very likely he may change his name, as he has been uſed to do ſo before. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and ſecures him in any goal, and ſends notice to his maſter, ſo that he may get him again, ſhall receive the above reward, and reaſonable charges, if brought home, paid by GEORGE BROWNING.

N. B. All maſters of veſſels, and others, are forbid to harbour or carry him off, at their peril. ¶

FORTY SHILLINGS Reward.

Leacock Townſhip, Lancaſter County, Auguſt 13, 1771.

RUN away from SAMUEL LAFEVER, of Straſburg townſhip, Lancaſter county, an Iriſh ſervant man, named SAMUEL PONSONBY HARRINGTON (but it is likely he may change his name to Samuel Ponſonby, or Samuel Harrington; as he is a good ſcholar, and can write well, it is likely he will forge a paſs) about 40 years of age, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, dark complexion, ſhort black hair; had on, when he ran away, a grey coarſe cloth coat, ſtriped lincey jacket, grey coarſe cloth breeches, two ſhirts, one white, the other checkered, yarn ſtockings, half worn ſhoes, with new plain braſs buckles, a ſmall wool hat, by trade a wool-comber; it is like he will call himſelf a wool-comber, a ſchool-maſter, or muſic-maſter. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant in any goal, ſo as he may be had again, ſhall receive the above reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by SAMUEL LAFEVER, or JAMES WILSON. ¶ 8 W.

Glouceſter County, Ninth Month 2, 1771.

THERE will be expoſed to Sale, by Way of public Vendue, on the 30th of this inſtant (September) at the Houſe of Hugh Creighton, Inkeeper, in Haddonfield, the two following Tracts of Land, ſituate and being in the Townſhip and County of Glouceſter. One Tract containing about 400 Acres, on which there is a Dwelling-houſe, Barn, and Apple Orchard; alſo a Saw-mill, commonly called, Tice's Big Mill, the Stream on which the Mill is erected is thought ſufficient for a Grift-mill likewiſe, which might be advantageous to the Purchaſer, as the Situation is convenient for the back Inhabitants, being near the landing Road, as well as to a Number of Farmers in the Neighbourhood; ſaid Mill is about five Miles from a public Landing.

One other Tract of about 96 Acres, adjoining the above, on which there is a Houſe and other Improvements, and is now in the Tenure of John Buſſell: Any Perſon inclining to view the Premiſes, may apply to Richard Tice, living near the ſame. The Sale of ſaid Lands to begin at One o' Clock in the Afternoon of ſaid Day, at which Time the Conditions will be publiſhed, the whole being Part of the real Eſtate of ſaid Tice, and aſſigned to us for the Benefit of his Creditors.

ISAAC MICKLE, THOMAS REDMAN, Aſſignees.

N. B. There are 7 or 800 Acres of Pine Land and Cedar Swamp, ſituate convenient to ſaid Mill, the Property of ſaid Tice, which may be purchaſed. ¶

To be poſitively SOLD, at public VENDUE, on Thurſday, the third day of October next enſuing, by the ſubſcriber, on the premiſes,

THE Public-houſe or Tavern, now in the tenure of John Dowdney, ſituate in Middletown, in the county of Bucks, at a place, commonly known by the name of the Four Lane Ends, within 22 miles of Philadelphia, 9 of Trenton, 7 of Briſtol, and 4 of Newtown.---The ſaid houſe is large and ſpacious, having 4 rooms on the lower floor, with an 8 feet entry through the ſame, 5 rooms on the ſecond floor, and 2 convenient garrets; a genteel garden adjoining the houſe, with a well and pump at the garden door, and a ſmall lot at the end of the garden, on which is erected a very good ſtable, the houſe, which is built of brick and ſtone, is in the beſt repair, being almoſt new; the ſituation very high and beautifully commodious, and ſo remarkably healthy, that intermitting fevers, fevers and agues, and fluxes, common to other places, are not known here. The adjacent neighbourhood, who conſiſt of the moſt wealthy and reputable farmers, are a kind, benevolent, converſable and agreeable people. To accommodate the ſaid Tavern (which may be converted into a Gentleman's country ſeat) will be ſold with the ſaid houſe, between 5 and 6 acres of woodland, capable (from a conſtant ſtream of water paſſing through it) of being made valuable watered meadow, as the ſoil is admirably well adapted to that uſe. The conditions of ſale will be made known on the day of vendue, which will be eaſy to the purchaſer. GILBERT HICKS.
